Introduction of Nepal

This charming country represents a very rich culture, preserved and maintained for centuries by its beautiful people. Nepal is the birthplace of "Lord Buddha" who enlightened the entire world with his messages of universal peace, compassion and humanity. Nepal is a haven for adventure in the Himalaya and it has drawn hundreds of Expeditions from all over the world to conquer its high mountains. Since the historic conquest of Mt. Everest – the highest mountain on earth – Sir Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay Sherpa in the early 50's, Nepal's mountains have been scaled again and again by expedition from all over the world.

We invite you to take a visit to exotic destinations in the Himalaya, Where you will appreciate the spectacular mountains, stunning scenery, contact with local people who truly enjoy sharing their experiences with you and the opportunity to explore unique traditional cultures.

Nepal at Glance

Area: 147,181 sq. KM.
 Geography: Situated between China in the north and India in the south.
 Capital: Kathmandu
 Population: 29 million.
 Language: Nepali.
 Currency: Nepalese Rupee
 Political system: Multiparty Democracy.
 Religion: Nepal enjoys the distinction of being the only Hindu Country in the world. However, there is harmonious blending of Hinduism and Buddhism and in some areas still elements of tribal religions.
 People: Nepal has more than 61 ethnic groups and 70 spoken languages.

Nepal has geographically 3 major regions:

Himalayan Region:

The altitude of this region ranges between 4877 m to 8848m. It includes eight of the 14 highest summits in the world, which exceed altitude of 8848 m including Mt. Everest, Annapurna, Dhawalagiri and others.

Himalayan range makes up northern border of the country and represents 16% of the total land of Nepal. Sparse vegetation is found up to 4500m. Some of Nepal's most beautiful animal and plant life are also found here. Although rare, the snow leopard and Danphe bird are found here. The people in this region produce and sell yak cheese besides working as porters and guides. Many also trade with Tibet and travel across the border to sell their goods.

Middle Hill Region:

This region accounts for about 65 percent of the total land of Nepal. It is formed by the Mahabharat range that soars from 500m up to 4877m and the lower Churia range including Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal. During the summer the temperature reaches an average 32 degrees Celsius. Winters are cold, the temperatures can drop to 1 degree Celsius. The eastern part of this region gets more rainfalls because of the monsoon clouds coming from the southeast. The rivers in the west, do not receive much rainfall, and are dependent upon melted snow that flows down from the Himalaya. Different kind of birds and wildlife are found here. The people in the region have gained from the growth in the tourism industry.

Terai Region:

The lowland Terai occupies about 17 percent of the total land area of the country. It provides excellent farming lands. The average elevation of these flatlands is 65 to 500 m. Above sea level. Sub-tropical forest areas, marshes and wildlife, which include the Royal Bengal Tiger, one horned rhinoceros and the gharial crocodile, are found the area.

- The only country in the earth boasting:
- The Mt. Everest, the top of the world (8,848m).
- The Kali Gandaki River Gorge, the deepest river gorge in the world.
- The only country with non-rectangular national flag, in the world.
- The Lumbini, is the birth place of Lord Buddha "The light of Asia."
- The Kumari, the only Living Goddess,

- who is worshipped and is taken in a chariot procession annually.
- The Kathmandu, the capital city, with as many idols as men, and as many temples as houses.
- The country with eight highest peak in the world.
- The only Hindu Country in the world.

Nepal also holds the pride consisting:

- One of the world's greatest trekking paradise.
- One of the very few countries in the world where you can see One Horned Rhinoceros.
- The paradise for the bird watcher with more than 450 species of birds.
- The great concentration of art, culture and traditional in Kathmandu valley, which can not be, found anywhere else in the world.
- The Royal Chitwan National Park, a wildlife museum, which is one of the best National Park in Asia.
- One of the ten best rivers in the world, for rafting.

Nepal occupying just 0.1% of earth is home to 2% of all flowering plants (600 indigenous plant families and 319 species of orchids) 8% of the bird population, (more than 500 species.)

Why NEPALESE MANPOWER?

Perhaps, the answer is "Nepalese manpower" when one is asked to identify honest, sincere, hardworking, dedicated, painstaking and low-waged manpower. With a substantial number of Nepalese manpower already in overseas employment, the trend of flying overseas for job still continues. The growing unemployment crisis and the political instability in the country have forced the Nepalese youths to seek foreign employment. Besides that, since the Nepalese youth can work in any climatic conditions, are well trained and enthusiastic the recruiting companies can have a wider range of choice from skilled to unskilled, from trained to experienced and even professionals. And that, Nepalese manpower has also been recognized as cheap, loyal and responsible workers all over the world.

Mission

Gulf Management International (P.) Ltd. was established with an aim to become a best recruitment agency that provides the most reliable and competent human resource solutions for organizations who want to recruit the Nepalese people in various fields and levels. The mission of our organization is to reduce the increased unemployment burden of the country. We aim to fulfill our mission by exploring new horizons of employment for the qualified and skilled individuals.

Vision

The principal vision of our organization is to fulfill the need of our clients of getting Right People for the Right Job. Keeping this vision in mind, we continuously endeavour to offer candidates with high potential to our esteemed clients. Our goal is to further enhance our global presence and to build on our existing strength as a leading overseas recruitment services. We are devoted in building mutually rewarding, long-term relationship with our clients, candidates, associates, suppliers and communities with whom we work.

Objectives

Manpower companies are the bridge connecting employees and employers. The main objective of the bridge is to make that connection trustworthy so that employees reach their employer.

1. To provide genuine services maintaining the trust.
2. To provide globally competitive manpower, for benefit of society and secure economic future for all Nepali.
3. To give opportunity for Nepali to work in foreign countries and develop their experience and uplift their living standard.
4. To help Nepal Government in reducing the problem of unemployment.
5. To fulfill the requirement of the employer by providing them honest, loyal, competent and committed manpower.
6. To collect the ample databases of resumes and job specification, with delegation on matching the requirement of job and quality of worker.
