Tangle Art by Jo

Perhaps you are an artistic type, wanting to explore new methods. Or perhaps you don't think of yourself as particularly arty, but you can hold a pen and make a doodle and enjoy a bit of creativity, especially when it's with a group of friends, or friends-to-be, and there's a cuppa available.

Whatever you are, we are running four sessions on Tuesday mornings in May at a lovely venue, to learn and experience creating art inspired by the Zentangle method.

Breaking down drawing into really simple shapes and designs (called 'tangles'), which anyone with a pen can draw.

Tangle
ART by Jo

It is then up to us what we do with them...

... how easy or complicated we want to make it, whether we want to create a masterpiece for the wall, or use it as a method for mindful de-stressing, a peaceful, grounding activity when life is demanding.

I'm Jo, I've been a member of BA for the past 9 years, and recently I've been on a learning journey inspired by Zentangle, which has been tremendous fun. I would love to share the joy of it with you.
