MEALS

We understand the challenges of dining during unpredictable travel schedules. Most of our tours include daily breakfast, offering a mix of local and western cuisine, often buffet-style. In India, enjoy a flavorful blend of spices with moderate chili levels. Lunch and dinner are left free, allowing you to explore India's diverse culinary scene, with our recommendations for the best restaurants.

TRAINS IN INDIA

Train travel in India is comfortable, adventurous, and fun. We use air-conditioned chair cars for short trips, sleeper classes for overnight journeys, and include options like the high-speed Vande Bharat Express for added comfort. Onboard facilities are basic but clean, with both western and squat toilets. Some itineraries feature narrow-gauge toy trains for hill stations, while luxury trains offer a palace-on-wheels experience with modern amenities and heritage charm.

TRANSPORTATION

We offer diverse travel modes to enrich your holiday, including cars, SUVs, coaches, trains, rickshaws, cruises, camels, elephants, tongas, and planes, providing access to authentic and off-the-beaten-path destinations. Air-conditioned vehicles with private drivers (basic English-speaking) and local guides ensure comfort and insightful tours. Full-time escorting guides and private jets are available on request for a seamless experience.

TIPPING

Tipping in India can be challenging due to a lack of clear guidelines. Most hotels and restaurants now include a 10% service charge. If not included, a similar tip is appreciated. Hotel porters generally expect around INR 100, local tour guides INR 1000 per day, and Kerala boatmen INR 500. We recommend tipping drivers INR 500 per person per day at the end of your tour. Similar practices apply in Sri Lanka, Nepal, and Bhutan, where it is customary to tip waiters, porters, guides, and drivers.
