

HONDO TAKES WACO, TEXAS

The Hondo EDC, along with the Hondo Area Chamber of Commerce and the City of Hondo, recently attended the Texas Downtown Conference in Waco, where community leaders from across the state gathered to share ideas and inspiration. Through informative sessions, engaging workshops, and valuable networking opportunities, our team brought back fresh insights and creative strategies to help strengthen and enhance Hondo's downtown and overall economic vitality. We're excited to put these new ideas into action as we continue working together to support local businesses, foster growth, and build an even more vibrant community.

Hosted by Texas Downtown, the conference features keynote presentations, breakout sessions, hands-on tours, and networking events that highlight best practices in design, placemaking, historic preservation, and economic development. It's a valuable opportunity for communities of all sizes to gain tools, inspiration, and connections that support long-term downtown success.
