Will the reception start immediately after the ceremony?

ANSWER

The reception to follow is at 6PM. To give us enough time to take some post-nup photos and get settled, appetizers and refreshments will be served. Take advantage of this time to socialize, register, find your seats, and use the photobooth.

Am I allowed to take pictures and/or videos?

ANSWER

As we walked down the aisle, we'd love to see your faces and joyful smiles. Help us capture the moment by refraining from using your devices until we tie the knot. We have an incredible team of P/V on hand to capture the moments. We promise to share the photos with you after the wedding.

Why is RSVP so important?

ANSWER

Your RSVP will help us determine the final head count for food serving and seating arrangement. Please provide us with your complete name as this will be checked by our coordinators upon registration.

I confirmed “YES” to the RSVP, but I can’t attend anymore. What should I do?

ANSWER

It is sad that you can no longer be part of our big day. We invited only those who are close to our hearts. However, please let us know as soon as possible so we can give your seat to someone else.

I said “NO” to the RSVP, but my schedule suddenly frees up – I can attend now. What should I do?

ANSWER

We already took your “NO” as FINAL CONFIRMATION. Please understand that we have already allotted the seat to someone else the minute you decline the invitation. Let’s catch up after the wedding. Dinner, maybe?

Can I bring the kids?

ANSWER

We really love your little ones! However, due to the necessity rather than choice, we humbly request that only kids from the immediate family will be accommodated on our wedding.

If this is inevitable, do let us know so we can plan accordingly.
