ELWOOD HARDWARE

REMEMBERING EUGENE M. MIATA
 September 3, 1925 to August 9, 2023

Eugene was a proud veteran of the US Navy, in August of 1943 just out of high school. He was stationed in Boston, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Maine air bases. In January 1946 he was stationed in Newfoundland and in charge of fire trucks for air craft emergencies. Eugene was a former member of the Commack Fire Department from 1946-1962. He was the very well known owner of the Elwood Hardware Store for 70 years.

— An East Northport Icon —

Abraham Joseph, an East Northport icon, and Carvel owner, sadly passed away in 2021. He was also known as Carvel Joe or Mr. Carvel. His store was located on Larkfield Road in East Northport, from 1975-2008. Some even referred to him as the “mayor” of East Northport. Everyone in the community knew who he was. His friendly, loving nature had his Carvel store swamped with customers week after week. “Buy One, Get One Free Wednesdays” was a community favorite. For Carvel Joe, it meant a line wrapped around his building. Nothing made him happier! One of his favorite lines was “No smile, no ice cream!” Almost every customer left with a smile! It was never about money for Carvel Joe ... his prices were lower than any other Carvel in the area and he often gave out free cones to those in need! Mr. Carvel just loved the people in his community! Truly a “one of a kind” man!

Abraham was born in Russia in 1933. He was born into poverty. He and his siblings would find old tires in the streets and make shoes out of them. They also had no running water and very little money for food. He always talked about how hard it was and how he hoped for a better life one day. When he became of age, he joined the Russian Army, eventually becoming lieutenant. Shortly thereafter, He met a beautiful woman that he fell in love with and married in 1950. Together they earned just enough money to come to America for the “better life” they always dreamed of. They Arrived in New Rochelle in 1953. They worked in factories earning very little for years. Eventually, Abraham became a painter and joined a union. He was then able to purchase an apartment building in Brooklyn, NY, where he lived for years. He and his wife had the first of their 3 children in 1960. After the arrival of their second child, they decided to leave the urban community and relocate to East Northport, NY, where they purchased their first home. This is where he stumbled upon an opportunity to purchase a Carvel store on Larkfield Road in East Northport. He officially retired from the painter’s union and became a Carvel owner and East Northport icon. He found his passion ... making people happy! The children in the community would “pop in” after school and he would give them free ice cream cones. They loved him and he loved seeing their smiles! Sadly, in 2006 his wife became sick. He decided to close his Carvel store in 2007 after she passed. It was a sad day for all but he still remained a loved man in the community. He spent his last years enjoying time with his family and grandchildren and could most often be found at Golds Gym or Sunken meadow State Park ... his two favorite pass times! His passing has left a big void in many hearts, but we will always cherish his memory!

REMEMBERING FRANK CAVAGNARO
11-18-1938 to 12-10-2020

Frank Cavagnaro lived for his family. Where family always came first. Northport was his home . . . his ancestors came from Italy and worked hard to make Northport their home. That's why Northport was so important to Frank. He was in the military for a short period of time but family obligations came first. Frank put his short military career to an end to work for his uncle tending the village properties of the family and working at his uncle's mason yard.

Frank knew the village and the people. He was not only a landlord, he had a big heart for those who knew him. He was also willing to listen and help.

Frank married Justine on July 13, 1958. He opened Cavay's Lumber in March 1995 on Larkfield Road and Cedar Road. He relocated to Brightside Avenue in the summer of 2003.

He was a wonderful man and will be missed.

Mr. Cheapo's Amazing Musical Time Machine

Everyone over the age of 25 remembers when going to a record store to buy music was a semi-regular ritual. Now, that's a quaint notion as purchasable recordings aren't much more than anonymous sound files. And while brick and mortar behemoths like Tower Records and Record World have fallen by the wayside, Mr. Cheapo continues to persevere and flourish going into its third decade. It has become a mainstay of Commack & Mineola. Record albums, rows of CD's, videos & DVD's, and Rock posters line the shelves & walls.

And while founder/owner Stu Goldberg is grateful for the continued success of this retail anomaly, the fact that he continues to serve a hungry customer base in this day & age mystifies even him.

Fifteen years ago, I was thinking about getting rid of records. We were actually tightening up the store and pushing records back & back. Now, all of a sudden, it's the opposite and it's pushing back up again. It's amazing. I just can't understand it. Now, our success as a brick-and-mortar store comes down to the fact that there is no competition you've got the internet. The first Mr. Cheapo was opened in Flushing in 1982, then we moved to Commack. Over time, Goldberg has seen plenty, the internet exploded and in the process decimated independent and major music retailers in the past decade. While LP's making up a surprising 40 percent of his revenue between his stores and what gets sold on eBay, rounded out by 50 percent CD sales, and the remainder a mix of DVD's, posters, video games, cassettes and other music related paraphernalia.
