

LA ROU SSE

THE FINE FOOD
SPECIALISTS

WELCOME

INTRODUCTION

At La Rousse Foods we pride ourselves in offering the finest ingredients to chefs in the food service market since 1992. We are a 100% Irish owned company operating across the 32 counties of the island of Ireland. We are delighted to present the latest edition of our food book which showcases the quality and innovation of our supplier and producer network.

The Irish foodservice market is evolving rapidly driven by changing consumer demands and needs, our extended range of products has a particular focus on innovation, origin, and specialism.

La Rousse Foods are proud members of Origin Green and apply a strict sustainability and ethical lens when sourcing new products. We are committed to working with Irish producers who are specialists in producing some of the finest ingredients on offer:

Fiontain Goherty produces Wildwood Vinegars in Ballina, Co. Mayo using wild and foraged ingredients to flavour his tinctures. Kevin Wallace of New Leaf Urban Farm in Co. Limerick grows vegetables using natural and sustainable ancient Korean farming methods.

Inspired by the Swiss Alps, Teresa Roche produces Kylemore Abbey Cheese in the foothills of the Sliabh Aughty Mountains, Co. Galway using milk from the families' pedigree holstein fresian herd.

Niamh and Ruairi Dooley are a brother and sister team behind Bia Sol. This highly innovative, zero waste Irish company transform spent brewing grains to milled and whole grain ingredients that are highly nutritious and add a natural malted flavour to your recipes.

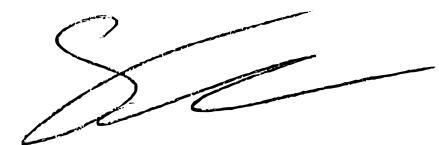

George and Hannah Finley are young farmers passionate about real, farm-fresh and local Irish food. Using milk from the sheep on Ballyhubbock farm they produce halloumi style cheese using traditional methods, seasonal ricotta from February to June and an exceptional sheeps milk ice cream.

Other Irish highlights in this edition include Calveys Achill Mountain Lamb, Dooncastle Oysters, Gold River Farm leaves, Taylors of Lusk vegetables and Garryhinch mushrooms.

For high quality specialist ingredients not easily found in Ireland we have an extensive network of producers that can source the best the market can offer.

Created for chefs, by chefs we offer specialist service in areas such as cheese, patisserie, chocolate, fine foods and butchery. Our specialists come from the heart of the industry and are inspired and driven by the finest produce on the market.

We regard our customers as the lifeblood of our organization and customer service at all levels is central to the La Rousse Foods culture. We are consistently seeking out new and innovative products to add to our portfolio. If our Brochure does not have the product that you are looking for, please do not hesitate to contact us. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our customers and suppliers for their continued support.
