Fossils at the Cove

Rose liked getting a close look at fossils. While at home, she chose a zone on the map to scope out with her pals.

They're going to be stoked!

Rose rode to see her pals, Cole and Slone.

"There is a cave at a cove that's close by!"

Rose noted the kind of fossils they could find.

"I hope we find all of those fossils!" said Slone.

Rose, Cole, and Slone rode their bikes to the cove.

Before they went into the cave, Rose got out the rope and stakes from her bag.

"They'll help us find our way out, so we can go back home," said Rose.

Slone and Cole were close while Rose put the rope in the holes.

Rose saw lots of stones and spoke to Slone and Cole.

"I suppose this is a good spot to stop."

Cole made jokes as he placed cones to track the spots they'd checked. Slone picked up many stones and hoped to expose a fossil, but no luck.

Rose got a big rock. She poked and whacked it until it broke.

Once the rock broke open, a fossil was exposed!

The kids froze. They all spoke out at once.

"A critter!"

"I hope my dad will be home to see this!" said Rose.

When Rose got home, Dad saw the critter in the stone.

"Amazing! You know, I think you'll travel to many places on the globe and find a whole lot of fossils."

"I hope I find lots of bones!" said Rose.

1. Review Phonics Skill with Spanish Connection
Say: Today, we will practice reading words with the /b/ sound spelled with ll 'hope'. Remember, when a word has one vowel, one consonant, then e at the long and the e is silent. In Spanish, the sound spelled with the letter o is /o/ sound in English words. In English, we also spell /b/ in other ways, including buena.
