October is Positive Ageing Month

To celebrate the contributions, achievements and resilience of older Victorians on the Surf Coast, we are inviting you to get out and enjoy a range of events and activities taking place around Winch throughout the month of October.

What's happening in Winchelsea and Moriac?

Moriac and District History Group Sunday Afternoon History Session

Sunday 2 October 2pm-4pm
@Moriac Community Centre

Moriac and District History Group has been working on digitising historical photos and artifacts depicting the history of the area. Join them for a presentation and discussion of some of their fascinating work. A delicious afternoon tea will be served.

To register: Contact Lyn Batson on 0419 500 353 or lbato@bigpond.com

Mad Hatter's Morning Tea Party

Wednesday 12 October 10am-12.30pm
@Winchelsea Shire Hall

It is Mental Health Week this week as well as Positive Ageing Month.

Join us for a Mad Hatter's Morning Tea Party at the Winchelsea Shire Hall!

Jules Haddock from Art of the Minds will present on "Letting go of future worries through improved mental health". Jules will guide you in understanding how our thoughts impact us, but can be changed. We can see the world as a safer and wonderful place. Regardless of what the storms of life throw at us, we can learn to be resilient in our own boats with a little brain training! Make or bring a special Mad Hat and try and win a prize! Includes a scrumptious morning tea.

This is a free event and places are limited so get in quick!

To register: Contact Jenny Mathison on 0409 672 054 or jmathison33@gmail.com

Registrations close: Friday 7 October

Tree Planting in Winchelsea

Earlier this year Growing Winchelsea made a submission for funding from the Planting Trees for The Queen’s Jubilee Program. The objective of the program is to mark the occasion of Her Majesty’s Jubilee through community tree planting events across Australia.

The program also intends to:

- increase community awareness and celebration of Her Majesty’s Jubilee
- create a legacy of tree plantings across the nation
- increase an/or enhance the area of tree canopy.

The program complements other initiatives occurring across the Commonwealth to mark the Queen’s Jubilee, such as the tree planting initiative in the United Kingdom which is inviting people to “Plant a Tree for the Jubilee”.

The submission was successful and resulted in a grant for funding for 60 trees. On Wednesday the 14th of September 2022, 60 established lemon scented gums, (botanical name, Corymbia Citriodora) were planted along Mercer and Barkly Sts. on a beautiful sunny day with the bonus of good rain on the trees on their first night in the ground. There was some reflection on the fact that these trees were planted within a few days of the death of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, who in her lifetime made a significant contribution to the environment, having planted over 1500 trees all over the world.

The planting was done very efficiently with on-site assistance from representatives of the Surf Coast Shire and the contractor and his team. Two senior students from Winchelsea Primary School, Karlee Warner and Levi Coverdale, were accompanied by David Peel the Deputy Principal, and the children assisted with the planting. We are grateful to them all for their contribution. The trees make a strong and beautiful visual impact.

At 2pm Friday 2 December, the Avenue will be opened by a Landscape Architect, known to many listeners across Victoria. Invitations will be sent to the Hon Dan Tehan, MP Member for Wannon, Hon Libby Coker, MP member for Corangamite, Richard Riordan, Member for Polwarth. At the Opening, a plaque will be unveiled which acknowledges the occasion and the contribution of the Australian

Do you know a Local Legend?

Nominations open 12 September for our Local Legends recognition program 2022-23.

The program recognises Surf Coast Shire residents who have made a positive contribution to our community.

It could be an individual or group:

- Helping others and strengthening our community
- Caring for our environment
- Improving inclusion and celebrating diversity
- Promoting healthy eating and active living

We feature Local Legends in digital channels and local media showcasing the great work they do.

Recognising someone is really easy and nominations close on Monday 31 October.

PROBUS Wedding Day

Winchelsea Probus had a visit from Margaret Fava and her wonderful collection of wedding dresses.

She brought along about 20 dresses from all era's from the 1900's onward.

All saved from Op Shops, one she has even dyed very successfully, sequins, pearls and all.

Margaret has no idea how it all came about, it was one of those things that just snowballed.

Now she has over 200 and has been known to give them away to brides in need of a dress.

She must have a very understanding husband who has even built special wardrobes for her.

Margaret was a bit taken aback as apparently this was the first time she had spoken publicly about her collection and the recent exhibition was the first time they had ever been displayed, it has always just been a personal thing that she loves.

Members also brought along wedding memorabilia and some wonderful old photographs etc.

We had canapés and fruit cake for morning tea and members came dressed as if they were going to a wedding so it was a very festive morning and certainly something different for our monthly speaker.

At our next meeting on October 10th the speaker will be Cam Ward who is food writer for the Geelong Advertiser and GT Magazine.

Anyone interested is most welcome. !0 am Monday October 10th at the Senior Citizens Rooms.

New railroad crossing safety campaign

The Victorian Government is rolling out a new safety campaign to save lives at regional railway crossings.

The Obey the Stop Signs campaign targets drivers in regional Victoria who fail to stop and look for trains at crossings with 'Stop' signs, reminding them that the consequences of being complacent when making regular trips could be fatal.

The Victorian rail network has almost 1,700 public road level crossings on passenger and freight lines. Almost 20 per cent are Stop sign crossings, without lights, bells or boom gates.

Drivers should bring their vehicle to a complete stop at Stop signs and should slow down, check for trains and come to a complete stop at Give Way sign crossings unless it's clear to cross the tracks.

For information about road rules around crossings visit the VicRoads website at www.vicroads.vic.gov.au

FERRIS COX STIHL BRIGGS & STRATTON VICTA

Yarra Valley Tour with Spirit Travels

By Jessie Gardner

With Tony at the helm and an early pick up in Colac, Winchelsea and Highton, It was off on our 3 day tour of the Yarra Valley.

Firstly a Home made morning tea at Werribee after touring around the Market gardens. Next we visit the Victoria Market where a few unexpected purchases were made. On through the Mullum Mullum Tunnel and up the Burwood Highway in misty rain to Knoxfield through Ferntree Gully, then up through the ferny mountains to Sassafrass, Olinda where we visit the Rhododendron Gardens. Past Cloud Hill Gardens, Silvan Dam and Tesslars Tulips with the rain getting heavier, a few hail stones as well. Warburton Valley. Coming in to Lilydale we arrive at the York Hotel for the next two nights. An enjoyable 2 course dinner and free time before we retire to our very comfortable beds.

Day.2. Welcoming Debbie as our driver today, an enjoyable breakfast , on board again for Marysville, passing Dame Nellie Melba's home {still in the family} the many grape vines Domaine Chandon and the cherry orchards, Rochford where they have the day on the green concerts. travelling through the rolling hills and the green country side also very wet paddocks we come to the Healsville Gin Distillery. Going into the Black Spur with the extremely tall trees and ferns, Mirrindini, Narbethong, Granton. Passing Marysville Trout Farm and seeing where the big fires were. Over the flooded Stephensons Creek to a lovely little park and lolly shop. Up to Stevensons Falls. 'Back down past the beautiful trees in blossom To Healsville for lunch. then back down the Black Spur to the Chocolaterie, plenty of ice cream being tried here, next the Alowyn Gardens, a must see if out this way spectacular. On we go back to the Motel for another 2 course dinner then back to our rooms to watch the Queens funeral.

Day .3. After a very appertising breakfast we packed the bus, with Tony driving again then on our to Hastings with a very interesting talk by Geoff at the Do;phin research Institute Western port Marina. Next Bittern,Dromana,Rosebud, to Rye R.S.L. for a 2 course lunch. Blairgowrie, Sorrento. Back into Geelong we say goodbye to Peggy and Jenny then on to Winch, Thanking Tony And Debbie for another memorable trip and to the Colac passengers. A great trip with good company.

Winch House and Community Engagement Goals

by Tony Phelps, Committee Chair

In a previous article, I outlined the general Strategic Plan goals that Winch House is aiming for over the next 4 years.

We subsequently delved into Goal 1, Positive Revenue (financial sustainability being a key responsibility of any Committee or Board). This week, we look at Goal 2, Community Engagement. As a community house, the place exists to foster connections between people, get people engaged in activities and courses, draw people together around issues and topics of interest, to combat inequality, help improve mental health and generally build a shared community spirit for the Winchelsea area. So this goal maps out what will get people (that's you!) through the doors to make life better in big and small ways.

Our community engagement goal splits into an email newsletter, social media activity, a course/learning schedule, an activities calendar, and community groups support. Let's take a look at each of these.

Email Newsletter

The single biggest challenge for Winch House is awareness. At the recent market, one of our Committee (who also happens to be a key driver in the Winchelsea Country Women's Association) was surprised by how many people thought the Occasional Child Care service was just a playgroup. It has been a long-standing issue that Winch House is physically tucked around the back of the Shire Hall and so many simply don't know it's there or what can be found there. With the growth of Winchelsea and significant numbers of newbies to the area, we have to find a way to let people know about Winch House and what's on offer. A regular email newsletter is an easy, low-cost way to go to people (instead of expecting them to come to us) and keep everyone informed. The challenge is to build up the mailing list, stick to a regular newsletter schedule, create interesting newsletters, and of course to find someone to handle it.

Social Media Interaction

Email newsletters, in spite of what some may say, are still very successful as a communications channel. But of course, social media is also extremely popular. Winch House is active on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram but trying to get attention is extremely difficult as all those channels get both busier and more commercial. Facebook & Insta in particular throttle what people see in their feed, and unless a person is constantly interacting with Winch House posts, Winch House disappears from view for all but a small fraction of its followers. How to deal with this to ensure that Winch House continues to appear in social media to locals? The answer is paid adverts. That in turn requires a proper strategy and plan for what ads to put out, who to target them at, and how much to pay. Easy enough, but as with the newsletter the challenge is to make posts & ads interesting, to schedule them for appropriate times, to work out what they best appeal to, and again, finding someone to do it all.

Course Schedule

One of the key services Winch House provides is learning opportunities. For career & job, or just for interest and lifestyle. Winch House offers what you might call 'official' courses that aim to give people skills such as certificates in aged care, responsible service of alcohol, first aid etc. Winch House can also put on courses and workshops that are not officially recognised (and are therefore less regulated) such as cheese-making, keeping bees, using technology, dance style class (eg "No lights, no lycra"), fermenting classes, cooking classes, mushroom growing and a baby paramedic class. If we can publish and promote a course schedule in advance (eg. each term or maybe even coving a year), then people will know and can share what's on and arrange their own diaries to suit. Focus is actually now turning to planning a course schedule, watch this space for what's coming up in 2023!

Activities Calendar

Alongside courses and learning are the regular and ongoing activities. Two great examples already underway are the Craft Group and the Crochet Group. The Craft Group are a very happy group of ladies who come together on Wednesdays to work on their own Individual craft activities and for socialisation. Vee leads a small informal interest group on alternate Saturdays to learn some crochet skills. Other activities have been suspended during the Covid pandemic ructions, we are hopeful they will return in due course. Winch House doesn't have the resources to manage such activities beyond scheduling and maybe a bit of room preparation. The challenge here is to find activities that are self-sustaining in terms of people who can keep them going, are of interest to enough people, and fit within the lifestyles and budget of those who want to join in.

Community Groups Support

This final aspect of community engagement is another core for Winch House. One of our Values & Philosophy statements is "Advocacy - assist our community to have a voice". Did you know that Winch House provides an auspice service? In other words, small community groups can get at official & legal status in the eyes of government by setting up an agreement with Winch House who will provide the group with an umbrella coverage for things like accounts, insurance and an ABN - particularly useful when applying for grants. How best can Winch House support community groups who have a special interest and objective around a particular issue, within the very limited resource constraints available?

All of the above are aimed at getting you (yes, you) to join us at Winch House - to grow our sense of community, to give you interesting things to do, to add to your life in some way. I hope you can help us achieve this. Keep a look out for what's on at Winch House, and if something piques your interest, please support us by coming along. If you want to organise a group, run a workshop, put on an activity, or even just make a suggestion - we're listening!! Get in touch with manager Wendy - contact details on the website at winchhouse.org.au.

Winchelsea Football Netball Club Inc

Blues News

Welcome to Blue's News.

This week sees the winding down of the 2022 season which was completed without interruption from COVID or other issues, a welcome return to some sort of normality.

The running of Sporting Clubs around the State has been with plenty of challenges and thanks go to the Presidents, Committee members, and Volunteers of those Sporting Clubs – including the W.F.N.C. INC. Thanks go to the supporters of Grass Roots Football – crowds have been great this year – especially at the Blues home games.

Thanks also go to all those who are supporting the Club in the way of patronage of "The Blue's Bistro".

Our Sponsors and the Catering are what keeps this Club ticking over.

2022 has been a successful year with vast improvement in both the Reserves and the Senior football sides finishing just above expectations in a 2 tier plan.

On the Netball side of operations the Club has made huge in roads in many aspects both on and off the field. Congratulations to all concerned the Blues look forward to seeing what will eventuate in 2023 on the courts.

The G.D.F.N.L. Presentation Night will take place at Buckley's Entertainment Centre on Friday 7 October. The Winchelsea Football & Netball Club will be honoured for our A grade Netballer Gemma Stavenuiter to receive the A Grade Best & Fairest Award the Margaret Webb Medal. This is the first time for a Blues Player to receive this honour since joining the G.D.F.N.L.

A Grade Coach Casey Carroll was named joint Coach of the Year in what capped of a significant year for A Grade. Bronte Middleton also has had a great really solid season in C Grade.

The W.F.N.C. Presentation Night is on 8 October at the Empire Grill at 6pm for a 6.30 start. Tickets are $100.

The Blue's Bistro wraps up for the year on Thursday evening, there will be a variety of meals available including a limited number of Hamburgers with the Lot. If possible could those requesting a Take Away meal please bring their own plate or bowl with them for our last week.

And to all Geelong Cat fans out there – ENJOY!

GO BLUES!!

THE LITTLE KNOWN WONDER: How Chiropractic can improve your brain function and what this means for you and your family....

Every time you get a chiropractic adjustment it literally improves the accuracy of communication between your brain and your body. The adjustment allows the brain to break the cycle of continuous maladaptive plastic changes and instead, to be more accurately aware of what is going on in and around the body, thus enabling it to control the body more efficiently and more accurately.

This enables it to appropriately respond to internal and environmental cues, including the reversal of maladaptive plastic changes involved in the recurrence and maintenance of chronic pain. This is supported by the clinical evidence that clearly shows chiropractic care can improve both acute and chronic neck pain, back pain, and certain types of headaches.

But beyond pain these clinical and anatomical studies have shown crossed reciprocal connections between the cerebellum and the prefrontal cortex, these parts of the brain are known to control accurate sensorimotor function and are vitally involved in the "redrawing" or continuous adaptations of the inner body schema or body maps.

What is fascinating is the emerging and indisputable research that is showing that these parts of the brain are also vitally involved in

Executive intelligence functions

Play a key role in how one experiences pain

Vital for emotional control

Emotional intelligence

Social intelligence

Mental health

Critically involved in regulating the Autonomic Nervous System, the Endocrine System and the Immune System

That this function can be altered in these parts of the brain with chiropractic care is why each and every adjustment is so exciting.

These brain areas are so important for how someone thinks and feels, how they experience themselves and the world they live in, thus reflecting who they are and how they function as a human being.

It provides an explanation for why so many people who do receive chiropractic care report they feel better, feel less stressed, sleep better, and even why some report they have better relationships with others when they are under chiropractic care.
