THE KEEPER OF THE LAUGH

DANNY FROMCHENKO

Max cannot remember anything from his life before the concentration camp. All he is left with is a sickening, maniacal laugh that echoes in his head.

Alexandra Brecholdt seems adamant on taking Max into her care, but there is something she is too afraid to tell him. The secret of her fortune, her survival—and her son.

As Max's memories begin to unravel, he and Alexandra will learn the true meaning of courage, love, hope – and the ultimate secret behind the laugh.

SIBLINGS OF WAR

CHANOCHI ZAKS

September, 1939. The Zaks siblings leave their quiet Polish hometown, on the run from the Nazis. But their escape does not go unhindered; and as they are captured by invading German forces, their father's last command echoes in their minds: "Whatever you do, never, ever leave any one of your siblings behind." Reunions and tragedies follow as the Zaks siblings witness the horrors of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Bergen-Belsen, with only each other to protect them from the greatest evils man has ever known.

INHERITING SILENCE

ZAHAVA KORNBERG

Years after her father's death, Zahava embarks on a journey to rediscover his chronicles before the Holocaust, learning more about her father's history than she ever thought possible; Enough to reshape her understanding of his life, the war, and his relationship with his family – the one he started with her mother, and the unspoken one he left behind.

THE GIRL FROM SAN-DANIELE

ILAN BAHAR

A lone Jewish girl in occupied Italy, Liliana finds refuge in the most unlikely of places – a village abbey. Its promise of safety is enticing, but the price of a peaceful life might be too much to bear. It is there she will learn the true meaning of faith, and what is more important – the sanctity of life, or the promise we make to the dead?

THE LIGHT THROUGH THE STORM

MARGALIT GANOR

August, 1942. Dr. Leon Schmeltzer, his wife Donia, and their baby daughter attempt to flee Nazi-occupied Romania under the cover of darkness. They hastily board a small ship, leaving behind family, friends, and the only life they ever knew – But their path to freedom does not sail over smooth waters.

Even as endless waves threaten to drown what little hope they have, the desperate refugees find that the hatred in the hearts of men is more terrifying than any force of nature.

THE VIENNESE PARFUMERIE

RON GETREUER-GILO

Vienna, 1938. Though her parents refuse to see the rising tides of hatred spreading through the city they have known their entire lives, Kitty makes the bold decision to escape – alone. Based on the handwritten diary and personal letters of a young girl in the Holocaust, The Viennese Parfumerie is a story of love and death, hope and despair, and incredible courage above all else.

WHITE HOUSE IN A GRAY CITY

ITZCHAK BELFER

Warsaw, August 1942. Janusz Korczak, a pediatrician who has become an admired educator, renounces the opportunity to save himself from death and instead escorts the children of the orphanage that he has established and so lovingly managed, to the ghetto and from there on to their final journey. Korczak is sent together with two hundred of his pupils to Treblinka Extermination Camp, where they meet their tragic death.

VILNA, THE END OF THE ROAD

SARAH SHIMONOVITZ

When Nazi forces invade Vilna, Sarah knows that her life is in grave danger. Separated from her family, she is put on a train to the death camps from where no one has ever returned. Desperate, Sarah jumps out of the moving train into the dark forest to escape the death that surely awaits her. But now that she is off the train, she will have to survive the cold forest and its many perils alone.

THE PARTISAN'S DAUGHTER

MICHAEL BEHAGEN

Warsaw, 1945. Having survived the Holocaust, Aaron returns to his ruined hometown where, three years ago, he made an impossible decision and left his daughter in the care of a local Christian family. At the time, he'd thought his choice would keep her safe. But now that he's back, she's gone.

A fateful meeting between Aaron and the woman who saved his daughter brings forth unfathomable passion and heartbreak.

RESISTANCE GIRL

HASSIA KNAANI

After her father and brother are brutally murdered at the height of World War II, 17-year-old Chaya and her mother are banished to the ghetto. Chaya manages to escape unseen and meets a young partisan man; his inspiring stories of heroics awaken a desire to join the fighting in the forest. Many fall victims to the long and hard months of fighting, but Chaya and Yehuda persevere and develop a deep emotional connection through the struggles. Will they survive the inferno and regain their lives?

UNDERNEATH A CHANGING SKY

YARON RESHEF

When Syma decides to leave home and embark on an adventure in a strange land, she cannot imagine what will be. Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

THE BOY WHO JUMPED OFF THE TRAIN

MALKA ADLER

The child-friendly, illustrated rendition of Malka Adler's acclaimed The Brothers of Auschwitz.

When Nazis barge into Itzhak's home one day and force him to separate from his entire family, he is left feeling scared and alone. With no one to talk to and no one to look after him, Itzhak knows that he will have to be strong – and very brave – to survive the war and be reunited with his family. But can he manage to do it on his own?

LALECHKA

AMIRA KEIDAR

The book follows Lalechka, a little girl born into the chaos of war and Holocaust and forced to struggle with the reversals of fortune that lead her time and time again into foreign and terrifying regions. But, beyond that, it is the story of the true friendship between three girls in early 20th century Poland, a friendship that refuses to cower before government dictates. An astonishing manifestation of loyalty and courage.

THE SECRET JEWISH SOLDIER

IRIT KEYNAN

At the height of World War II, Yaakov-Jacques Kalderon is a Jewish soldier fighting for the Yugoslavian army. When he falls captive Yaakov knows that in order to survive, he will have to hide his identity from even the closest of allies.

Years later, Kalderon's daughter happens upon an old diary. As she works to interpret it, the truth of her father's incredible story finally begins to come to light. It is a tale of strength, resilience, and miraculous escapes from death.

THE SHOEMAKER'S LAW

SHLOMO HARARY

When the German and Romanian armies take over the city of Czernowitz, Aaron, a local shoemaker, frantically fights for the survival of his family – including his two-month-old baby. Half courageous, half desperate, Aaron decides to strike an unbelievable deal with the most unlikely figure – one that will guarantee his family's safety. He will make himself useful in this ruined world, where soldiers hold your fate in their iron grip.

A CHILD WITHOUT A SHADOW

SHAUL HAREL

The moving story of Professor Shaul Harel's life from darkness to light, from Holocaust survivor to world expert in pediatric neurology and child development. This book reveals his story, from his time as a child in the Holocaust, through his immigration to Israel, the choice to study medicine, and finally the mark he has made in the field of pediatric neurology and child development in Israel and in the world.

THE PARISIAN DANCER

DORON DARMON

Paris, 1939. Helena is a talented dancer in Paris' bohemian quarter.

Her life is worlds apart from that of Marek and Annette, the young Jewish couple and their two little boys who live in the apartment above. Then, one day, Marek disappears. And everything changes.

Soon, Helena is vowing to keep and protect the boys as though they were her own. But as the Nazis strengthen their hold on the city, the beautiful dancer may not be enough to protect the boys, and herself, from what is to come.

MY DAUGHTER'S KEEPER

ADIVA GEFFEN

In the midst of World War II, a bond forms between Rachel and Irena, sisters not by blood but by a joint tragic fate. But as times become darker and more desperate, Rachel and Irena are forced to part. Through the hardships and the sufferings of the Holocaust, the two women must face hunger, fear, loss, and the most painful of goodbyes, never giving up hope of a happier future.

THE BOY FROM BLOCK 66

LIMOR REGEV

Moshe steps off the train at Buchenwald concentration camp with several hundred other children. Having endured the horrors of Auschwitz-Birkenau, Moshe has seen more than his share of tragedy. At Buchenwald, Block 66 is to be Moshe's new home. But when just a short time later, the Germans decide to send the camp's inmates to their death, they are not prepared for Buchenwald's secret resistance, which rises up with one mission: to protect the camp's children from harm.

THE BERLIN GIRL'S DIARY

TZVIA GOLAN

From the moment she steps off the train at Auschwitz, Eva Reich has to fight for her survival. In the work camps of Nazi-occupied Poland she experiences cruelty and hatred, but also kindness and bravery – from the people she least expected. Years later, a mysterious diary emerges – the diary of Eva Reich. It tells an unspoken story hidden for years through war, estrangement, and even death.

THE LOST GIRL FROM BELZEC

RAVIT RAUFMAN

When little Ruthie and her mother are taken to Belzec extermination camp in the midst of World War II, Ruthie's mother knows that her daughter's life is in grave danger. Desperate, she will do anything to save her from the terrible fate that awaits her, even at the cost of her own life. But she will have to act fast if she wants to give her daughter a chance of survival.

SURVIVING THE FOREST

ADIVA GEFFEN

Shurka was a happy woman who lived a fairytale life with her husband and their two children in their idyllic village in Poland. Or so they thought...

When WWII breaks out, their happiness comes to a brutal end. The family is forced to flee their home and escape into the dark forest, hoping to survive.

THE RESISTANCE LILY

DANA LEVY ELGROD

At the height of World War II, young and headstrong Josephine Portier is the protégé of a wealthy family in the highest echelons of Paris society. But as the Nazi forces continue to advance, Josephine finds a new calling when she joins the French underground Resistance. Alone, she must brave the secret missions and Gestapo interrogations of a 1940s Parisian resistance girl. In a city ravaged by war, Josephine is drawn into a dangerous game of survival, in which losing is simply not an option.

THE NEIGHBOR FROM BERGEN BELSEN

YAAKOV BARZILAI

11-year-old Yaakov and his family are forced out of their home into the unknown. They find themselves in the ghetto, living under impossible conditions, until they are banished by the Nazis to Bergen Belsen concentration camp, to what might be their final destination. A unique story about the unyielding love of a mother, about faith in God, and the naïve perspective of a child in the most challenging of times.

A LONG WAY TO AUSCHWITZ

SIMON H. KOHAVI

1939, Hungary. With the outbreak of World War II, Hungary became a dangerous place for Jews. Many men were recruited to the Forced Labor Service to help the Nazi army with their upcoming attacks. Shomo Stern was no different, but luck was on his side. Bearing Witness is a unique book that tells Shomo's story of huge luck, unbelievable courage, and a wonderful personality within one incredible tale of survival.

A GIRL CALLED RENÉE

RUTH UZRAD

This is the unbelievable autobiographical story of Ruth Uzrad, a Jewish teenager whose life was turned upside down by the Nazi regime. After her father is arrested one night and taken from their Berlin apartment by the Gestapo, Ruth's mother sends 13-year-old Ruth and her two younger sisters out on their escape route across Europe by train to the safety of Belgium.

BENEATH THE WINDS OF WAR

ISRAEL: A GIGANTIC SMALL COUNTRY

JEAN-PIERRE LÉVY

Jean-Pierre Lévy's love affair with Israel began in 1962 and lasts to this day. In his book, the former marketing executive, Harvard alumnus, and war veteran discusses Israel, the "gigantic small country," while directing his words to those who are too often unaware of what the Holocaust was and know little about the toils of the only Jewish state. In a relationship that is both historical and educational, the author presents them with Israel's greatest achievements.

JEWISH IDENTITY

DR. RUTH SHAMIR POPKIN

In this intriguing work based on years of research, Dr. Ruth Shamir Popkin guides readers through critical issues at the center of debate, both in the Jewish world in Israel and in the Jewish Diaspora that are critical to the continuity of the Jewish people.

The book elegantly addresses multiple questions revolving around Jewish identity, such as who is a Jew? What does Jewish identity look like today? And how has the world been affected by antisemitism?

THE GIRL FROM SCORPIONS PASS

MIRI FURSTENBERG

On a cold desert night, a little girl lies shivering on the ground near a bullet-riddled bus, petrified with fear. Her parents are dead. Several hours later, an army patrol stumbles onto the scene of the massacre at Scorpions Pass.

Miri Furstenberg was only five years old – and sixty years would pass before she would finally find the courage to write about the night that changed her life forever.

CARELESS

AVIVA ELAD M.D.

Practicing physician Dr. Aviva Elad delves into how and why doctors, nurses, and other medical professionals are caught in a system that renders them unintentionally careless – and harmful.

Drawing on her case studies and personal experience, Dr. Elad demonstrates firsthand how overworking, understaffing, and detachment all contribute to the sickness of modern-day healthcare. In her insightful book, she highlights the problems – but shines a light on the solutions as well.

OBJECTIONS, MISDEMEANORS, AND SPEEDING SENIORS

ABRAHAM N. TENNENBAUM
