The Silberman Advantage

1 Employers recognize the quality of your AACSB-accredited degree--it's the gold standard. We've been accredited since 2001.

Silberman prepares you as a global change maker and is one of the few North American business schools that is measured by the Positive Impact Rating.

2

3 You will learn by doing with immersive classrooms and career-focused co-curricular activities.

Courses taught by renowned faculty with real-world experience from corporate, consulting, and entrepreneurial backgrounds.

4

5 Silberman's commitment to responsible management as a signatory to the UN Principles of Responsible Management Education (PRME) initiative.

Silberman builds your professional skills and leadership acumen through our Professional Development Program.

6

The Silberman Advantage

7 Gain an entrepreneurial advantage with the home base of the NJSBDC residing at FDU.

Transformational learning in technology-enhanced environments--Silberman has the largest collection of Bloomberg terminals of any academic institution in NJ.

8

9 Comfortable in uncomfortable situations: Preparing you for the job market. As a student, you will build confidence and perfect your written and oral presentation skills through repeated practice.

We develop your global mindset. FDU is an institution of higher education "of and for the world" and is the first university to earn Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council and the Founding Member of the UN Academic Impact Program.

10

11 Location, Location, and Location. Our two NJ campuses and two abroad campuses are short commutes away from business hubs and major metropolitan areas.

Silberman Professional Development Program

We are dedicated to developing students and helping them become internship and career-ready. Our Professional Development Program, active on both New Jersey campuses, provides a wide range of opportunities for students to meet and learn from leading business executives and alumni, and teaches students the soft skills that are essential to success. The goal of the Silberman College of Business Professional Development Program is to enrich your learning and preparedness for your career by offering workshops, talks, panel discussions, networking opportunities, and resources to help you secure a rewarding position in your field.
