

BIG BEN

Big Ben Thornton wrote his name into Montagu Cup folklore as Wickersley CC stunned favourites Gate Inn with a dramatic injury time winner to claim the trophy in unforgettable fashion.

With penalties seconds away at the Mont on Easter Monday, the veteran striker kept his nerve to sidefoot calmly past the advancing keeper, sealing a 2-1 extra time victory and sparking wild celebrations among the unfancied Wickersley ranks in front of a 1,475 crowd.

Thornton's moment of magic capped a performance of grit, organisation and belief as the Blades Super Draw League side upset the odds against a Gate team chasing trophies on multiple fronts. It also made history, Wickersley becoming the first side from their village — and their league — to lift the famous cup in its 129 year history.

For Thornton, already a Mont winner in 2014 and 2016, it was another golden chapter — and for Wickersley, a day that will live forever.

Hallam move on from takeover talks

Hallam FC have confirmed proposed investment talks have ended, with the club's committee deciding not to proceed with a change in leadership after discussions over the future direction of the club.

In a statement released on Friday, chairman Richard Pillinger said negotiations over a planned transition of power, due to be formalised at the club's AGM, had broken down after key issues could not be resolved. He confirmed the decision was taken following discussions with the committee and was made "in the best interests of Hallam FC".

The announcement follows a separate public statement from prospective investor Gino Maccio, who revealed he had spent the last seven to eight weeks working towards taking over the Sandygate club and stepping in as chairman. Maccio said talks had included plans around investment, grading solutions, supporting team management and stabilising the club to ensure it remained in its current division.

Richard Pillinger

Maccio added that he believed significant progress had been made in a short space of time and paid tribute to the Hallam supporters for their backing throughout the process. He also highlighted his excitement at working towards what he described as a strong 2026–27 season under manager Craig Denton, before conceding that some situations remain beyond an investor's control. Pillinger confirmed that although the proposal initially involved an orderly handover of chair and vice-chair roles, concerns emerged during the intervening period which ultimately led to the decision to halt the process. He thanked Maccio for his efforts but stated that agreement could not be reached on the future direction of the club. The chairman reiterated Hallam's commitment to remaining a community-focused club, stressing that the priority is to develop a model which gives supporters a meaningful voice in shaping its future.

Hallam, the world's second-oldest football club, continue their on-field battle in the Northern Premier League East Division while attention off the pitch now turns to restoring clarity and stability following a turbulent few weeks.

Sly Fox and Westville set for George Jowitt Cup showdown

The George Jowitt Cup Final will take centre stage this Tuesday night as The Sly Fox and Westville meet for local silverware at Parkgate FC.

The 2026 final takes place on Tuesday 14 April with a 7pm kick-off at Parkgate's Green Lane ground in Rawmarsh, Rotherham. Admission has been kept affordable, with adults £3, concessions £2 and under-12s free, as organisers aim to draw another strong crowd for one of the area's traditional end-of-season fixtures.

Both sides have earned their place in the final following contrasting but impressive runs through the competition. The Sly Fox booked their spot with a thrilling 4-3 semi-final win over Hickleton Harriers, with Kian Oakley scoring a hat-trick in a dramatic encounter. Westville, meanwhile, progressed more comfortably, seeing off

George Jowett
Grantham Town

Swinton Ring O' Bells 3-0 to reach another major final.

Westville are no strangers to big occasions and arrive with a formidable George Jowitt Cup pedigree. They are joint record winners of the trophy, lifting it six times, and have been regular finalists over the last decade. Last season they reached the Montagu Cup Final and were crowned champions, underlining their reputation as a side that thrives on showcase nights.

For The Sly Fox, the final represents a chance to cap a standout cup run and write their own chapter into local football history. Their route to the final has been marked by goals and attacking intent, including an emphatic 6-0 quarter-final victory over White Hart Wadworth, before the drama of the semi-final success.

The George Jowitt Cup itself holds deep significance within South Yorkshire football. The trophy is played in memory of George Jowett, a respected local football figure whose name has become synonymous with community competition and grassroots football heritage. The cup continues to be contested annually as part of the wider Montagu Cup family of tournaments, celebrating both sporting competition and local tradition.

Tuesday night's final promises an engaging contrast in styles, with Westville's experience in finals matched against a Sly Fox side full of momentum and confidence. With neutral venue facilities at Parkgate FC and low entry prices, organisers are hopeful of another healthy crowd to mark the occasion.

For supporters of both clubs – and followers of South Yorkshire grassroots football more widely – the George Jowitt Cup Final offers the chance to witness two in-form sides competing for a trophy steeped in local history, under the lights in Rawmarsh

Storm damage sparks Mexborough appeal

Mexborough Cricket Club has launched a public fundraising appeal after storm damage left vital equipment unusable just weeks before the start of the 2026 season.

The club has set up a GoFundMe campaign to raise money to repair and replace equipment damaged by Storm Dave, which struck the area earlier this spring. The damage has included the club's batting cage and covers, leaving the ground without essential facilities ahead of the new campaign.

Mexborough run four senior teams alongside several junior sides and say the loss of the equipment has put preparations for the season at risk. League matches were due to begin within a fortnight of the damage occurring, leaving little time to source alternative equipment or fund repairs through normal channels.

In the appeal, the club say the fundraising will help ensure all teams can start the 2026 season as planned, with safe and suitable facilities in place for players of all ages. They describe the club as a grassroots organisation focused on providing accessible cricket for the local community and keeping costs affordable for members.

The organiser of the fundraiser, Gareth Hughes, said the club understands that not everyone is in a position to donate, but hopes support from the local cricket and sporting community can help bridge the gap. The appeal also encourages people to share the campaign to widen its reach.

Mexborough Cricket Club play a significant role in local sport, offering opportunities from junior level through to senior league cricket, and the club say restoring the damaged equipment is essential not just for matches, but for coaching and training sessions.

Donations to the appeal can be made via GoFundMe - <https://gofund.me/b59c349fb>, with the club stressing that no contribution is too small and that every pound raised will go directly towards getting cricket back on track ahead of the new season.

The Play-offs Have Arrived

Play-off drama has arrived as promotion and survival battles reach a critical stage in three key non-league divisions.

The Northern Counties East League Premier Division is now into its play-offs, with one final promotion place to the Northern Premier League at stake after champions Liversedge sealed the title. Sheffield are hoping to bounce straight back at the first attempt and begin their campaign at home to Tadcaster Albion on Saturday afternoon.

The Home of Football Stadium hosts the tie with a 3.00pm kick-off, and the visitors will need no introduction. Tadcaster inflicted Sheffield's only home league defeat of the season when the sides met on Non-League Day, doing so in front of a record crowd of 1,172.

Sheffield finished third in the table, just one place and one point ahead of Tadcaster, who secured fourth spot on the final weekend. Saturday's winners will move into the play-off final, where they will face either Beverley Town or Barton Town next weekend.

Second-placed Beverley will host the final if they progress, but Sheffield could earn home advantage should they defeat Tadcaster and Barton come through their semi-final.

In the Northern Premier League Premier Division, Stocksbridge Park Steels' fight for survival has intensified after a bruising weekend. Defeats to Cleethorpes Town and Leek Town have left Stocksbridge bottom of the table, and with teams around them picking up points, the margin for error is rapidly disappearing.

Stocksbridge now realistically need wins from their remaining fixtures if they are to avoid a return to the East Division for the first time. Their next assignment takes them away to Warrington Rylands, before a crucial home game against Ilkeston Town which could yet prove decisive.

There is greater optimism in Northern Counties East League Division One, where Worsbrough Bridge Athletic remain firmly in the promotion picture. A midweek win over Doncaster City lifted The Briggers back into third place, just four points behind Wakefield in the race for second.

Finishing runners-up would guarantee home advantage in both play-off matches, a significant benefit heading into a tight promotion contest. Worsbrough's run-in begins with a home game against bottom side Glasshoughton Welfare on Saturday, before they travel to Appleby Frodingham in their final fixture on Tuesday evening.

Wakefield face Route One Rovers this weekend, although Route One's defeat at Maltby Main confirmed they can no longer reach the play-offs. While the four qualifying teams are now known, the final order may not be confirmed until midweek.

The Division One semi-finals are scheduled for Saturday, April 18, with promotion momentum building fast.

Cup action also features on Tuesday night, when Rossington Main host Route One Rovers in the second semi-final of the Northern Counties East League Cup. The winners will meet Liversedge in next month's final, with silverware now firmly on the line as the season enters its final phase.

Dearne Sweep March Award

In news that will surprise nobody, Dearne & District have been named Northern Counties East League Team of the Month for March after a faultless run of results.

The Goldthorpe-based side won all seven of their league fixtures during the month, racking up 24 goals and conceding just three to underline their dominance.

Among the highlights was a crushing 6-1 victory over Doncaster City, one of several emphatic performances as Dearne continued to pull clear at the top of Division One.

That exceptional March form has been a major factor in Dearne convincingly securing the Division One title, ending the campaign as runaway champions.

Their current total of 107 points is already a league record for the highest points haul in a season, setting a new benchmark in the division.

Victory away to Crowle Colts on Saturday would take them beyond the 110-point mark, further extending an extraordinary campaign.

Dearne have already scored 124 goals this season and boast a remarkable goal difference of plus 92, numbers that reflect both their attacking threat and defensive solidity throughout a historic year.

Knockout King Hayden Headlines Doncaster Triumph

JAMES BOVINGTON

It was a night of triumph for five Doncaster boxers who secured wins on their show themed as The Rise of Doncaster with undefeated Joe Hayden taking two Commonwealth welter-weight title belts.

Conisbrough’s Hayden delivered a powerful knockout of previously undefeated Welsh opponent James Atkins to the delight of the ecstatic and partisan crowd filling Doncaster Dome.

Hayden was surprised to get the stoppage so early on. “I’d prepared for the bout not to go the distance but that was quick. I was working on the fundamentals with decisive jabs to the body and then James succumbed to a barrage of punches with a minute to go in the second round of ten.”

“I’ve realised a dream tonight winning these belts. I feel like anything else will be a bonus. I’ve proved that I’m more than just a steady boxer. I’ve developed knockout power. I had a game plan. Use my speed, master my reflexes and land the finishing shot. The vocal support quelled any possible nerves although confidence that I hadn’t cut any corners in training also helped.

I dedicate this victory to the many people who’ve consistently supported me these last four years as a professional. My boxing career might have been a bit slow taking off but now it has and I’m going to keep rewarding those who support me.”

Supporters always include a large contingent from the secure hospital where Hayden works part-time and led by Mel Richards who’s “So proud of Joe and happy to be his number one supporter. Everyone would love him as their son. He’s such an inspiration for all young men.”

“I’ve learnt it takes a team to build a boxer,” said Hayden. “My manager Dave Allen is my inspiration, but chiropractor Kal Hammond-Race, sports therapist Beth Smith and nutritionist Matt Hynd have also been instrumental in creating this success. Thanks to my many sponsors who’ve made this investment possible.”

Other local boxers on the show included Edward Hardy, Calvin Moyo, Liam Carrigan and Kian Hamilton. Hardy remained dominant throughout this his fifth six round bout which one pundit described as an ‘aggressive, sometimes vicious and definitely brutal contest between two courageous and resilient fighters with a highly polished performance from Edward’ as he defeated tough Argentinian Emilliano Araujo. “Another great learning experience,” said Hardy. “I’m hoping to step up to eight round contests and have a title fight in due course. I’m grateful to my team, my sponsors and all who keep purchasing those tickets. It means everything.”

Moyo’s bout with Jake Smith brought together two Doncaster fighters. Managed by Dave Allen, Moyo, 24, hasn’t yet lost a single point in winning his four professional bouts and Smith is well known on the local boxing scene, this bout being his 37th. “I’m optimistic this’ll be a big year,” said Moyo. “Joe’s career’s gone into orbit, and I intend the same for mine. We can all improve based on each other’s success.”

Liam, 29, and Kian, 18, are hopeful that their debut professional victories can feed off other boxers’ success and see them also become well known on the South Yorkshire circuit. “I had my debut planned five years ago and then broke a leg,” explained welterweight Carrigan. “I’ve also broken the other leg since. I also train with Dave Allen. I’ve put so much of myself into this and I want something that I can look back on with pride. I’m delighted to have got a shutout win over Lithuanian boxer Simas Volosinas.”

“Like Liam I benefited from massive local support,” explained Kian, who trainer David Adamson describes as a “quiet, polite boy who lives for his twice daily boxing training.” Kian’s win over veteran Lancastrian Naeem Ali showed an athlete with strong potential showcasing competence in the skills required to underpin an effective transition from the amateur to the paid ranks. In his case seemingly effortlessly.”

Twenty-six-year-old Hayden had chosen Don’t Stop Me Now as his walkout song. He’s foremost in a group of Doncaster boxers who are clearly having a good time. Hayden and other Doncaster fighters plan to compete in the city on the 16th of May undercard of Dave Allen’s encounter with Croatian fighter Filip Hrgović. Four years after Doncaster received city status the local boxing scene is thriving.

The Rise of Doncaster was organised Sheffield-based promoter Kas Hussain’s My Man Management along with Rhino LA. This was the eighth show for Hussain, 33, who established his company in 2024. Hayden secured the Commonwealth Boxing Council’s (CBC’s) International and Silver Championship belts. CBC has regulated and sanctioned Commonwealth championships since 1954.

Steelkings Strike Bronze After Finnish Battle

BILL HARDY

On 28 and 29 March 2026, the Sheffield Steelkings travelled to Laukaa in Finland to take part in the 5th edition of the Northwest European Para Ice Hockey League (NEPIHL).

Saturday saw all teams take part in a group stage round robin, to determine who would make it through to the semi-finals.

The Steelkings' opening game was against the Amsterdam Tigers. Four goals for the Steelkings saw them emerge the victors, but the Tigers couldn't be contained completely as they managed to put one goal onto the scoresheet themselves.

The second and final group stage game for the Steelkings saw them faceoff against NEPIHL newcomers TPS. The Steelkings didn't know what to expect from TPS, having never played against the Finnish team before. In the end the game was a draw, with neither team being able to break the one goal deadlock.

This put the Steelkings in a precarious position, as their final position in the group stage would be determined by the game between TPS and the Tigers. TPS got a decisive 7-1 victory in that game, meaning the Steelkings would finish second in their group and face two time NEPIHL champions SISU in the semi-finals.

Full Group Stage Results
Group A:

- SISU 5-0 Phantoms
- SISU 8-1 Les Bisons

- Les Bisons 3-3 Phantoms
- Group B:
- Steelkings 4-1 Tigers
- TPS 1-1 Steelkings
- Tigers 1-7 TPS

The Steelkings faced possibly their toughest challenge of the tournament in the semi-final, with SISU having never lost a game in the NEPIHL. Despite giving it their all, the tired Steelkings team wouldn't make it to the final this year, conceding 8 unanswered goals.

Their performance wasn't without merit though, nearly scoring on several occasions and killing a 5-on-3 powerplay to stop the scoreline getting worse than it was.

The other semi-final saw TPS beat the Phantoms 7-1, which meant there would be an all Finnish final while the Steelkings competed for bronze against the Belgian side.

Sunday saw the Steelkings rested and ready to claim the bronze medal. They knew the Phantoms were a good team, and they would need to give the game everything they had to secure the victory. In the end they did just that, beating the Phantoms 3-0 to claim 3rd place.

In the final TPS suffered the same fate as the Steelkings, conceding 8 unanswered goals to see SISU claim gold once again.

Sheffield Giants Academy Eyes 2026 Rebuild After Hard-Hitting Winter

TOBY CHESTERS

The Sheffield Giants Under-19s are trading "X's and O's" for "Jimmies and Joes" as they look to turn the page on a winless 2025 season.

Following a challenging 0-6 campaign last year, the Giants Academy has emerged from a grueling winter training program with a new coaching staff and a philosophy centered on player development over complex playbooks.

A Test of Grit

The road to the 2026 season began in the freezing rain of February. Coaches and players alike saw their commitment tested during practices in "inclement weather," a necessary hurdle for a team looking to rediscover its competitive edge.

The hard work culminated in two high-profile friendlies last month. Despite being "numerically disadvantagged," the Giants stood their ground in March against powerhouse opposition in the Lancashire Buccaneers and the Manchester Titans. For the Sheffield side, these games weren't just about the scoreline; they served as the essential benchmark for the rebuilding process.

The New Era

The 2026 rebuild is anchored by a significant overhaul of the coaching ranks. The Academy has recruited a staff with a vast amount of experience, including four coaches who have previously served as head coaches at other programs.

Their mission is a departure from traditional high-pressure schemes. The focus has shifted to providing Sheffield's youth with the best opportunity to fulfil their personal potential.

Head Coach Toby Chesters stated "There is a saying in football that championship teams at this level are 'delivered by Jimmy's and Joe's and not X's and O's," emphasising that the individual athlete is far more important than the playbook.

Recruitment Call

As the BAFA National League season approaches, the Giants are making a final push for new talent. While numbers are critical in the physical world of American football, the club stressed that previous knowledge of the sport is not a requirement for those looking to join.

The Giants Academy is prioritising enthusiasm, curiosity, and a sense of fun as they look to bolster their ranks for the summer ahead.

Sheffield Giants Academy is currently recruiting players aged 16-19.

MONTAGU CUP FINAL 2026

Big Ben Breaks Gate Hearts at the Mont

LES PAYNE

IT'S an endearing storyline as old as the Mexborough Montagu Cup itself - underdogs upsetting the odds in the big final.

Well, history-makers Wickersley CC can now be added to the list of those who have stunned the favourites on Easter Monday.

Unfancied everywhere except in their own dressing room, Wickersley shocked the favourites Gate Inn by edging a tight final 2-1 after extra-time in front of 1,475 at Mexborough Athletic.

They deserved it too, veteran Ben Thornton - a big handful all game for the Gate back line - netting the winner just five minutes from the end with the calmest of finishes.

It also completed a personal hat-trick as he was in the AFP side which won the Mont in 2014 and 2016 (also scoring in that one).

They are the first side from Wickersley to lift the coveted trophy in the competition's 129 years and also the first side from the Blades Super Draw League to do so.

Consider that they knocked out local giants Westville in the semi-final and now Gate, clear leaders of the Rotherham Sunday League and, like Westville, through to the Sheffield Sunday Senior Cup Final on April 19th. Some double that!

Wickersley started brightly and got the boost of an 8th minute goal.

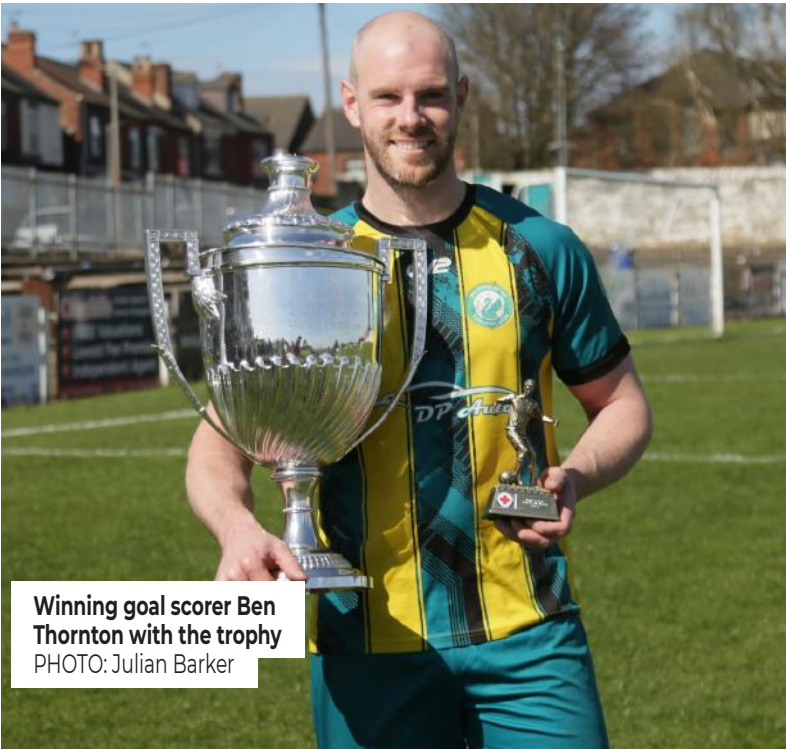

Louis Seddons, a lively threat throughout wide left, got clear on that side and his low ball in was diverted into his own net by Jack Greeves with Thornton behind him waiting to do the same.

Inside 60 seconds Greeves almost redeemed himself with a header from a corner which Pete Smith superbly turned away.

The early setback had jolted Gate into decisive action and they should have levelled only for Steve Taylor to put a great chance wide.

But the equaliser did come on the half-hour, Nathan Walsh finding himself in space from a through ball. He lifted his effort past the advancing Smith and Jordan Pilling helped himself to one of the Mont's easiest-ever goals from about a yard out.

Josh Hemmingway and Josh Stead both fired over but Wickersley went closest right on half-time, Reece Dudhill clearing off the line from a header by Liam Tomlinson.

The teams rather cancelled each out in the second half, Wickersley's teamwork nullifying the prolific Gate attack although Greeves powered a header straight at the keeper.

Both Seddons and sub Dec Mullane, with more time than he probably realised, could have snatched it late on for Wickersley.

Thornton fired just over following a free-kick at the start of extra-time and Taylor almost broke the deadlock moments after the second period started.

With thoughts turning to penalties and 115 minutes on the clock, a Gate threat was checked inside the area, and from deep inside his own half, Mullane's longest of long balls drifted on the breeze, down the famous slope and, suddenly, Thornton's eyes lit up.

He realised that the ball was carrying beyond his marker and he eased onto it and was clear.

Breaths were held... time stood still... but the veteran striker kept a cool head and side-footed calmly wide of the advancing Hayden Barnett and just inside the left hand post.

Gate looked stunned, couldn't mount a late surge and so Wickersley went into the history books.

Thornton was named Man of the Match edging out centre half Nathan Taylor who had an outstanding game as Wickersley rose to the occasion as a team and no one could begrudge them their triumph.

WICKERSLEY CC: Smith; Kelly, Taylor, Cuckson, Claxton; France (McGann 105), Tomlinson (Nix 105); Hardeman (Mullane 60), Daughtry, Seddons (Godley 118); Thornton. Unused: Kemp.
GATE INN: Barnett; Dudhill, Ardron, Greeves (Hough 68), Blackwood; James (Middleton 117), Hemmingway (Hancock 100), Stead; Pilling, Walsh, Taylor. Unused: Moore.

Steels Stumble Twice, Drop Into Real Danger

ADAM ALLCROFT

Stocksbridge Park Steels endured a tough weekend on the road and at home, coming away empty-handed from two games that leave their survival hopes hanging by a thread.

The weekend began with a trip to the seaside to face Cleethorpes Town, and for large spells, it looked like the Steels might bring something back from the Lincolnshire coast. Both sides started brightly, trading early chances. James Morris thought he'd given Stocksbridge the lead with a clever volley over the keeper, only to see it crash back off the bar with the flag already up. At the other end, Callum Ainley tested Ben Townsend, but nothing too troublingly early on.

It was Cleethorpes who struck first, though, carving open the Steels defence with a neat move that ended with Joe Ackroyd smashing home from inside the box. Stocksbridge responded well, showing the kind of fight they've needed in recent weeks. Paul Iggulden went close with a header that forced a good save from Ollie Battersby, and it felt like an equaliser was coming.

Sure enough, it ar-

Action from the game at Cleethorpes Town

rived in the second half. A well-worked move saw Jack Tinker deliver a cross to the far post, where Alex O'Connor was on hand to fire home and level things up. Game on.

But just as quickly as they were back in it, the Steels let it slip. Barely two minutes later, Cleethorpes won their only corner of the game, and a clever routine found Jack Vann on the edge of the box. His strike flew through a crowd and past Townsend to restore the hosts' lead.

From there, Stocksbridge pushed and probed, causing a few nervy moments in the Cleethorpes defence, but couldn't quite find that final touch. Battersby made a couple of important saves, and when a late free-kick came to nothing, the Owls were able to see things out. The Steels headed home with nothing to show for their efforts—aside from a stick of seaside rock.

If that result was frustrating, the visit of Leek Town did little to lift spirits.

Again, Stocksbridge started on the front foot but struggled to turn possession into clear-cut chances. Connor Smythe came closest to producing something special, bursting through three defenders before unleashing a 30-yard effort that just cleared the bar. It would've been some goal.

Instead, it was Leek who took the lead, and in scrappy fashion. A corner wasn't properly dealt with, and Hayden Campbell was on hand to bundle the ball over the line. Not pretty, but effective.

Smythe nearly responded immediately, seeing a volley dip onto the roof of the net after a partial clearance fell kindly for him. It summed up the Steels' luck—close, but not quite.

The second half couldn't have started much worse. Stocksbridge switched off defensively, appealing for offside while play continued, and Louis Potts took full advantage. He squared for Campbell, who made no mistake in sliding home his second of the game.

From there, the uphill battle became even steeper. The Steels kept going, to their credit, but the cutting edge just wasn't there. Luke Rawson blazed over after a slick move into the box, while Jack Watson had Bracken Moor momentarily celebrating before his effort hit the side netting.

And that was that. Another defeat, and perhaps more damagingly, results elsewhere went against them. The gap to safety has now stretched to five points, leaving Stocksbridge with a real fight on their hands in the weeks ahead.

It's not over yet—but it's going to need near perfection from the Steels to secure safety.

Howarth strikes then Hallam edged out on the road

HALLAM

IAN JONES

Hallam's Easter programme brought both relief and frustration, as Leon Howarth's early header secured a hard-earned home win over Ashington before the Countrymen were edged out by a single goal at Lincoln United on Monday.

Back on home turf on Saturday, Hallam were looking to respond after back-to-back away fixtures that had ended with defeat at Bradford (PA). There was just one change to the starting line-up, with Brandon Bradbury returning in place of Scott Fenwick, and the Countrymen were quickly on the front foot in front of a packed Sandygate crowd.

Ashington threatened early, breaking into Hallam's half inside the opening minute and forcing Hugo Warhurst into a sharp save as a deflected cross was tipped over for a corner. It proved to be a warning rather than a sign of things to come, as Hallam struck almost immediately at the other end. Charlie Staniland exchanged passes neatly with Jay Glover before delivering a pinpoint cross into the box, where the unmarked Howarth guided a header past the visiting goalkeeper to give Hallam the lead inside five minutes. The hosts almost doubled their advantage shortly afterwards through an almost identical move, but Howarth's second header this time flew over the bar.

Ashington remained a threat, with Josh Gilchrist striking the post on 26 minutes after being played through by Oliver Thompson, while Kiyani Clayton caused constant problems down the right flank for Hallam, cutting inside and testing the visitors from the edge of the area. Despite chances at both ends, the Countrymen took their slender lead into the break.

The tempo remained high after the restart. Staniland continued his fine form, beating two defenders before setting up Glover, whose effort was comfortably saved, while Clayton came closest to a second as he drove into the box and forced another save, only for no one to convert the loose ball.

Ashington pressed late on and twice went agonisingly close, striking the woodwork again deep into added time, but Hallam held firm to secure a valuable three points and reward a committed all-round performance at Sandygate.

That victory set the tone for an Easter Monday trip to Lincoln United on Monday, but Hallam were unable to make it back-to-back wins as they fell to a narrow 1-0 defeat in Lincolnshire.

The decisive moment came in the first half, with Lincoln United capitalising following a corner when Bradley Wells reacted quickest to turn the ball home from close range. It proved enough to settle a tight contest between two closely matched sides sitting side by side in mid-table.

Hallam responded positively in the second half and pushed hard for an equaliser, enjoying more of the ball and territory as the game wore on. Chances were limited, but the Countrymen kept Lincoln working defensively and asked questions right until the final whistle.

Despite a strong finish, Hallam were unable to find a breakthrough, as Lincoln held on to extend their winning run and secure their own safety in the division. For Hallam, it was a frustrating end to the weekend, but one that still showed resilience and organisation following Saturday's home success.

The two results summed up Hallam's current position – capable of grinding out important wins, but also fine margins separating success and disappointment away from home.

Hallam return to Sandygate on Saturday 11 April when they host Silsden, with the opportunity to build on the Ashington victory and turn Easter's mixed return into renewed momentum as the season reaches its closing stages.

Albion Dropped After Brutal Added Time Blow

MATT JONES

The Macron NCEL Premier Division season reached a dramatic and unforgiving conclusion on Saturday as Albion Sports were relegated in the cruellest possible fashion, conceding a decisive stoppage time goal that reshaped the bottom of the table with seconds remaining.

On a day when three different clubs found themselves in the final relegation place at various stages, it was Albion who ultimately suffered the final, devastating blow.

Their 4–3 defeat to Golcar United was a microcosm of the chaos unfolding across the division. Nathan Cartman’s first half strike had given Albion a platform, and further goals from Ellis Wade and Mohammed Qasim kept them in the fight. But Golcar responded through Ryan Wadsworth and Rhomani Murray before Ash Flynn levelled late on.

Deep into added time, Kallum Reid struck the goal that not only sealed the points but also condemned Albion to the drop. Albion’s relegation is even more remarkable as they boast the division’s joint top scorer in Nathan Cartman who has scored 33 goals.

Thackley and Eccleshill United delivered one of the most dramatic matches of the afternoon, drawing 3–3 in a contest that swung repeatedly. Lewis Sugden’s penalty, Keanen Mannings’ finish and a stoppage time strike from Hass Gorji were matched by goals from Zackary Sangster, Stevie Ellix from the spot, and Lewis Waddington. With Thackley trailing 3–2 as the match entered injury time, it was Gorji’s late strike that ultimately moved them out of the dreaded drop zone and above Albion Sports.

Bottesford Town started the day seemingly in the most peril, second from bottom, but secured their safety with a composed 2–0 victory over Beverley Town, with Luke Ayris and Jonathan Nyantou on target.

Elsewhere, Barton Town ended their regular season with a 3–1 win over Wombwell Town, a result that confirms Barton’s place in the play offs where they will join Beverley Town, Sheffield and Tadcaster Albion thanks to a brace from Lewis Stephens and a goal from Tom Waudby, while Liam Owen replied for the visitors.

Frickley Athletic left it late to earn a 1–1 draw with Horbury Town, Charlie Clegg cancelling out Gibril Bojang’s early strike. Knaresborough Town were beaten 2–1 at home by Rossington Main, who led through Mackenzie Warne and Masai Arbouin before Jack Dyche pulled one back. Champions Liversedge ended their home campaign with a 2–0 win over Pickering Town, courtesy of George Green and Kelan Swales.

Parkgate and Campanion shared a lively 1–1 draw, Harry Day’s early opener cancelled out by Shay Muirhead. Penistone Church edged Sheffield 1–0 thanks to a James Young penalty in front of an incredible crowd of 1007, while Tadcaster Albion produced one of the day’s standout performances in a 4–2 win over Handsworth. William Marshall, an Owen Haigh own goal, Ollie Norman and Jayden Thompson all found the net, with Ben Harriott and Brandon Bagley replying.

The drama extended into Division One, where Friday night saw Wakefield AFC defeat Ilkley Town 2–0 thanks to an Akeel Francis brace, including a first half penalty.

Saturday’s fixtures brought goals across the division. Appleby Frodingham swept aside Doncaster City 5–1, with Joshua Fraiwald converting a penalty before second half goals from Nathan Jarman, Gareth Barlow, Jordan Spencer and Ryan Bonser. Jacob Toomer netted Doncaster’s consolation.

Armthorpe Welfare were inspired by a Mikey Dunn hat trick in their 4–1 win over Athersley Recreation, with Harry Sheperd adding a late fourth. Nathaneal Dyer scored Athersley’s reply from the spot. Brigg Town enjoyed a superb afternoon as Joshua Batty scored all four goals in their 4–1 victory over Nostell Miners Welfare, with Cooper Hall on target for the visitors.

Club Thorne Colliery and South Leeds played out a goalless draw, while Harrogate Railway Athletic claimed a 2–0 win at Crowle Colts through James Eyles and Alex Burton. Dearne & District were emphatic 5–1 winners at Goole AFC, with Adam Baskerville scoring twice, Owen Fieldsend adding another, and Jamie Austin striking twice in stoppage time. Oliver McQuillin had given Goole an early lead.

Leeds UFCA secured a 2–0 home win over Maltby Main thanks to quick fire goals from Adam Jones and Liam Burt. Selby Town were in ruthless form as they beat Glasshoughton Welfare 5–0, with Harry Clapham scoring twice and further goals from Maximillian Bauer, Joseph Rawcliffe and Harry Douglas.

Louth Town edged Winterton Rangers 1–0 through Will Pennell, a result that ensures Louth’s survival but guarantees that Winterton will finish in the third and final relegation spot while Worsbrough Bridge Athletic earned a 1–0 win over Route One Rovers thanks to Keelan Grist’s first half strike.

Across both divisions, the weekend delivered goals, tension and late twists — but no story was more dramatic than Albion Sports’ relegation, sealed in stoppage time on a day when survival hopes rose and fell with every update. Their fate, decided at the death, will be remembered as one of the most dramatic conclusions in recent NCEL seasons.

Premier Division Champions Liversedge booked their place in the JCP Construction NCEL League Cup Final (in memory of James Hitchcock) with a composed and clinical 3–0 victory over Campanion on Tuesday night. Alfie Dean opened the scoring ten minutes before the break, and the hosts tightened their grip early in the second half when Finn Donovan doubled the advantage. Champion pushed to find a way back, but Dean struck again in stoppage time to seal a deserved win in front of a crowd of 274. Liversedge will face either Rossington Main or Route One Rovers in the final.

In Division One, Leeds UFCA produced an impressive second half turnaround to defeat Goole AFC 2–1, a result that proved enough for Leeds UFCA to claim the final remaining spot in the end of season play offs after an impressive first season in the NCEL.. Nathan Perks had given the visitors a half time lead, but Leeds responded strongly after the interval. Harrison Rowley levelled on 52 minutes, and Jaydan Sandhu’s penalty five minutes later completed the comeback.

Appleby Frodingham claimed a narrow 1–0 win over Crowle Colts thanks to Joshua Fraiwald’s 41st minute finish. The hosts managed the game well after taking the lead and saw out the contest in front of 173 spectators.

Armthorpe Welfare also earned a single goal victory, with Will Mendonca’s 76th minute strike proving decisive against Club Thorne Colliery. A tight encounter produced few clear chances, but Armthorpe made the breakthrough when it mattered to secure the points.

Harrogate Railway delivered one of the evening’s most convincing performances, easing to a 3–0 win over Nostell Miners Welfare. Alex Ingham struck early, Elliot Holmes doubled the lead before the break, and Ben Parkes added a third shortly after half time as Railway controlled proceedings throughout.

A six goal thriller unfolded at Maltby Main, who overcame Route One Rovers 4–2. Curtis Morrison’s first half penalty set them on their way before second half goals from Hayden Habetz and Cole Worden put the hosts firmly in control. Rovers mounted a late rally through Reece Thompson and Saikou Sillah, scoring twice in quick succession, but Shaun Tai’s stoppage time strike ensured Maltby finished the night with all three points, with 108 watching on.

The midweek action concluded on Wednesday as Worsbrough Bridge Athletic strengthened their chances of a home tie in the play off semi finals as they edged Doncaster City 2–1 to move up to third in the table. Josh Brown struck inside the opening minute, only for Benjamin Dyer to level midway through the first half. The decisive moment came on 56 minutes when Max Skelton restored Worsbrough’s lead, and the hosts held firm to secure victory in front of 165 supporters.

Derby Delivers Perfect Ending for Dronfield

S YORKS SPORT

Easter Monday fireworks at the HE Barnes Stadium brought a demanding holiday weekend to life, as Dronfield Town staged a stirring comeback to beat Swallownest.

The derby drama only made sense in the context of what had gone before. Both sides arrived carrying tired legs and clean sheets from Saturday, the kind of games that test discipline more than imagination and leave little in reserve.

Dronfield’s Saturday trip to Coalville Town was as tough as it gets at this level. Facing play-off contenders away from home, Chris Millington’s side set out with one clear aim: stay in the contest. They did that superbly, defending with organisation and concentration for the full 90 minutes to earn a 0-0 draw that felt like a quiet achievement. Chances were scarce, space was limited and every header, tackle and clearance mattered. It was not pretty, but it was effective.

Swallownest’s weekend opener followed an almost identical script. Hosting Radford, they produced a solid, compact display that smothered the visitors’ attacking threat. Clear-cut chances were rare and neither goalkeeper was overly worked, but the point was a fair reflection of a game built on structure and effort rather than flair.

Another 0-0, another clean sheet, and another reminder of how fine the margins are in Division One.

Those two goalless draws framed what followed on Easter Monday. Just 48 hours later, in warm sunshine and derby conditions, caution was quickly replaced by chaos.

Dronfield struck first midway through the opening half when full debutant Kellie Marah announced himself in style. A neat passing move released Arran Bovill, who set the ball for the young American striker to cut inside and unleash a strike that gave Harley Middleton no chance.

If that goal lifted the hosts, it only seemed to sharpen Swallownest. The visitors, fresher and more assertive in midfield, began to dictate the tempo. Callum Brooks levelled matters on 22 minutes after Dronfield failed to clear a corner, firing home from the edge of the box. Eight minutes later he struck again, following up after Lewis Naylor had saved his initial effort to send Swallownest in 2-1 ahead at the break.

Given Dronfield’s energy-sapping draw at Coalville, they looked a little leggy for long spells, while Swallownest carried confidence from their disciplined showing against Radford. Early in the second half the visitors continued to threaten, Harrison Struggles curling a left-footed effort narrowly wide.

The turning point came just after the hour. Millington went to his bench and the impact was immediate. Legs were refreshed, tempo increased and suddenly Swallownest were being asked a different set of questions.

The equaliser arrived on 73 minutes and again Marah was central to it. A powerful run down the right, a clever step-over and a perfectly weighted cross found Bovill, who headed home his 13th goal of the season to swing momentum firmly towards the hosts.

From that moment, the game felt as if it was tilting in one direction. Charlie Stewart was twice denied from close range as Swallownest scrambled to hold on, defending their box with the same resolve that had earned them a point on Saturday.

They could not hold out. Two minutes into added time, a set piece was worked back across goal and Stewart, falling backwards, nodded home to complete the turnaround. With Swallow-nest stretched and chasing an equaliser, Dronfield added a fourth when Bovill selflessly squared for Max Rhodes to finish calmly and seal the points.

The win leaves Town eighth with two games remaining. Two points from visits to Pinxton and a home finale against Pinchbeck United will guarantee a top-ten finish in their first United Counties League season, a remarkable turnaround from where they stood this time last year.

From gritty, goalless draws to derby drama and late goals, it was a weekend that captured non-league football at its best.

Title races sharpen across County Senior League

COUNTY SENIOR
WARREN BIRD

Results across the Sheffield & Hallamshire County Senior League over the Easter programme tightened promotion races, kept title contests alive and gave renewed hope to sides battling at the foot of the table.

Hemsworth Miners Welfare stayed four points clear at the top of the Premier Division after a 2–1 win away at Wombwell Main. Luka Budimir scored both goals for the leaders, while Zach Bond replied for Wombwell in a competitive encounter.

Second placed Penistone Church Reserves won the meeting between second and fifth with a 2–1 victory at Hepworth United. Rob Bartram scored for Hepworth, but goals from Matty Jacobs and Charlie Shepherd earned Penistone the points. The defeat leaves Hepworth nine points behind Hemsworth, although they still have three games in hand and remain well placed in the race.

Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves recorded one of the weekend’s most emphatic results with a 5–1 home win over Dodworth Miners Welfare. Cole Thorpe struck twice, with Louis Brown, Diego Noche and Tom Rowland also scoring, while Ethan Kenny netted for Dodworth.

Oughtibridge picked up a narrow 1–0 away win at Denaby Main thanks to a goal from Lucas Metzger Edwards.

At the bottom, Kiveton Park boosted their survival hopes with a surprise 2–2 draw at AFC Dronfield. Ben Bertram and Ben Law were on target for Kiveton, and with both Jubilee Sports and South Elmsall United not in action, the point moved them to within two points of their nearest rivals. Jubilee travel to Kiveton in their final game of the season on April 22. Kiveton don’t finish until May 2.

Attention now turns to Hemsworth’s trip to inform Stocksbridge Park Steels on Saturday, a fixture that could prove pivotal in the title race.

In Division One, Swinton Athletic came out on top in the clash between the leading pair, winning 4–2 away at Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915. Steve Taylor scored twice for Swinton, with Callum Walton and Brodie Cooper also finding the net. Despite the defeat, Red Rose are already promoted and have just one game remaining, with Swinton the only side still able to catch them, sitting ten points back but with five games in hand.

Wombwell Town Reserves’ difficult season continued with a 2–1 home defeat to Thorncliffe Villa. Farrell Cawthorne and Finn Taylor were on the scoresheet for the visitors.

Barnsley Town and North Gawber played out a goalless draw, while Royston claimed a 4–0 away win at Parkgate Reserves. Goal-scorer details from that fixture were not recorded.

In Division Two, Dearne & District Reserves strengthened their position at the top with a 5–0 win over Middlewood Rovers, the result maintaining their advantage in a tightly contested title race.

Swinton Athletic Reserves stayed in contention with a 5–1 victory over Youdan. Cory Thompson, Brandon Harris and Dylan Middleton were all on target, with Cameron Middleton scoring twice, while Thabo Granger replied for Youdan.

Rotherham Town also kept pace near the top with a 3–0 win over Caribbean Sports. Josh Marsden opened the scoring before Chris Bradley added two more.

North Gawber Reserves enjoyed a big win of their own, beating Elsecar Dynamos 5–1.

On Easter Monday, Wombwell Main Reserves recorded a 5–2 win over Youdan. Ryan Hallsworth, Max Shaw and Jayden Williams scored once each, with Harry Stokes netting twice, while Youdan scored twice in reply.

With title races and survival battles still influenced by games in hand across all three divisions, the margin for error continues to narrow as the season moves towards its final weeks.

South Yorkshire Sides Shine in Cup Thriller

CENTRAL MIDS

RICHARD LANE

South Yorkshire's sides were at the heart of another breathless week in the Central Midlands Alliance, with Dinnington Town and Burngreave United both booking their places in the Buckingham Insurance League Cup semi finals.

Burngreave United produced one of their finest performances of the season, knocking out Premier South leaders Graham Street Prims with a superb 3–1 win. Umar Mohammed struck twice before the break, Abdulrahman Alghamdi adding a third to seal the upset. Prims' late reply from Sam Morgan was little consolation as Burngreave marched into the last four.

Dinnington Town, meanwhile, delivered another cup thriller. Fresh from a 12 goal semi final in the Floodlit Cup, they edged Premier North leaders Kinsley Boys 4–3 in a pulsating contest. Josh Stead opened the scoring before Sam Eckhardt's quickfire double put Town in control. Kinsley fought back through James White and Harry Mills, but with extra time looming, Jack Cully rose at the back post in the 92nd minute to send Dinnington through and keep their remarkable cup run alive.

In league action, Harworth Colliery kept themselves in the conversation—albeit at distance—with a commanding 4–0 win at Staveley Reserves. Harvey Smith struck first before a Corey Goodwin brace and Ewan Plant's finish wrapped up the points.

There was a statement performance from SJR Worksop, whose youthful side stunned in form Ollerton Town with a sharp, energetic 3–0 victory. Callum Edwards' opener set the tone, Joe Bean doubled the lead early in the second half, and Taylor Thackery's late strike capped a superb away display.

FC Sunnyhill continued their strong form with a 5–1 win over Blidworth Welfare, Lewis Benjamin helping himself to a hat trick. Courtay Steadman and Leonel Baushi added the others.

At Linby Colliery, Wirksworth Dynamo snatched a dramatic 2–1 win despite trailing to Zack Hamilton's early strike. Lucas Brough levelled before Owen King stole the points at the death.

In the Premier North, Brodsworth Main's goal machine Callum Stockton matched Lucas Stubbs' four goal haul for Kinsley Boys, firing Brodsworth to a 5–0 win over Glapwell. Stockton struck on 10, 29, 34 and 71 minutes, with Finlay Watt adding a late fifth.

Dinnington Town added to their cup joy with a 4–1 league win at Elite AFC, Jordan Turner and Gariel Oloko both scoring twice after Elite's early opener.

Harworth Colliery came from behind again to beat Ollerton Town 3–1, Declan Heath's double proving decisive after Daniel Boulton had cancelled out Kee-gan Burton's early strike.

Burngreave United earned a battling point at SJR Worksop, Aymane Bargach equalising after the hosts had overtaken Umar Mohammed's first minute opener.

At Sandy Lane, Worksop Town Reserves fought back from two down to draw 2–2 with Teversal, Dylan Blagden and Rhys Butterworth completing the turnaround.

With fixture congestion looming and some clubs facing up to 12 matches in 28 days, the race for honours across both divisions is set for a frantic, unforgiving run in—one in which South Yorkshire's sides look determined to play a major part.

Denaby Go Top After Barnburgh Rout

MEXBOROUGH
SUNDAY

SHAUN BEST

Denaby United are the new leaders in Division One following a 4-1 victory over Barnburgh WMC on Tuesday evening. A Max Moseley hat-trick and Declan Earp strike capped a fruitful couple of days for Denaby, who also progressed in the Fred Whitehead Trophy after a 3-1 victory at The Sly Fox on Thursday evening.

Hickleton Harriers are hot on Denaby's tail, putting 12 without reply past Courtyard on Tuesday night and taking full advantage of Swinton Athletic's stuttering form.

After being held 1-1 by New Masons Arms at the weekend, Swinton went down to a 3-1 defeat at struggling Mexborough Athletic two days later. Despite the setback, it remains incredibly tight at the top with just three points separating the top three teams.

Cross Keys Wath remain in fourth place after picking up four points from their last two games. Two goals from Ethan Ryan and one from Simon Tierney gave Keys a 3-2 win against Highgate WMC at the weekend. Tierney was on the scoresheet again when his side picked up a point in a 1-1 draw against Union Jack on Tuesday night.

White Hart Wadworth moved up to fifth in the table after a 10-0 victory at Queens Head Hoyland. Nathan Ashbridge netted a hat-trick, Triston Taylor added a brace, with Tim Miles, Chris Barker, Thomas Doherty, Kieran Falcus and an own goal completing the scoring.

At the other end of the table, Barnburgh WMC and Mexborough Knights couldn't be separated and played out a 3-3 draw. James Kellock and a Cameron Middleton double were cancelled out by Cameron Flint's treble for the Knights.

In the Premier Division, both Gym Bar and Swinton Ring O'Bells posted 6-2 victories over the weekend. Bayley Lowe, Rhys Plater, Blake

Smallman and a Harry Emptage hat-trick gave Gym Bar the win at Groves Social, while Sam Atkinson, Lewis Horth, Harrison Norton, Dane Shaw and a Scott Walsh double gave Ring O'Bells the three points at home against The Sly Fox.

Westville remain on top of the pile with a 100% record. With games in hand, three victories from their final six league games will hand Westville the title.

Brinsworth tighten chase as goals flow

ROTHERHAM SUNDAY

MARK PILLEY

Goals were in plentiful supply across the Rotherham & District Sunday League over the weekend as promotion races sharpened and pressure increased at both ends of the table.

In the Premier Division, second placed Brinsworth DC kept the pressure on leaders The Gate Inn with a comprehensive 4-0 away win at AFP Pewter Pot. Harry Day led the way with a hat-trick, with Corey Goodwin adding the fourth to maintain Brinsworth's impressive goal difference.

Lord Reresby climbed the table following a 6-3 victory away at Butchers Arms. William Jackson scored twice for the visitors, with James Goodman also on the scoresheet, while Butchers Arms were unable to stem the flow despite finding the net three times in reply.

Clubhouse claimed a solid 2-0 victory at Thorpe Hesley Village thanks to a brace from

In the Championship, leaders Thurcroft Hub underlined their position at the top with a commanding 6-0 away win at AFC Maltby. Jack Baxter, Jack Benton, Liam Davies and Gianni Makin were all on target, with Alfie Eagle scoring twice in a dominant display.

Maltby Main Haynook climbed away from danger with a 4-2 win at Handsworth Inn. Malone Pyke and Ben Shackshaft scored for the visitors, cancelling out efforts from Handsworth as Haynook picked up a valuable three points.

Division One produced a string of high-scoring contests. Beighton Magpies JFC overcame Ecclesfield Blues 4-2, with Ethan Hussain scoring twice alongside goals from Jed Collins and Alex Needham. Harrison Stenton netted both of Ecclesfield's goals in defeat.

Leaders Brinsworth Whitehill JFC continued their promotion push with a ruthless 6-0 home win over AFC Rotherham Spartans. Joe Lakin, Kyle Dunstan, Jamie Doyle, Ryan Earp, Harry Rodgers and Max Wadsworth all got on the scoresheet as Spartans remained rooted to the bottom of the table.

Joker edged out Aughton Black Bull in a seven goal thriller, winning 4-3 thanks to goals from Ryan Reeves, Bradley Carroll, Oliver Perry and Simon Slack. Aughton remained competitive through the contest but were unable to recover.

The Rig Dyke also claimed a narrow 4-3 victory against AFC Thirsty Flame. Macaulley Morris scored twice alongside goals from Aaron Boardman and Imran Raza, while Thirsty Flame responded through Callum Hackleton and James Smith, as well as an own goal, but fell just short.

Shakhtar Sheffield secured a 2-0 win over Milldam with goals from Corey Kelleher and Gage West, while Manor Hotel ran out convincing 10-4 winners away at The Colin in the division's standout scoreline.

In Division Two, Harthill edged Wickersley AFC 3-2 in a closely fought contest. Matthew Green, Callum Hurt and Ross Smith struck for Harthill, while Alfie Miller and Jack Holt kept Wickersley in contention.

AFC Loca maintained pressure near the top with a 3-2 home win over Hope Valley Tap. Jayden Dennis, Cody Mathieson and Christopher Steer were on target for Loca, while Joshua Grinn and Taylor Somerset replied for the visitors.

RUSC85 The Travellers earned a 4-1 victory over Kilton United, with goals from David Gleeson, Matthew Hemmingway, Nicholas Parker and Jonathan Sykes. Daniel Fitzackerley scored Kilton's consolation.

The Alma picked up an important 2-1 win at home to Brinsworth FC thanks to goals from Kyler Crownshaw and Kyan Pemberton, with Connor Marsden scoring for Brinsworth as they remain bottom of the standings.

Division Three saw

Aston Athletic claim a 5-2 win over Ravenfield Arms. Callum Bower, Dan Siddall, Jack Smith, who scored twice, and Laycern Warren found the net, while Ravenfield responded with two goals of their own.

Steel City Whippets edged Ship Inn 2-1 thanks to goals from Chris Isted and Idris Yusuf, while Ship Inn were unable to force a late equaliser.

East Dene secured a 5-3 win against Stag United. Cole Jones and Hay Searston both scored twice, with Sean Thompson also on target, while Stag United replied through Michael Collins and Joen Creasmer, with one goal credited as an own goal.

Crown Inn Newhill completed the division's action with a 4-1 victory over Wincobank Rovers. Jack Arundel, Adam Raynes and Thomas Simpson, who scored twice, sealed the points.

In Division Four, Earl Grey claimed a 3-1 win over AFC Sportsman, while The Club Pot and Dinnington Dynamos shared the points in a 1-1 draw, with Dane Fox scoring for Dynamos.

Brunsmeer and Dodworth Set Up Final Showdown

MEADOWHALL & DB EVANS

MARTIN GILMOUR

Two excellent Semi-Finals were played out at the weekend and we now know that Brunsmeer Athletic will take on Dodworth Miners Welfare in the League's showpiece game at the end of the Season.

A last minute penalty decided the game at Brunsmeer giving them a 3-2 win. 1-1 at half time, Staveley Miners Welfare went ahead in the 2nd half but Brunsmeer were not to be denied and clinched the game 3-2.

Scorers for Brunsmeer were Lewis Fulk, Liam Farnsworth and Joshua Booth. Staveley replied through Tyris Nwgenya and Jensen Blogg.

An even tighter game at Dodworth saw the home team come through 2-1 against Handsworth FC Blacks.

Eckington Turn Tide to Trouble Chapeltown

BLADES SUPER
DRAW S S

KEITH FIRMINGER

Eckington MW came from behind to win 2-1 at a Chapeltown RBL now 6 points from safety with just one game in hand.

Chapeltown got off to a flier with the wind at their backs and Josh Nodder took full advantage when he launched the ball from inside his own half to beat the keeper. It stayed like that until half-time, but it all changed after the break.

Dan White ran onto a ball behind the defence to equalise and soon after a scramble in the box wrong footed the keeper and it allowed Aiden Horspool to net his 13th goal of the season to give Eckington a lead the protected until the end.

Despite coming back from two down, Stannington Village's title chances took a blow when they were held to a 4-4 draw by Wadsley Bridge Sixers. George Rudd fired Sixers into a 6th minute lead, but Stannington hit back when Dan White headed home from a Joel Purkiss corner. Stannington then went ahead when another Purkiss corner went into the net off a defender.

It was Sixers turn to hit back with a Rob Farrell strike and they went ahead a second time with Chris Belshaw's 18th league goal of the season. The CBC Premier's leading scorer, Belshaw, then took his tally to 19 to give Sixers a 4-2 half-time lead. Stannington had been reduced to 10 men, but got back into it with a Luca DeFalco penalty and they grabbed a deserved point 5 minutes from time when a De-Falco cross was headed home by Aemad Gadour.

A Xavier Dandrade double helped Hackenthorpe to a 3-0 victory over AFC Wisewood and confirm their promotion to the top flight. Hackenthorpe went in front when Harrison Case whipped in a quality cross that was met with a cool finish by Dandrade. The lead was soon doubled when a

Chad Gibson shot was saved by the keeper but Dandrade was on hand to put the ball home with a cheeky backheel. The second half was dominated by Hackenthorpe, but they could only add when Gibson used his pace to race onto a terrific through ball from Aston Thompson and score. None of the teams below the top three can now catch Hackenthorpe after Crookes were held to a 1-1 draw at Kelham Island. Crookes took an early lead through Tom Rickers and created lots of chances afterwards. They didn't take them and Kelham Island made them pay with an Alex Simons equaliser. Crookes' result was also good news for Loca, who moved up to second and improve their promotion chances with a 4-1 victory at Brunsmeer. Jamie Hopkins gave Loca the lead midway through the first half when he turned a defender before slamming the ball home from 25 yards. Hopkins then took advantage of a defensive error to set Logan Liggins up for an easy finish to take his tally to 18 League goals for the season. Loca made it 3 after the break when Cam Evans crossed for Mitch Kent to head home and Evans again provided the assist for Curt Modest to make it 4. Brunsmeer never gave up though and gained a consolation when their leading scorer Gaz Murdoch scored his 13th goal of the season.

Belles Staring Relegation in the Face

JULIAN BARKER

Doncaster Rovers Belles suffered a 2-1 home defeat to Durham Cestria to leave them precariously placed over the FA Women's National League Division One North relegation trap-door.

They now face dropping down to the fifth tier for the first time in their history.

Durham scored twice just past the hour and Belles halved the deficit through Elie Dobson with ten minutes left.

York City won and so moved three points clear of Belles who dropped into the higher of the two relegation places. Things certainly look ominous for Belles who have played a game more than the two teams immediately above them, Chester-Le-Street Town, who are a point better off than Belles, being the other.

The table does not make pleasant viewing for Belles who were re-prieved from the drop last season when other teams took voluntary relegation. Belles host Chester-Le-Street on 19th April and they will need to win that game and almost certainly one or both of their two remaining away games to stand a realistic chance of staying up.

After suffering three successive home defeats against fellow teams in the top half of the Division One Midlands table, Sheffield FC returned to winning ways when they gained maximum points on their visit to Stourbridge who are battling against relegation.

Imogen Fowler put Sheffield ahead just before the interval and Rachael Kelly wrapped up a 2-0 win with the second midway through the second half.

Krissie Humble 2 and Maia Taylor were on target to give Dronfield Town a 3-0 victory at Lincoln United Development in East Midlands Regional League Division One North.

Rossington Main lost 4-0 at Leeds Modernians whose win restored them to top spot in the North East Regional League Southern Division ahead of Handsworth. Rossington will be assured of a top half of the table finish if they win their home game against Ilkley Town this Sunday.

Second place YP Women scored a last gasp winner to edge their Sheffield & Hallamshire Women's County League Division One home game against Barnsley Women Reserves 4-3.

Lizzie Coates headed Barnsley in front. Zoe Laughton incensed the advantage and she scored her second shortly after half time. Barnsley, 3-0 up, had not conceded more than once in any League game this season, while YP were defending a 100% home record which had seen them score at least four times in each game.

Heidi O'Reilly began the fightback when she scored from distance. Annie Davidson narrowed the deficit to a single goal and Grace Holmes finished off a surging run with a low shot to level. Holmes netted the clincher. So, Barnsley remain in third place, but for much of the game they were on course to dislodge their hosts from second spot.

Leaders Stocksbridge Park Steels remain in the position of having the points in the bag, though they failed to win for only the second time when they drew 1-1 at Sheffield United Community last midweek. Mara Edwards netted their point saver after United had scored an early opener through Caz Norton.

While (Oakwell based) Barnsley FC Ladies remain champions elect in Division Two, the race for runners up spot is much more wide open after Brodsworth Welfare extended their winning sequence to eight games thanks to a 6-2 victory at Brinsworth Welfare who remain in second spot, but face strong challenges by both Brodsworth and Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves.

Laura Ferguson bagged a hat trick for Brodsworth whose other goals were scored by Holly Bytheway 2 and Jill Edmonds. Caitlin Cooper and Millie Lee scored for Brinsworth who boasted the Division's only unbeaten home record beforehand.

Staveley remain third, a point ahead of Brodsworth after they recorded a 3-1 home win over Millmoor Juniors Reserves. Penistone Church were 1-0 home winners over Dearne & District.

Division Three leaders Dronfield Town Development lost 1-0 at Wickersley Youth whose goal was scored by Beth Harper in the second half.

Bottom team Barnsley Women Under-21s salvaged a point from 3-1 down at the interval at home to Kiveton Park Reserves thanks to a second half brace by Imogen Bruerton. Isabelle Munjic was Barnsley's other scorer, while Sophie Ibberson 2 and Mikayla Harper were on the mark for Kiveton.

Division Four leaders Brampton United remain unbeaten, now 17 games, after goals by Ellie Martin and Steph Simpson secured a 2-1 win at Barlborough. West End Terriers were 4-1 home winners over Bramley Sunnyside whose goal was scored by Liv Miller. Worksop Town furthered their claims to usurp Frickley Athletic 2nd XI from their current placing of second thanks to a 2-0 win at Wombwell Town.

Champions Sheffield hit road again

Fresh from securing the National 2 North title, Sheffield return to league action this weekend with a testing trip to Wharfedale, while Rotherham Titans and Sheffield Tigers both face matches with real consequences.

Sheffield travel to Wharfedale Avenue on Saturday for a 2pm kick-off, playing their first game since promotion was sealed with weeks of the season still to play. With the heavy lifting done, the focus now switches to standards, selection and how the champions finish the job.

Wharfedale sit seventh in the table after winning 11 and losing 12 of their 23 matches and remain a tough proposition on their own ground. Sheffield were convincing in the reverse fixture back in December, winning 38–13 at Abbeydale Park, but away trips to Wharfedale rarely come with any guarantees.

Pride will be on the line for the hosts, while Sheffield know that every result from here will be judged with next season firmly in mind as they prepare for life a level higher.

Rotherham Titans

have no such luxury when they welcome Rams to Clifton Lane in National One, with the title race still finely balanced. The Titans go into the weekend top of the table, but only a handful of points separate the leading pack as the season moves towards its climax.

Rams arrive in sixth place but carry a reputation for disrupting the league’s front-runners and were narrow winners when the sides met earlier in the campaign. With promotion still very much the prize, Rotherham will be desperate to protect home turf and keep control of their destiny.

Sheffield Tigers are also at home on Saturday as they host Fylde in National 2 North, with positions in the top half still up for grabs. Tigers sit eighth, just behind Fylde, and victory at Dore Moor would close that gap and provide momentum going into the final stretch.

The reverse fixture was tight, and Saturday’s meeting looks likely to follow suit, with Tigers keen to turn recent performances into points in front of their own supporters.

With champions playing free, contenders under pressure and positions still to be settled, it promises to be a significant weekend for South Yorkshire rugby.
