The Pride of

EL TORO

CLUB DEFENSORES
DE SALTO

Argentina, a nation with an undying love for fútbol, boasts a vibrant tapestry of fútbol clubs that serve as the heartbeat of their communities. Among these revered institutions stands Club Defensores de Salto, a club with a rich heritage and a passionate fanbase. Known affectionately as “El Loro,” this club has etched its name into the annals of Argentine fútbol with an enduring legacy.

Club Defensores de Salto, nestled in the picturesque city of Salto in the Buenos Aires Province, is more than just a fútbol club; it is a symbol of local pride and tradition. There are 4 major clubs in the city of Salto, and they stand as one of two clubs that celebrated their 100-year-anniversary. The intriguing moniker “El Loro” (The Parrot) has a captivating origin story. As the club was in its infancy, a group of ardent fans would flock to matches, bringing with them a live parrot. This colorful bird, with its ability to squawk and mimic the cheers and chants of the fans, created a unique and unforgettable atmosphere. Over time, the parrot became an emblem of the club, and the nickname “El Loro” was born, forever intertwining the club’s identity with this feathered friend.

Like the heartbeat of any fútbol club, Defensores de Salto has experienced its fair share of peaks and valleys throughout its storied history. The club has celebrated numerous successes across various divisions of Argentine fútbol, earning the admiration of fans and respect from rivals. Championship victories and promotions have been moments of euphoria, etching unforgettable memories in the hearts of supporters. They, for the most part, have been in the 4th division, and while relegation is easy, they have pushed and found themselves a promotion. However, the journey has not been without its setbacks. Relegation battles, financial hardships, and the challenges of maintaining a competitive edge have tested the mettle of the club and its loyal fanbase.

These triumphs and tribulations are a testament to the resilience and unwavering spirit that define Defensores de Salto. To truly grasp the importance of Club Defensores de Salto, one must delve into the broader cultural context of fútbol in Argentina. In this South American nation, fútbol transcends the boundaries of mere sport; it is a way of life, an integral part of national identity, and a canvas for artistic expression. Argentine fútbol is renowned for its passionate fans, virtuoso players, and iconic stadiums.

Each weekend, millions of Argentines unite to watch matches, whether it be a local club clash like Defensores de Salto or international showdowns featuring the national team, La Albiceleste. Fútbol serves as a unifying force that defies social, economic, and political divisions, bringing people together in jubilation and camaraderie.

In Argentina, fútbol is more than just a game; it is a reflection of the nation's soul, a manifestation of its fierce competitive spirit, and a tribute to its enduring romance with the beautiful game.

Club Defensores de Salto's significance extends beyond the pitch.

It is a community hub, a place where generations gather to share their passion for fútbol. Families pass down their love for "El Loro" from one generation to the next, creating a sense of belonging and tradition that is deeply ingrained in the local culture.

The club's legacy is not confined to its victories and defeats; it is also a testament to the dedication of its players, coaches, and supporters. The yellow and green colors of Defensores de Salto symbolize not only the club's history but also the hopes and dreams of the community it represents.

Miles Away

In the heart of New York City, there's a haven for Liverpool FC enthusiasts—a spirited bar where the passion for fútbol transforms into a vibrant symphony. As the sun rose this morning, I stepped into this pulsating hub, alive with the shared energy of a family bound by their love for the game.

The atmosphere was electric, a whirlwind of excitement as fans from every walk of life gathered to witness a clash of titans. Liverpool was taking on Manchester City, and the air crackled with anticipation. The bar pulsated with the rhythmic cadence of chants, each cheer echoing the collective heartbeat of the crowd.

A photograph of a pub interior. In the foreground, the back of a person's head is visible. The pub is filled with patrons, some of whom are watching football on multiple television screens. A Santa Claus figure is visible on the left side of the frame. The atmosphere is festive and social.

Amidst the sea of red jerseys and scarves, friendships were forged in the heat of the moment, and strangers became allies in the name of their beloved team. The air was thick with camaraderie, and the walls reverberated with the joyous uproar of every goal and near miss.

In those moments, worries and stresses evaporated, replaced by a shared euphoria that united everyone present. It wasn't just a fútbol game; it was a celebration of community, a testament to the unifying power of sports. As the final whistle blew, the cheers and applause lingered in the air, a reminder that, in this bustling corner of the city, fútbol isn't just a sport—it's a way of life, and the vibrant spirit of Liverpool FC lives on, even 3000 miles away from Anfield.

FÚTBOL'S

SOUL:

ATHLETIC

BILBAO

In a world where the true value of fútbol has been lost in the pursuit of financial gain and soulless glory, comes a team that may just be your new favorite after reading this piece. A team that holds the utmost respect for the culture and the unique standing of its borders among the world stage. Straddling the Pyrenees, the Basque country has married the cross-section between the south of France and the Spanish borders into a fútboling identity reflective of their nature.

The formation of the club we know today blossomed into an early dynasty of post civil war Spanish fútbol. Jump forward about 3 decades later and you have yourself what is to become the foundation of the present day – the world-renowned Lezama Academy. It is from the exploits that the principle of only fielding Basque-blooded players was developed and refined. And while other Basque-country clubs like Sociedad have themselves a strong crop of talent, it is this principle that makes Bilbao unique from any other side in the world of fútbol.

The reason? Because they understand the importance of being from the Basque country. The fans accept that they may not have the world-beaters in the squad, but what they lack in talent, they make up in passion. To wear the Athletic Bilbao jersey is to represent the people that come before you—to build a legacy.

Perhaps it is this that gives the XI on the pitch that sense of drive to be the best, even if they're always going to be considered the underdogs in today's game where money rules atop of the European elite. To chase the glory that once was all those years ago.

Con cantera y afición, no hace falta importación.

The bedrock of Athletic Bilbao's success may seem archaic and out of touch, but it is the reason why this side epitomizes the phrase "fútbol is for the people."

Storm of The Black Sea

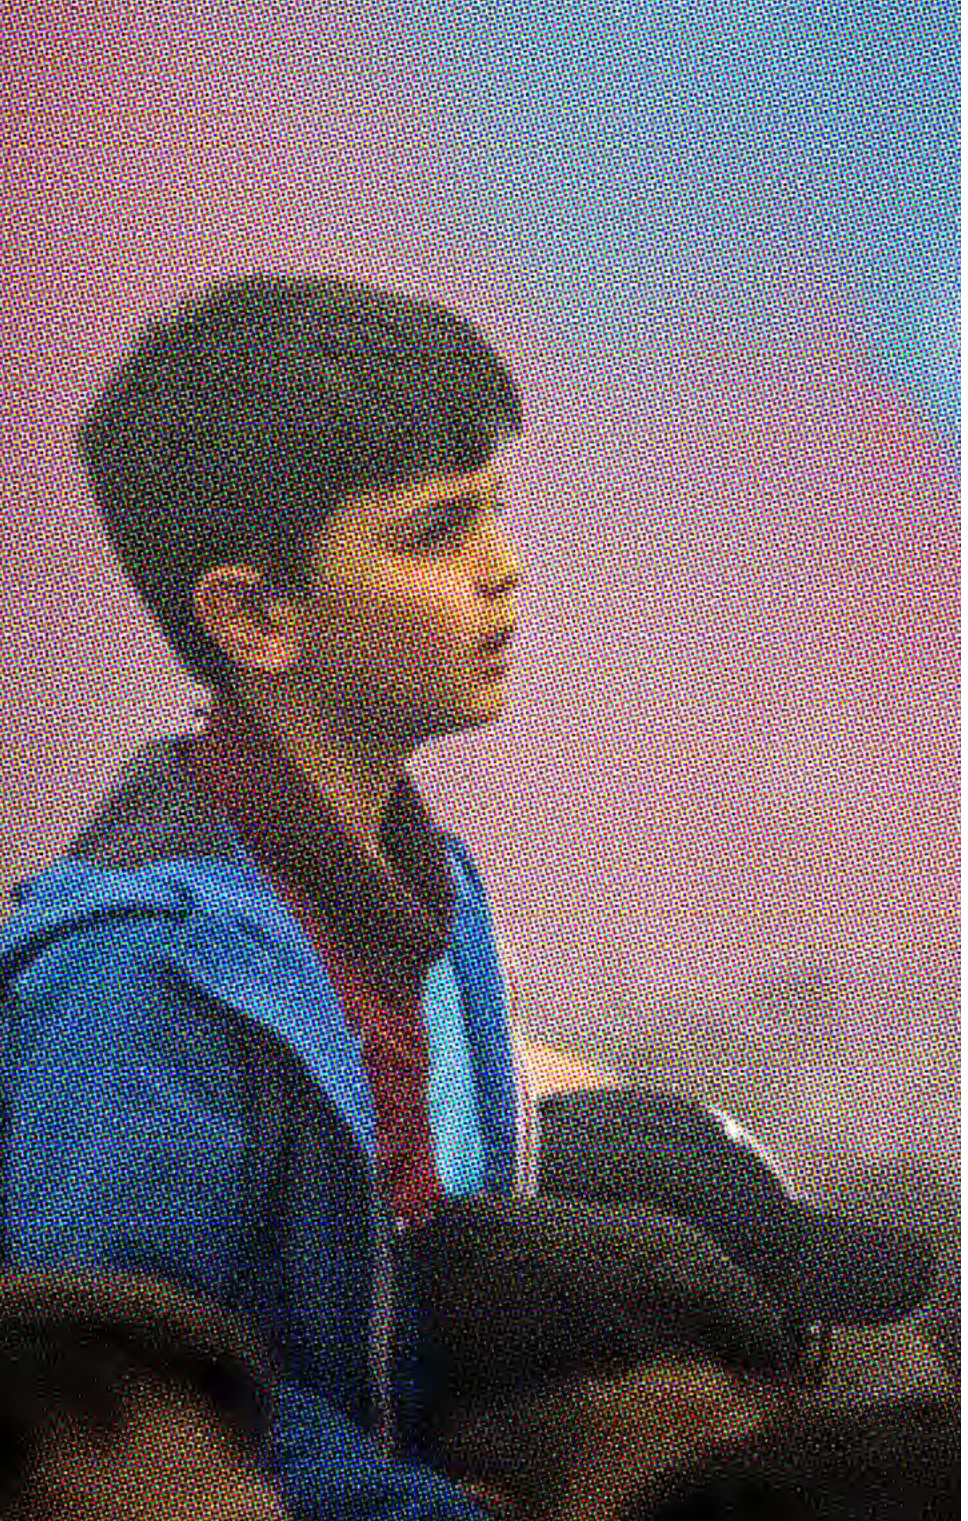

Nestled along the rugged coast of the Black Sea in northeastern Turkey, the ancient city of Trabzon harbors a secret—a story of fútboling triumph that defies the conventional script. The year 2021/22 witnessed a momentous transformation as Trabzonspor, an underdog club often cast in the shadow of Istanbul’s giants, emerged from a 38-year Super Lig title drought. This victory, however, was more than just a championship; it was a reclamation of justice and a revival of dreams that had been deferred.

For the devoted fans of Trabzonspor, the triumph carried the sweet taste of redemption, a sentiment deeply rooted in a tumultuous past. The Turkish Fútbol Scandal of 2010/11 had cast a dark cloud over the sport, with match-fixing allegations tarnishing its integrity. Amidst the chaos, Fenerbahce, one of Istanbul’s fútbol titans, held the title, an injustice that cut deep into the hearts of Trabzonspor’s faithful supporters. This injustice, like an unhealed wound, festered over the years, but the 2021/22 victory acted as the much-needed balm, healing the scars and restoring a sense of fairness to the game.

Trabzonspor’s path to the summit of Turkish fútbol was an arduous one, a narrative defined by resilience and redemption. In the 1970s and 80s, they stood tall among the fútboling elite, a force to be reckoned with. However, the dawn of the 90s brought with it an exodus of talent, as European giants lured away the club’s brightest stars. The near-misses etched in the annals of Turkish fútbol history served as the crucible in which Trabzonspor’s character was forged. The agony of losing the title in the final match of the 1995/96 season and the heart-wrenching defeat to Fenerbahce in 2005 were chapters in a narrative of almost-there moments.

These experiences were not setbacks but stepping stones, each setback serving as a catalyst for greater determination. They stoked the fires of resilience and fostered a fiery spirit that would ultimately lead to their triumphant moment in 2021/22.

The 2021/22 season embodied the spirit of revolution. The so-called rebels of Turkish fútbol, who had dared to challenge the established order, now stood triumphant. In an era dominated by financial might and historical pedigree, Trabzonspor's triumph stood as a testament to the enduring power of passion, determination, and the pursuit of justice.

The words that characterized this real-life Cinderella story—disruptive, passion, and revenge—were not mere labels but the very essence of the club’s identity. These words encapsulated the raw emotions, the fierce struggles, and the ultimate triumph of Trabzonspor’s 2021/22 Super Lig campaign.

A Journey Through Fútbol: An Interview with Ogün Temizkanoglu

INTERVIEWED BY ZEID JAOUNI OF EXTRA TIME MAGAZINE AND NING CHOI OF AESTHETICFUTBOL

In the world of Turkish fútbol, there are names that transcend the boundaries of clubs and rivalries, embodying the essence of passion, dedication, and excellence. Ogün Temizkanoğlu is one such name, a fútboling legend who had the rare honor of representing both Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe during his illustrious career.

In this exclusive interview, Ogün Temizkanoğlu takes us on a captivating journey through his fútboling life, sharing insights, memories, and experiences that provide a unique perspective on the beautiful game. From the challenges of wearing the captain's armband for two iconic clubs to the enduring friendships forged in the locker room, Ogün's story is one of dedication, teamwork, and love for the sport.

As we delve into the interview, Ogün reflects on his role in nurturing the friendly rivalry between Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe, emphasizing the importance of both clubs in Turkish fútbol's vibrant tapestry. He also opens up about his time with the national team, highlighting memorable moments and the influence of legendary coach Fatih Terim.

Beyond his playing days, Ogün Temizkanoğlu continues to contribute to Turkish fútbol, sharing his knowledge and experiences as a coach and media personality. He offers invaluable advice to young players, reminding them that fútbol is not just about fame and fortune but also about passion and perseverance.

Join us as we embark on this remarkable journey with Ogün Temizkanoğlu, a true fútboling icon whose story is a testament to the enduring love for the game.

Extra Time Magazine: You've had the privilege of playing for both Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe, two of Turkey's most iconic clubs. Can you share the unique experiences and challenges of representing these two passionate fan bases?

Ogün Temizkanoğlu: It was an indescribable honor to be a part of these two great communities and to serve as their captains for years. Of course, representing both big clubs at their biggest level comes with its challenges, especially when it comes to the fans who have always been passionately loyal to the clubs. The biggest wish of the fans is to see the struggle for the coat of arms, as well as being successful. I feel very comfortable about this as I have always given my best in every match I have played throughout my career.

“The biggest wish of the fans is to see the struggle for the coat of arms, as well as being successful.”

Extra Time Magazine: Türkiye'nin en ikonik kulüplerinden ikisi olan Trabzonspor ve F.Bahçe'de oynama ayrıcalığına sahip oldunuz. Bu iki tutkulu hayran kitesini temsil etmenin benzersiz deneyimlerini ve zorluklarını paylaşabilir misiniz?

Ogün Temizkanoğlu: Bu büyük iki camianın içinde yer almak, hem de yıllar boyunca kaptanlıklarını yapmak tarif edilemez bir onurdu. Her iki büyük kulübü de en büyük noktasında temsil etmenin tabii ki zorlukları da oluyor, özellikle konu kulüplere her daim tutkuyla bağlı olan taraftarlara geldiğinde. Taraftarların en büyük isteği başarılı olmakla beraber arma için verilen mücadeleyi görmek. Kariyerim boyunca çıktığım her maçta elimden gelenin her zaman en iyisini verdiğim için bu konuda içim oldukça rahat.

ETM: Trabzonspor recently won the Turkish League title. How does your connection to both Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe influence your perspective on their rivalry and achievements?

OT: This league needs both Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe. No matter how fierce the rivalry is, it is a friendly rivalry, and it should be that way. I fully support both clubs I serve.

ETM: The bond among players is often crucial to the success of any top team. Who were some of your closest teammates, and can you share any locker room stories that fans might not know of?

OT: The friendships I made during the years I played in the national team, Trabzonspor and Fenerbahçe still continue. I have kept in touch with my dear friends such as Tugay Kerimoğlu, Sergen Yalçın, Oktay Derelioğlu, Hakan Ünsal, Orhan Çokırıkçı, Soner Boz, Rüştü Recber... and many more. As for the locker room memories... That's a privacy zone. What happens there should stay there... However, I can say that we have many fun and unforgettable memories.

ETM: Trabzonspor yakın zamanda Türkiye Ligi şampiyonluğunu kazandı Hem Trabzonspor'la hem de Fenerbahçe'yle bağlantınız onların rekabetine ve başarılarına bakış açınızı nasıl etkiliyor?

OT: Bu ligin hem Trabzonspor'a hem Fenerbahçe'ye ihtiyacı var. Aradaki rekabet ne kadar ateşli olsa da dostluk rekabetidir, öyle olmalıdır. Ben hizmet ettiğim iki kulübü de sonuna kadar destekliyorum.

ETM: Oyuncular arasındaki bağ çoğu zaman üst düzey bir takımın başarısı için çok önemlidir. En yakın takım arkadaşlarınızdan bazıları kimlerdi ve taraftarların bilmeyebileceği soyunma odası hikayelerini paylaşabilir misiniz?

OT: Ben hâlen daha gerek Milli takım'da gerekse Trabzonspor'da gerekse Fenerbahçe'de oynadığım yıllarda kurduğum arkadaşlıklar hâlen devam ediyor. Tugay Kerimoğlu, Sergen Yalçın, Oktay Derelioğlu, Hakan Ünsal, Orhan Çokırıkçı, Soner Boz, Rüştü Recber... ve birçok daha değerli dostlarımla irtibatımı kesmedim. Soyunma odası anılarına gelince... Orası mahremiyet bölgesi. Orada olanlar orada kalmalıdır... Ancak çok eğlenceli ve unutulmaz anılarımızın olduğunu söyleyebilirim.

ETM: Fenerbahçe has a storied history and passionate supporters. What are some of your fondest memories and experiences from your time at Fenerbahçe, and how has the club-shaped your career?

OT: My transfer to Fenerbahçe was a bit sudden and unexpected. However, from the first day I came to this club, I was fascinated. As a player, it is a really difficult task to establish yourself in the big community, but I had a completely different honor and experience with the championship I won in this club, where I became the captain in a short time.

ETM: Winning a league title involves a combination of teamwork, talent, and strategy. Can you share insights into the behind-the-scenes aspects of preparing for a successful season at a top Turkish club like Fenerbahçe?

OT: Creating the team concept is not only the training you do on the field, but also the love, respect and sincerity you show off the field, and the feelings of sincerity that complement each other. Setting a goal for ourselves before difficult camps, training, and continuing to work towards that goal brought us success.

ETM: F.Bahçe'nin köklü bir tarihi ve tutkulu taraftarı var. F.Bahçe'de geçirdiğiniz süreye dair en güzel anılarınız ve deneyimleriniz nelerdir ve kulüp kariyerinizi nasıl şekillendirdi?

OT: Fenerbahçe'ye transfer sürecim biraz ani ve beklenmedik oldu. Ancak bu kulübe geldiğim ilk günden itibaren adeta büyülenmişim. Bir oyuncu olarak kendinizi büyük camiada kabul ettirmeniz gerçekten zor bir görevdir ancak kısa bir süre içerisinde kaptanlığa eriştiğim bu kulüpte yaşadığım şampiyonlukla da bambaşka bir onur ve deneyim yaşadım.

ETM: Lig şampiyonluğu kazanmak takım çalışması, yetenek ve stratejinin birleşimini gerektirir. Fenerbahçe gibi üst düzey bir Türk kulübünde başarılı bir sezona hazırlanmanın perde arkasını paylaşabilir misiniz?

OT: Takım olgusunu oluşturabilmek sadece saha içerisinde yaptığınız antrenmanlar ile değil, sahanın dışında da gösterdiğiniz sevgi, saygı ve birbirimizi tamamlayan samimiyet içerisindeki duygulardır. Zorlu kamplardan, antrenmanlardan önce kendimize hedef koyup o hedef doğrultusunda çalışmalarımızı sürdürmemiz bize başarıyı getirdi.

ETM: To touch on your international career, you played in the UEFA Euro 2000 tournament as captain against a juggernaut Italy side. Do you remember what that experience was like? Do any particular memories of that day spring to mind?

OT: The honor of captaining the national team started with our coach Fatih Terim before a match at the European Championship held in England in 1996. We, along with all the players, had high confidence that we would have a successful performance going to the European 2000 Championship with our National Team, which was almost a mix of stars. As for the Italy match, the thing that made me happiest was that we scored against them in the European Championship because I had a slogan; 'First goal, first point, and first win.' Exactly what I thought came true and we reached the quarter-finals of that tournament.

“We scored against Italy in the European Championship... & we reached the quarter-finals of that tournament.”

ETM: Uluslararası kariyerinize bir dokunuş olarak, UEFA Euro 2000 turnuvasında ezici bir İtalya takımına karşı kaptan olarak oynadınız. O deneyimin nasıl olduğunu hatırlıyor musun? O güne ait herhangi bir özel anı aklınıza geliyor mu?

OT: Milli takım kaptanlık onuru 1996'da İngiltere'de gerçekleşen Avrupa Şampiyonası'nda bir maç öncesi Fatih Terim hocamız ile başladı. Adeta bir yıldızlar karması olan Milli Takımımız ile Avrupa 2000 Şampiyonası'na giderken başarılı bir grafik çizeceğimizden tüm oyuncular ile birlikte yüksek bir inancımız vardı. İtalya maçına gelirse, beni en mutlu eden unsur İtalya'ya karşı Avrupa Şampiyonası'nda gol atmamızdı çünkü benim bir sloganım vardı; 'İlk gol, ilk puan, ve ilk galibiyet.' Tam da düşündüklerim gerçekleşti ve o turnuvada çeyrek finale ulaştık.

ETM: Throughout your career, you've played under different managers with distinct coaching philosophies. Which manager had the most significant impact on your development as a fútboler, and what lessons did you learn from them?

OT: I have worked with many valuable coaches throughout my career. The coach I can put first among them is definitely Fatih Terim. The coach, Fatih, is the first coach to give me a job in the national team. I am trying to get to a better stage by improving the experiences I gained from Fatih's teachings.

ETM: Beyond your playing career, you've also been involved in various aspects of the fútbol industry. Can you tell us about your current role and any initiatives you're passionate about that aim to improve Turkish fútbol or its culture?

OT: Since my active fútbol career ended, I have always tried to share my knowledge and experience for the development of Turkish fútbol, both as a coach and by taking part in different areas of sports media. I continue to do this from time to time on the field and sometimes in front of the screen.

ETM: Kariyeriniz boyunca farklı koçluk felsefelerine sahip farklı menajerlerin yanında oynadınız. Futbolcu olarak gelişiminizde en önemli etkiyi hangi teknik direktör yaptı ve onlardan ne gibi dersler aldınız?

OT: Kariyerim boyunca birçok değerli teknik direktörlerle çalıştım. Aralarında birinci sıraya koyabileceğim teknik direktör kesinlikle Fatih Terim. Fatih hoca bana Milli takımlarda ilk görev veren teknik direktördür. Fatih hocadan kazandığım deneyimleri geliştirerek daha da iyi bir noktaya gelmeye çalışıyorum.

ETM: Oyunculuk kariyerinizin ötesinde futbol endüstrisinin çeşitli alanlarında da yer aldınız. Şu anki göreviniz ve Türk futbolunu ve kültürünü geliştirmeye yönelik tutkulu olduğunuz girişimlerden bahsedebilir misiniz?

OT: Aktif futbolculuk hayatım sonlandığı zaman itibaren hem teknik direktör olarak hem de spor medyasının farklı alanları içerisinde yer alarak bilgi ve birikimimi her daim Türk futbolunun gelişimi için paylaşmaya çalıştım. Bunu zaman zaman saha içerisinde zaman zaman ekran karşısında yapmaya devam ediyorum.

ETM: Any interesting facts about you that not many people know?

OT: I thought about this question for a long time, but no, because I'm playing my cards open.

ETM: To end off on a general note, as someone who has experienced the highs and lows of fútbol, what advice would you give to young players aspiring to have a successful career considering both the on-field and off-field aspects?

OT: My advice to young players is to love this profession and constantly improve their shortcomings. Concentrating only on the bright side of this profession is one of the mistakes our young people have made in recent years. Fútbol is much more than the money earned and the desire to be a star. Fútbol is a passion, fútbol is a struggle.

ETM: Hakkınızda pek çok insanın bilmediđi ilginç gerçekler var mı?

OT: Bu soru için uzunca düşündüm fakat yok, çünkü ben kartlarımı açık oynuyorum.

ETM: Son olarak genel bir not olarak, futbolun iniş ve çıkışlarını yaşamış biri olarak hem saha içi hem de saha dışı açıdan başarılı bir kariyere sahip olmak isteyen genç oyunculara ne gibi tavsiyelerde bulunursunuz?

OT: Genç oyunculara tavsiyem, bu mesleđi sevmeleri ve sürekli eksik taraflarını geliştirmeleri. Bu mesleđin sadece ışıltılı tarafına yoğunlaşmak gençlerimizin son yıllarda yaptıđı hataların başında geliyor. Futbol, kazanılan paralardan, yıldız olma isteđinden çok daha fazlası. Futbol bir tutku, futbol bir mücadele.

“Since my active fútbol career ended, I have always tried to share my knowledge and experience for the development of Turkish fútbol.”

CAPTAIN AMERICA

AAmerican players have often found themselves in the shadows of their European counterparts. But one name has been steadily breaking barriers and changing the game, not just in the United States but on a global stage— Christian Pulisic. Pulisic’s meteoric rise to glory and his extraordinary accomplishments have inspired countless fútbol lovers and young talents across the nation. He is a game-changer, a trailblazer who has set his sights on glory, pushing the limits, and leaving an indelible mark on the sport.

Christian Pulisic’s journey to becoming a fútbol sensation is nothing short of remarkable. Born in Hershey, Pennsylvania, in 1998, Pulisic’s love for the game was evident from a young age. He honed his skills with dedication and relentless hard work, catching the attention of scouts and coaches along the way.

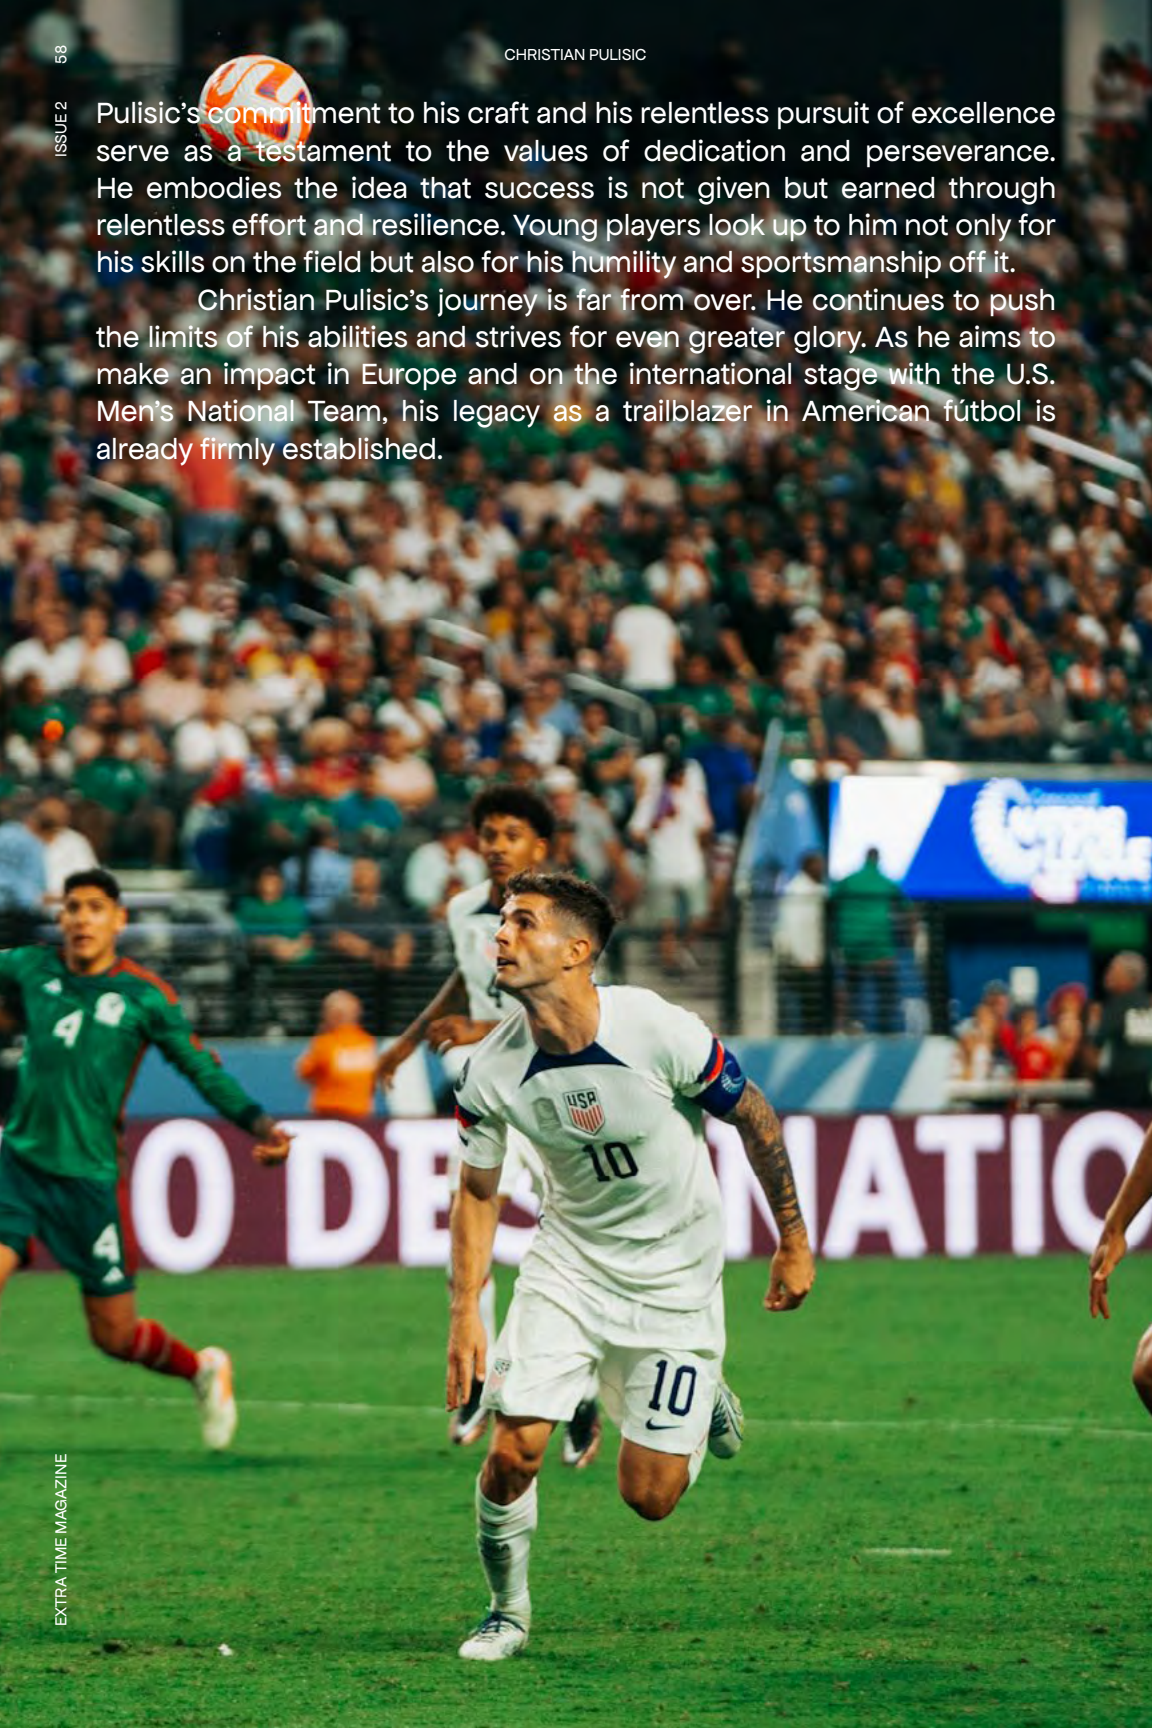

In 2016, at the age of 17, Pulisic made his debut for Borussia Dortmund, one of Germany's top clubs. This marked the beginning of his ascent to stardom. He quickly became a key player for the team, showcasing his exceptional speed, dribbling ability, and playmaking skills. His success in the Bundesliga was a beacon of hope for American fútbol, proving that young talents from the U.S. could compete at the highest level.

Pulisic's journey reached new heights when he joined Chelsea FC in the Premier League in 2019. His impact was felt immediately as he became an integral part of the team. In May 2021, Christian Pulisic achieved a historic milestone by becoming the first American to play in the UEFA Champions League final. The world watched in awe as he contributed to Chelsea's victory over Manchester City, securing the coveted Champions League title.

This achievement was not just a personal triumph; it was a moment of pride for American fútbol fans and aspiring players. Pulisic's success on the European stage shattered the notion that American players couldn't compete with the best in the world.

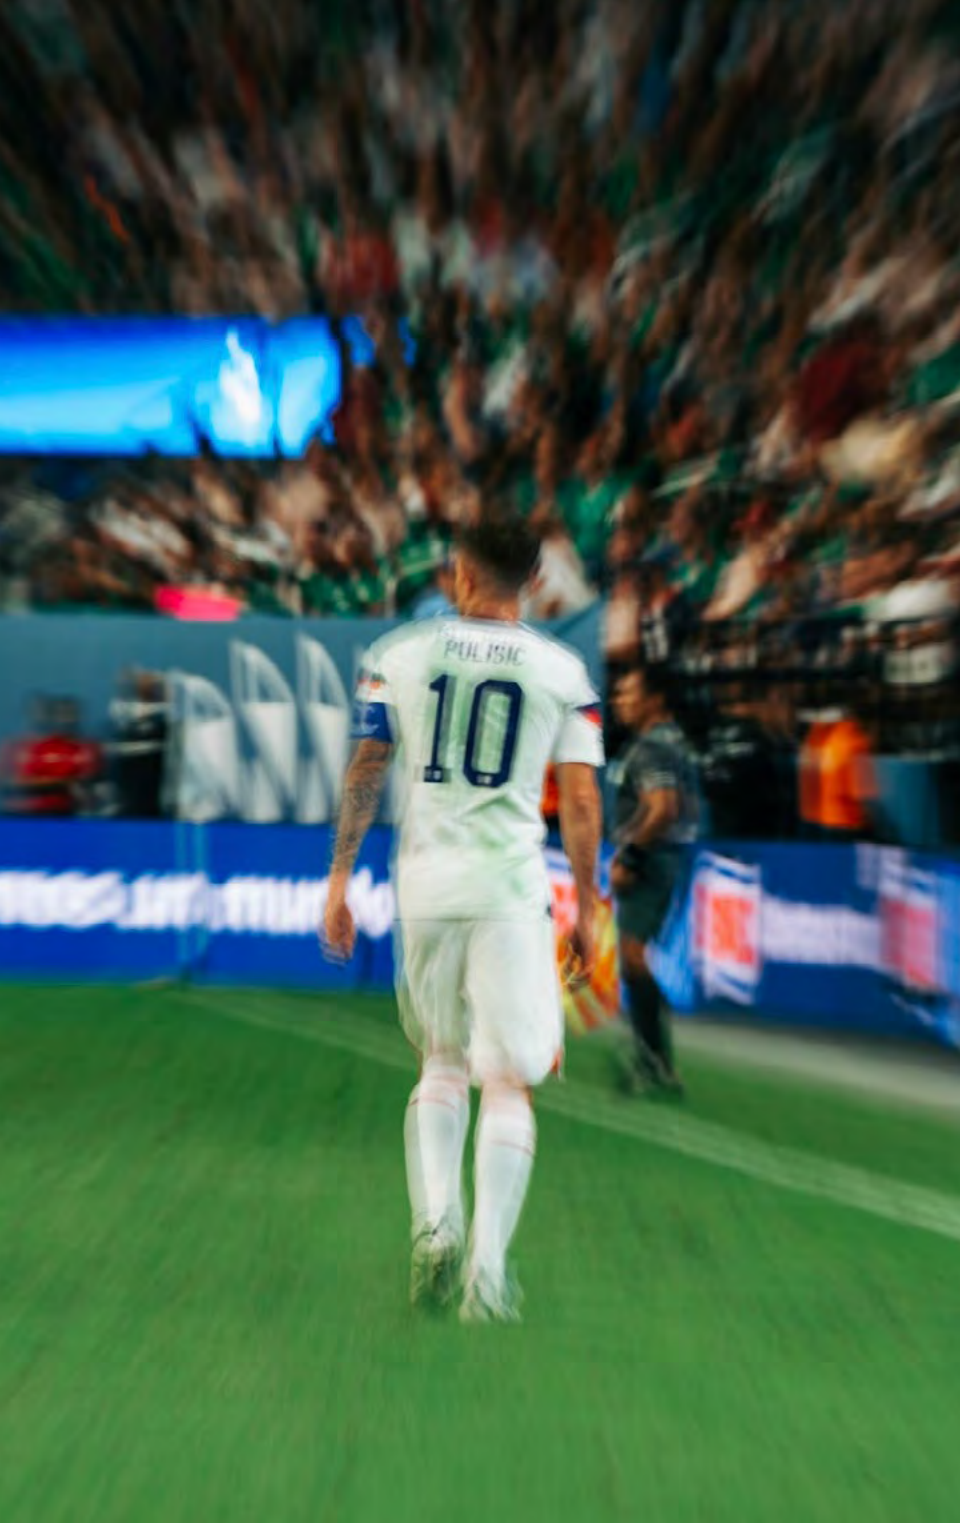

One of the most significant aspects of Christian Pulisic's journey is the inspiration he provides to young fútbol enthusiasts across the United States. He has become a role model for countless kids who dream of emulating his success. Pulisic's story teaches them that with talent, hard work, and unwavering determination, they too can achieve their dreams, regardless of where they come from.

A full-page photograph of Christian Pulisic in action during a soccer match. He is wearing a white USA national team jersey with the number 10 and is running on a green field. In the background, a large crowd of spectators is visible in a stadium. A soccer ball is in the upper left corner of the image.

Pulisic's commitment to his craft and his relentless pursuit of excellence serve as a testament to the values of dedication and perseverance. He embodies the idea that success is not given but earned through relentless effort and resilience. Young players look up to him not only for his skills on the field but also for his humility and sportsmanship off it.

Christian Pulisic's journey is far from over. He continues to push the limits of his abilities and strives for even greater glory. As he aims to make an impact in Europe and on the international stage with the U.S. Men's National Team, his legacy as a trailblazer in American fútbol is already firmly established.

The beautiful game, the best sport in the world and the most watched. My name is Ivan Rivera, I am a Portland, Oregon based photographer. I have 10 years of experience in many fields of photography. Just this past year I was blessed to be able to cover most of the Portland Timbers games. What an experience it's been to be able to see the game from a different point of view. I still remember that first feeling stepping onto the sidelines of the field and living the moment.

My goal as a fútbol photographer in the United States is to showcase the beauty of it. How passionate and exciting this sport is. It brings many people from many different countries together for 90 plus minutes. Because fútbol is international.
