BELA
SILVA

ETERNAL SNOW

Do you still remember those glass domes with a winter world inside, which you shook to make snowflakes whirl round? A touch of magic, encased in glass. It was this enchantment that caused designer Bela Silva to set about creating the glass collection Eternal Snow. She gave the four glasses, two tall and two low models, a playful touch by designing the foot and chalice in an imperfect shape. The texture of Eternal Snow is smooth, although the glass was blown into an atypical shape. Playful bubbles are visible in the foot. The round shapes and soft colours (smoky grey for the foot and soft green for the chalice) are inspired by the colours of the night sky.

ELLEN COLE

SPOON

Florist and photographer Ellen Cole has expressed her love for flowers in spOOn. The Antwerp-based designer discovered her passion for ceramics only recently and conveyed it almost immediately in an elegant collection of spoons. The long, imperfect steel refers to the stem of a flower. Appearance and functionality concur in spOOn, her first collection under the Serax label.

LOUIS DE LIMBURG

KNIVES & GLASSWARE

Cast - The innovative Cast knife by Louis de Limburg defies all existing designs of knives as we know them. With its streamlined body, this knife is not only comfortable in the hand, its appearance is also way ahead of its time. The high-quality chrome nickel steel of the stem and the chrome steel of the blade guarantee durability. The use of different metals within an aerodynamic design requires a technology that enables highly complex shapes. Cast derives its name from the die casting process used for its manufacture.

Monsieur Cruchot - The Carafe instantly brings a smile to the face of the beholder. The carafe's recognisable shape and the sober use of colours speak for themselves: a classic in the making. The ceramic or glass carafe not only can be used to serve water, juice and other drinks, this gentleman also perfectly plays the part of a watering can or even a vase for a few flowers. A unique, original eyecatcher in the hospitality industry, but also the perfect gift in a beautiful gift box: alone, or accompanied by the rest of his family, Monsieur Cruchot conquers all hearts.

MARCEL WOLTERINCK

HEII

Cutlery - The design of the Heii cutlery builds on Japanese influences and the DNA of the entire collection. Straight lines with contrasting round edges. The nine-piece cutlery set includes table and dessert knives, forks and spoons, a coffee spoon, an espresso spoon, and a butter knife.

Glassware - In Japanese, Heii means simplicity. Almost everything that Dutch designer Marcel Wolterinck designs, can be placed under this heading, including the two water glasses from his Heii collection for Serax. The grey, smoked glass adorns them with a stylish élan, and their sizes are similar to those of the cups from this modular collection. The perfect sparring partner for your cup of coffee on the Heii coffee tray.

Tray - The natural birch trays of the Heii collection appear to be floating because of their protruding edges. The small coffee tray is ideal for serving your guest a cup of coffee accompanied by a glass of water. The large tray was designed for enjoying snacks together with your table companions.

"A space or object should never be intrusive, it must be subordinate to what the occupant or user wants."
- Marcel Wolterinck

PAOLA NAVONE

GLASSWARE, KITCHEN & TABLE ACCESSORIES

Fish&Fish - With Fish & Fish, her tableware collection for Serax, the Italian designer Paola Navone draws admiring glances at once. Fish & Fish was inspired by the tastes and colours of her many travels and is based on the products made during the Great Depression in the 1930s. Accessible solid and meticulously studied, this service collection will find its way to all possible tables. The jars and bottles are made of pressed glass and available in Jadeite (green), and Depression Glass (transparent).

Table Nomade - Paola Navone: "I have nomadic blood running through my veins, travelling is my second nature. With the curiosity of an anthropologist, I will go in search of everyday objects from different cultures and traditions. White, black, red, and indigo blue dominate the colour palette of the Table nomade collection for Serax. A collection of souvenirs, all of them telling their own story about their particular corner of the world."

ROOS VAN
DE VELDE

GLASSWARE,
KITCHEN & TABLE ACCESSORIES

Flora Vulgaris - Like all her other creations, Roos Van de Velde's ultra-light Flora Vulgaris collection for Serax has that unmissable link with Nature. The name alludes to the rather 'wild' and intuitive way in which the cutlery was given shape.

Forks like branched twigs, spoons featuring endless leaf shapes and knives looking like shells ... The colours, the material, the design, and the interplay of lines are a natural addition to the Perfect Imperfection collection.
