I HATE YOU SISTER...

Team 1

I hate you, sister!

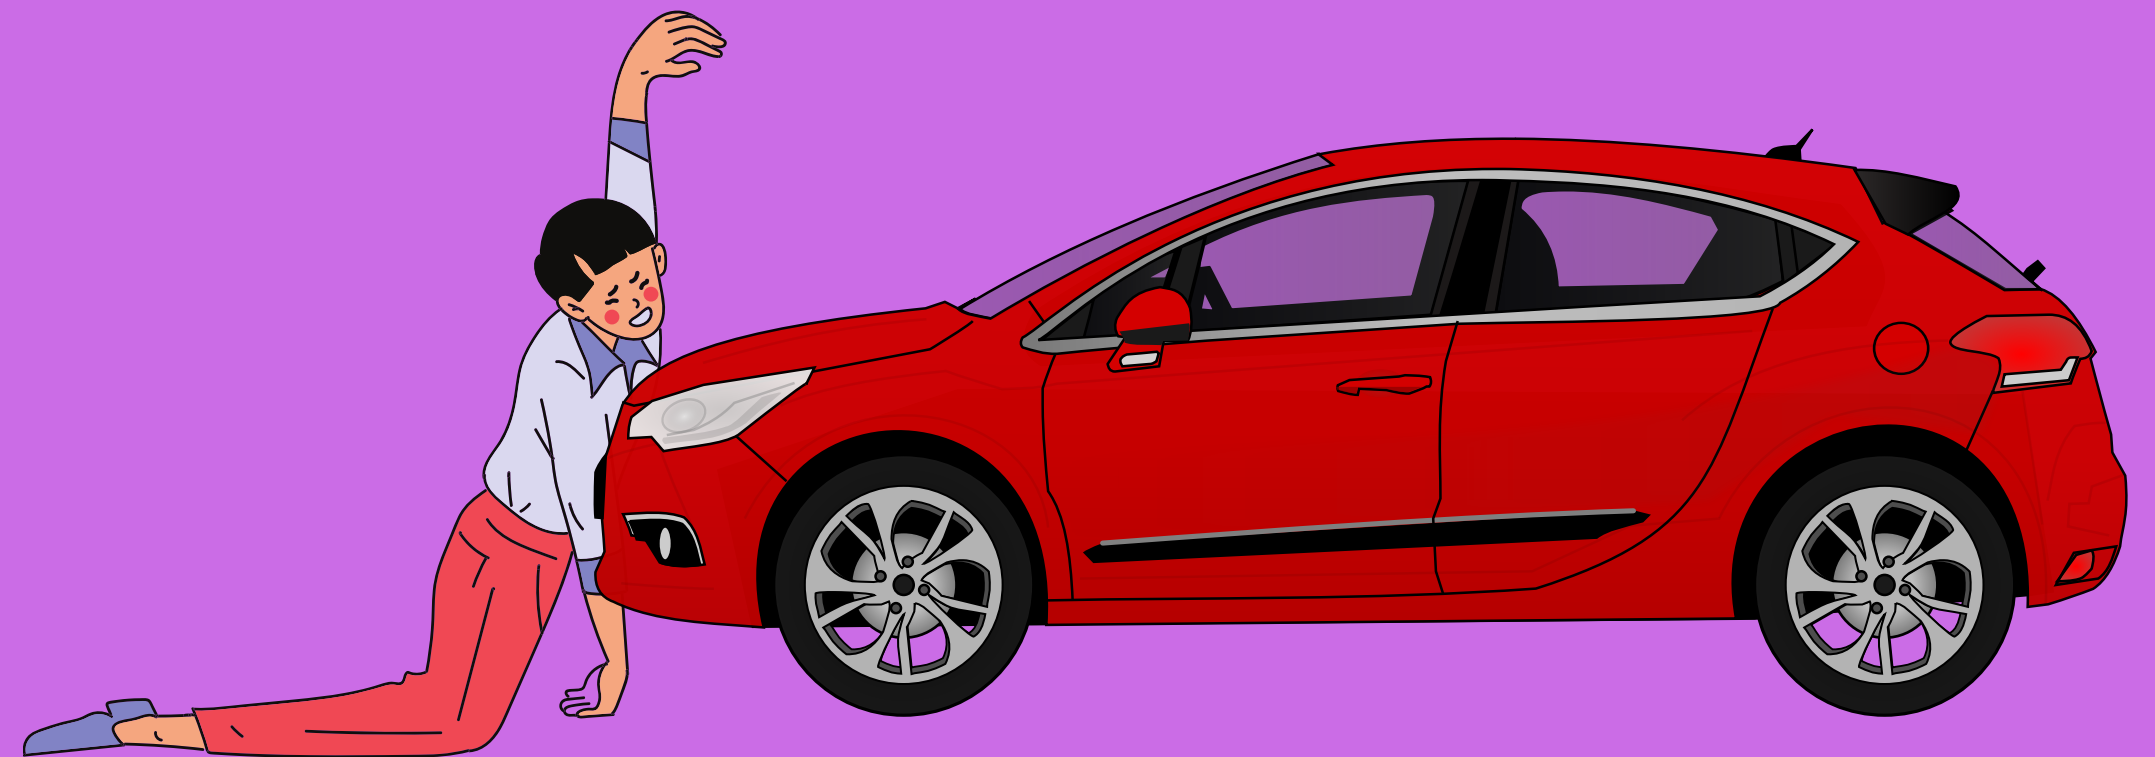

Once upon a time in a city there lived a family. In that family were parents, a brother and a sister. The brother's name was Raven, and the sister's name was Aurelia.

One day the family went for a walk and for an ice-cream. Aurelia was running in front of the others. There was a road they had to cross to get to the ice-cream shop.

Aurelia started to cross the road, but a car came... Her mother saved Aurelia, but it was not good her mother, because she ended up in the hospital and there she experienced her tragic death.

Since then, Aurelia's brother Raven has changed. Raven blamed Aurelia for her mother's death, but Aurelia loved him even though she thought he didn't love her. Her father also changed. He didn't care about them anymore.

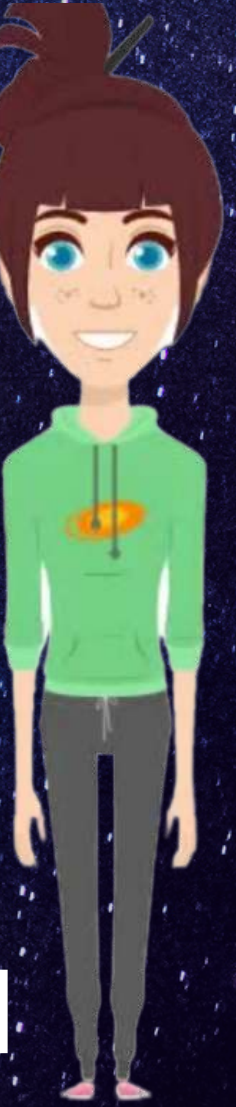

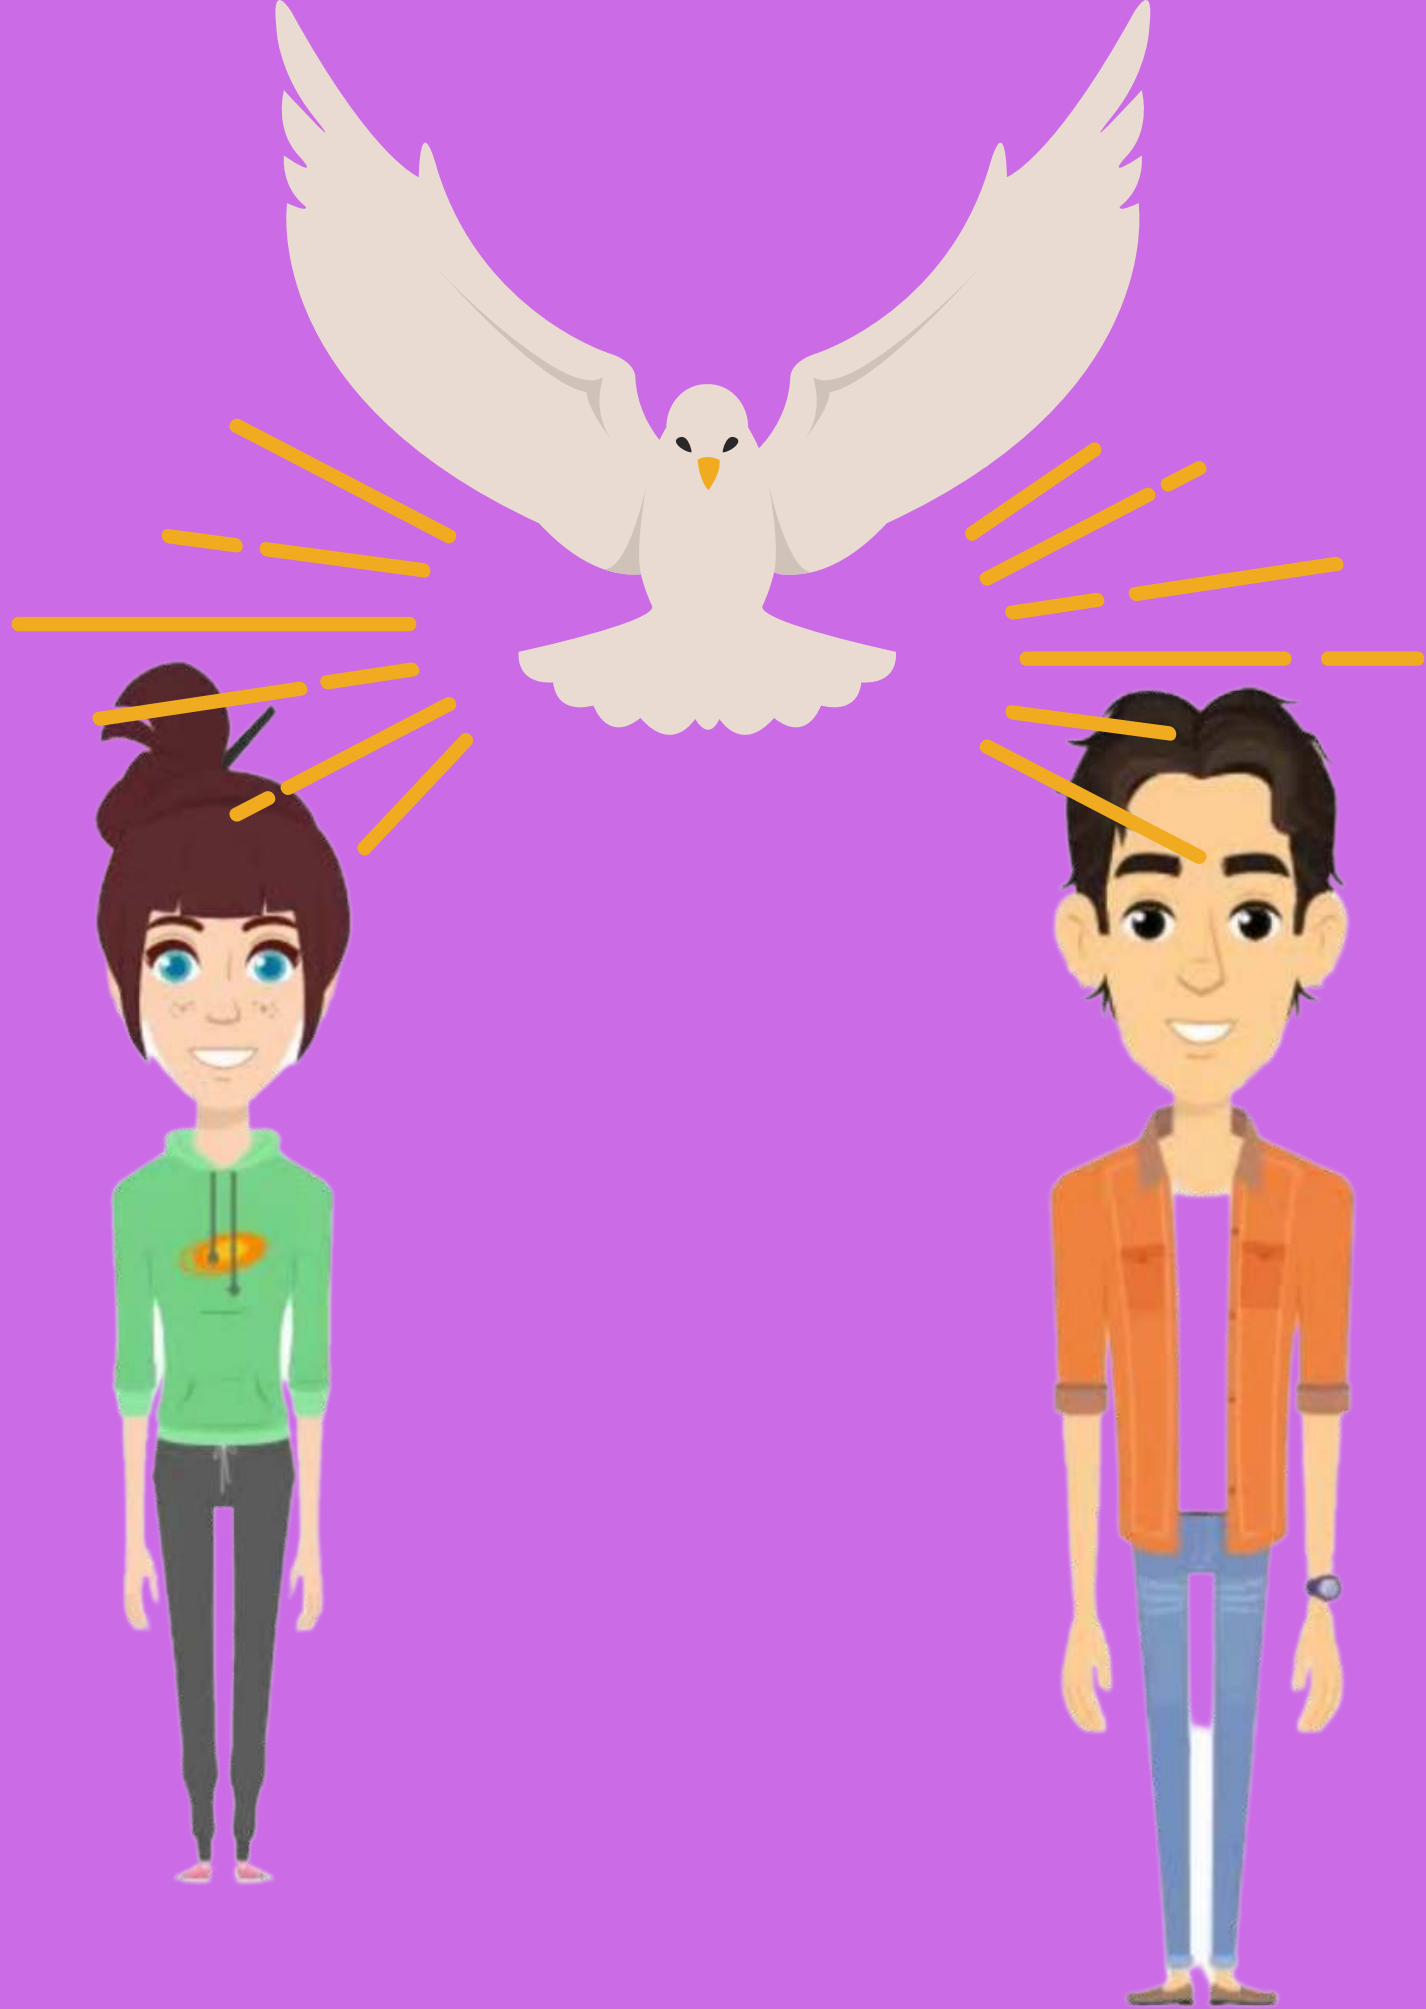

Fifteen years later, when Aurelia was 19 and Raven 22 years old, it was Raven's birthday in two weeks. Aurelia plans to buy him a motorbike. She saved three months for it, and Raven was constantly angry because she wears old clothes and doesn't buy something new. Aurelia did two jobs, and always came back late, and Raven didn't even know it.

When it came time for Raven's birthday, Aurelia left the engine in front of the house. She went to get Raven and told him to put a blindfold on, but when he took off the blindfold there was no engine, because someone had stolen it.

Raven slapped Aurelia and went to sleep, dreaming of his mother who showed him that the motorcycle had been stolen and how hard it was for his sister's in her life.

When he woke up, Raven apologized to Aurelia for the way he had treated her and told her how she did not deserve such horrible behavior. She forgave him and so Aurelia and Raven reconciled. Raven was no longer blaming Aurelia because she knew now that her mother's death was an accident, now Raven and aurelia were good brothers and got along so well, and this story ended here with a happy ending.
