

Almer Manor

intimate weddings

The heart knows when the search is over...

Tucked away in the Dorset countryside, Almer Manor offers an intimate and beautifully personal setting for couples who want to celebrate in their own way. With the historic Manor, Stable Cottage and grounds exclusively yours, it is a place to gather those closest to you and enjoy every part of the occasion without rushing.

Choose between a lawn ceremony framed by mature trees and open countryside, or our secluded walled garden, complete with its historic wedding arch. Both offer a romantic backdrop for a relaxed outdoor ceremony, followed by drinks, photographs and a memorable evening with family and friends.

Free from the format and expectations of a traditional wedding venue, Almer gives you the freedom to create a celebration that reflects you. Whether that means a quiet weekend away, an elegant garden gathering or a laid-back evening at home with your favourite people, every detail can feel entirely your own.

Here, intimate weddings are not made to fit a template. They are made for meaningful moments, lasting memories and the people who matter most.

Amplified music is not permitted, helping preserve the peaceful atmosphere of the estate and its countryside surroundings.
