Happy February Everyone,

February may be the shortest month of the year, but it's one of my favorites. There's something about the quietness of winter that makes it perfect for quilting—cozy afternoons, a cup of tea nearby (and sometimes a biscotti), and a project that's slowly coming to life under your needle. ♡♡

This month, we're leaning into all things made with heart. Whether that's a gift for someone you love, a Valentine's Day small project for a guild challenge, a donation quilt stitched with care, or a project that's just for you (because yes, that absolutely counts), February is a wonderful time to sew with intention.

In the shop, you'll find plenty of fresh inspiration—beautiful new fabrics, thoughtful patterns, and tools that make sewing even more enjoyable. Our classes and open sew days are in full swing, and there's nothing better than sharing ideas, laughs, and a little creative problem-solving around the cutting table.

If winter has you feeling a bit stuck or uninspired, come see us. Sometimes all it takes is a new fabric pull, a friendly chat to catch up, or seeing what someone else is working on to get your creativity flowing again.

Thank you, as always, for being part of our quilting community. Your support, kindness, and shared love of fabric mean more than you know. I hope February brings you comfort, creativity, and plenty of time to sew. Now, if I can only manage to find a block of time to sit down and sew.

Happy Stitching,

Cyndi ♡
