44 Foxley Street

Introducing 44 Foxley Street, a visionary gem in the heart of Toronto's Trinity Bellwoods neighbourhood that stands as a testament to the future of urban living. This remarkable property transcends the ordinary, embodying avant-garde design and architectural brilliance that graces the pages of prestigious publications like Dwell magazine. Designed by the renowned and award-winning JA Architecture Studio and crafted by the equally esteemed Houyan Homes, this exceptional home pushes the boundaries of contemporary aesthetics and functional elegance.

Emanating an air of sophistication, this three-storey architectural marvel boasts curves and arches that flow throughout the home and features an impressive four bedrooms and six bathrooms. Each corner of the house has been meticulously designed to harmonize aesthetics and functionality, resulting in a living experience that rises high above the ordinary.

Stepping inside, you're greeted by a seamless fusion of open space and carefully curated finishes. Floor-to-ceiling windows on the main level usher in abundant natural light, illuminating the living spaces and highlighting the craftsmanship behind every detail. The heart of the home lies in the gourmet kitchen – a culinary haven equipped with top-of-the-line appliances, sleek countertops, and an abundance of storage for the avid home chef.

Ascending to the second level, you'll discover two well-appointed bedrooms, as well as the ideal children's bedroom or nursery, providing comfort and privacy for all. The second bedroom offers a seamless blend of sophistication and convenience, featuring a tranquil three-piece ensuite bathroom with heated stone tile flooring and a gleaming glass shower enclosure. Completing this level is a second full bathroom, also adorned with heated floors and a pristine glass shower enclosure.

With its arched windows and ceilings, the third-floor primary suite redefines opulence. Offering a private balcony, custom built-in closets to accommodate even the most extensive of wardrobes, an ensuite bathroom that rivals any spa, and a coffee station. The private primary suite terrace is the perfect finishing note for this incredible primary retreat.

But the allure of 44 Foxley Street doesn't end with the main house. The curves and arches of the main house transcend into one of the property's most unique features - the separate laneway house. A true gem in urban living and the future of our city. The main level of the laneway house combines a garage for secure parking, an office space designed for productivity, and a convenient powder room. Ascend to the upper level to discover a fully-appointed studio apartment with its own entrance – perfect for guests or as an income-generating rental.

Outside, the property's striking facade and arches are a conversation starter, with modern lines and timeless accents that are seamlessly integrated. The landscaped back garden offers an outdoor oasis and an extension of your living space, ideal for relaxation and entertainment.

Moreover, 44 Foxley Street could potentially be a catalyst for change in Toronto's housing landscape. With its innovative architectural design and the possibility of three self-contained units, this property could play a role in addressing the city's housing challenges. Offering a harmonious blend of aesthetics, functionality, and practicality, this residence presents a captivating opportunity to enhance not only streetscapes but also contribute positively to the housing ecosystem.

This intricately designed, technologically advanced masterpiece is more than just a home; it's a symbol of contemporary luxury and architectural brilliance. Don't miss the chance to own this extraordinary property in the heart of Toronto's trendiest neighbourhood, nestled between the renowned Dundas West and Queen West districts, both internationally recognized as cool and dynamic and steps from the Ossington Strip. Seize this opportunity to own a piece of architectural magnificence that holds the promise of a brighter, more innovative future for Toronto's housing landscape.
