Types of camp

Day camps (Pg. 3)

These camps help campers build confidence in the great outdoors while still returning to their own bed at night. Day camps are hosted across the state by GSCO staff or volunteers.

Overnight camps (Pg. 8)

Truly a life-changing experience, overnight camp is a world to itself. Here, campers discover the power within, build resilience, self-esteem, and confidence.

Leadership camps (Pg. 23)

When they just can't get enough of camp, it's time for our leadership program! Boost leadership skills and help bring the magic of camp to younger campers.

Troop camps (Pg. 26)

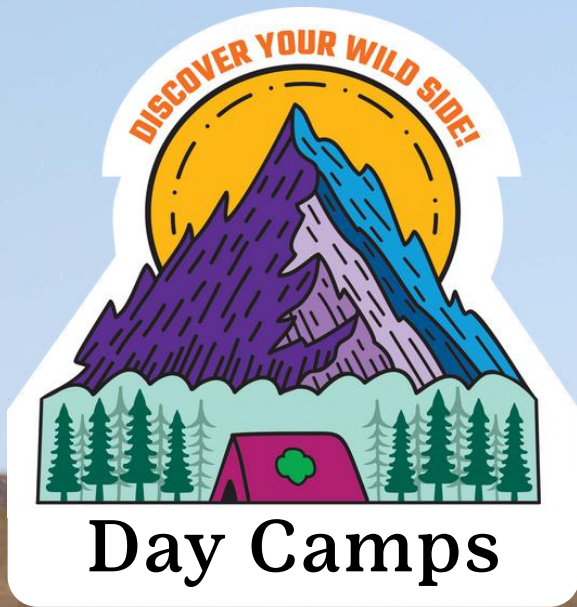

These programs include meals, lodging, and fun camp programs provided by camp staff or volunteers while troop leaders are responsible for the supervision of their troop.

Family camps (Pg. 31)

The whole family is welcome to get outside, face fun challenges, and bond together at these camps for all ages!

Outdoor Adventure Club (pg. 34)

A year-round, staff-led program offering outdoor adventures around the state that introduce Girl Scouts in grades 6 - 12 to outdoor activities and skills beyond what they might do with their troop.

GSCO staff-led camps

All staff-led day camps run 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Yippie Ki Yay! Spend the weekend rotating between zooming down the zip line, group games, and trail rides with views of Rocky Mountain National Park via horseback.

FAQs

- What do the listed grades for each session mean?
 - To be eligible for a session your camper should be entering one of the listed grades in fall 2026.
- How do I register for a camp?
 - For overnight and staff-led day camps, please register using CampInTouch. You will need to make an account to register. Full instructions can be found on the camp website at camp.girlscoutsofcolorado.org.
 - For Tomahawk Ranch and Sky High Ranch day camps, and troop and family camps, you will register on the myGS events calendar found on the main website, girlscoutsofcolorado.org.
 - For volunteer-run camps, please see the full session listing on our camp website for instructions.
- When are camp forms and payment due?
 - Camp forms and full payment for each camp session are due four weeks prior to the start of camp. You can see the deadline date specified beside each required form listed in your CampInTouch account.
- What is the cancellation policy?
 - If the cancellation is made with a written request four weeks before the session begins, most sessions will be refunded, minus the registration processing fee. After that, the balance is refunded only if the camper moves out of the state, has been certified to be ill by a physician, or there is a family emergency. Full details are available on our Refund and cancellation policy page on our camp website.
