

ONS+ DEBATES - THE CHECKLIST

ONS+ brings the energy discussions, social gatherings, and music downtown Stavanger during the week of ONS. We invite you to take lead on the discussions on energy in society.

The ONS+ networking arena is open every night during ONS. The debate programme is a mix of energy discussions, debates, and informal talks facilitated by ONS, NGOs and other organisations interested in setting the energy agenda.

WHEN AND WHERE?

- Monday 24 August – 26 August.
- Different locations around the Stavanger city harbour.

WHO CAN HOST A DEBATE?

Anyone interested in putting energy on the agenda. NGOs, academia, think tanks, companies etc.

FOR WHO?

Anyone interested in energy's role in society. Both those attending ONS as well as those that are not able to attend ONS,

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- Set the agenda by creating your own event and make yourselves relevant in energy discussions
- An opportunity to invite your network and your opponent to start a dialogue on energy
- Easy access to plug & play event
- An easy way to be available and attract media attention
- An informal meeting place for your network

CRITERIA:

- You plan the content and organise panellists
- You invite and share in your network
- Debate can be organised alone or together with partners
- Debates should not exceed 45 min in length (timeslots provided by ONS are 1,5h in total)
- You must cover the cost of basic sound equipment
- If you require more technical equipment, this should be ordered through our technical provider
- Host must be an exhibiting company, an NGO/academia or in a formal collaboration with ONS

ONS WILL:

- Provide locations on a first-come-first-serve basis until the locations are fully booked
- Assist in providing relevant panellists
- Set up a basic sound system with microphones and sound technician
- Promote all debate contributions as part of the official ONS programme in all ONS channels and partner media
- Gather the industry, the politicians, the NGOs, relevant organisations, media and influencers, to fuel conversations that bring the players closer together
