Digital Research Innovation

Integrated Library Systems & AI Tools

The library employs advanced tools such as Koha for library management, DSpace for institutional repository, and Drupal for content management. A dedicated AI resource page promotes ethical AI usage in academia, integrating generative AI tools for research support.

Department-Wise Resource Portal

One of the first initiatives of its kind in Bangladesh

Dr. S. R. Lasker Library has launched a "Department-Wise Resource Portal" (one of the first initiatives of its kind in academic libraries in Bangladesh) on its website to enhance access to resources. It features dedicated homepages for 13 departments that organize various materials, including hardcopy books, e-resources (e-journals and e-books), popular magazines, conference details, and useful web resources. Access the portal at <http://lib.ewubd.edu/department>.
