About Bay View

Bay View was founded in 1875 by Michigan Methodists as a camp meeting “for intellectual and scientific culture and the promotion of the cause of religion and morality.” What began as a gathering for revival and spiritual renewal soon grew into something more; a place where faith, learning, and community could flourish together.

From the beginning, Bay View was shaped by Methodist clergy and laity and supported by congregations across Michigan. Even in its earliest days, Bay View has always been place of welcome. People of all denominations were invited to take part in a shared purpose: to nurture spiritual growth, encourage thoughtful inquiry, and build a community grounded in both faith and learning.

Within its first decade, Bay View expanded beyond its camp meeting roots to embrace a broader vision. By the late 1880s, it had become a pioneering center for public education, offering an ambitious summer university, a home study program reaching learners across the country, and a Chautauqua series that drew thousands by steamboat, train, and eventually automobile, to its lakeside setting.

At the same time, the early “tent city” began to take shape as a seasonal community, evolving into the place we know today, one of such historic and architectural significance that Bay View has been designated a National Historic Landmark.

Through each season of growth and change, Bay View has remained rooted in the principles established by its Methodist founders: a commitment to spiritual life, intellectual curiosity, and the enrichment of the human experience.

Today, that legacy continues. Bay View remains a place to gather, to learn, to worship, and to connect, carrying forward a tradition that has endured for generations. We welcome all who are curious and seek to learn and grow.

Bay View’s Mission

Bay View’s Mission

To be an institution in which Christian values<sup>1</sup> and traditions are central; to enrich the human experience for individuals and families within Bay View and the surrounding community through a seasonal program of religious, educational, cultural, and recreational opportunities; to provide a Christian perspective in a changing world.

<sup>1</sup>such as love, faith, grace, hope, respect, hospitality, and service to others

Why Bay View Statement:

As a community, we pursue truth, knowledge, beauty, faith, and vitality in all their forms to enhance the human experience.

Bay View Brand Statement:

Open to all, Bay View is a welcoming place to experience a summer that transforms the mind, body and soul.

Founded in 1875 with roots in the Methodist camp meeting and Chautauqua movements<sup>2</sup>, the Bay View Association is a summer community on the shores of Lake Michigan. Its founders sought a place to pursue truth, knowledge, beauty, faith and vitality in all their forms for the enhancement of the human experience. Designated as a National Historic Landmark, Bay View is recognized for its members’ stewardship of Victorian architecture, natural setting and robust summer assembly program.

The Bay View mission lives on through its four program areas: Education, Performing Arts, Recreation, and Worship & Religious Life. Bay View promotes values and principles that strengthen its multi-generational community, such as open communication, volunteerism, faith, love, respect, and hospitality.

The Bay View Assembly Program Today

Today, Bay View's Assembly program consists of four program areas: Education, Performing Arts, Recreation, and Worship and Religious Life.

- The Education program inspires lifelong learners through a variety of classes and special guest lecturers in such fields as culinary arts, fine arts and crafts, health and wellness, expanding knowledge, and kids' classes. Scheduled to be sensitive to a busy lifestyle, some of the courses meet only once for a couple of hours, while others may meet for three or four sessions.
- With one of the oldest continuously operating chamber music festivals in the United States, the Performing Arts program offers exhilarating musical productions including multiple weekly concerts, choir, an opera, and a musical.
- The Recreation Program provides outdoor fun for all ages including boat rentals, tennis, and pickleball lessons, and youth programming where mornings are filled with games and crafts and afternoons with swim lessons and an option to add sailing and tennis lessons.
- The Worship and Religious Life program broadens and deepens spirituality through outstanding preachers from different denominations, weekly Communion, Sunday School classes for all ages, and monthly Friday Evensong services.

Additional activities and details can be found in this book or via our website at www.BayViewAssociation.org or www.BVEvents.org

Week 1 - June 14 - 18: Rev. Hendree Harrison

The Reverend G. Hendree Harrison, Jr. has served as rector of The Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Lexington, Kentucky, since 2018. A fifth-generation Episcopal priest, Father Harrison brings deep roots in spiritual formation and contemplative practice to his ministry. He completed both his undergraduate and seminary studies at Sewanee: The University of the South, and is a graduate of the Living School at the Center for Action and Contemplation, where he studied contemplative Christianity under Richard Rohr.

Before coming to Good Shepherd, Father Harrison served for three years at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Dalton in his home state of Georgia and then for twelve years as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Athens, Tennessee, where he co-founded the Grace House, a shelter and recovery program for men experiencing homelessness due to addiction. He has been a leader in diocesan ministry, serving a decade as chair of the Commission on Ministry in the Diocese of East Tennessee and two years as president of the Standing Committee in the Diocese of Lexington.

A devoted practitioner of Centering Prayer, Father Harrison is known for his exploration of the contemplative dimension of the Gospel with a special emphasis on the Christian mystics and his commitment to creating inclusive, welcoming communities of faith. ### Week 2 - June 21 - 25: Father Michael Renninger

Father Michael A. Renninger serves as pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Richmond, Virginia. Born and raised in Pennsylvania, Fr. Michael completed his theological education at the Catholic University of America and was ordained in 1993. His preaching combines theological depth with accessibility, addressing contemporary challenges through the lens of faith.

Throughout his ministry, Fr. Renninger has been active in diocesan leadership and social ministry initiatives, speaking at conferences and retreats throughout the region. His pastoral approach emphasizes accompaniment, meeting people where they are in their spiritual journeys while calling them toward deeper relationship with Christ and service to others. Father Renninger's leadership has been marked by his ability to build vibrant parish communities centered on worship, formation, and mission. He has been a featured speaker at the Bay View and Lakeside communities, and he is grateful for the opportunity to return to Bay View in 2026!

Week 3 - June 28 - July 2: Dr. Charles Marsh

Charles Marsh is the Commonwealth Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Virginia and director of the Project on Lived Theology.

His biography Strange Glory: A Life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer (2014) was shortlisted for the PEN/Jacqueline Bograd Weld Award and received the Christianity Today Book Award.

The book offers an intimate and deeply researched portrait of the German theologian and resistor, drawing on extensive archival discoveries. Marsh's earlier work God's Long Summer: Stories of Faith and Civil Rights (1997) won the Louisville Grawemeyer Award in Religion and remains a touchstone in studies of religion and the American freedom struggle.

Marsh has been honored with a Guggenheim Fellowship and the Ellen Maria Gorrissen Berlin Prize at the American Academy in Berlin. He has also served as the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Visiting Professor at Humboldt University in Berlin.

In both his scholarship and his leadership of the Project on Lived Theology, Marsh explores how religious conviction shapes moral imagination, civic courage, and social transformation. His recent work includes Evangelical Anxiety: A Memoir (HarperOne, 2022), which weaves theological reflection with personal narrative to consider the demands—and promises—of telling the truth about one's life. Across theology, biography, and cultural criticism, Marsh's writing attends to the concrete, lived dimensions of faith in history and in our own unsettled times.

His recent works include American Democratic Socialism: History, Politics, Religion, and Theory (2021) and A Darkly Radiant Vision: The Black Social Gospel in the Shadow of MLK (2023).

Dorrien's book, Kantian Reason and Hegelian Spirit, won the prestigious PROSE Award, and three of his books have won the Association of American Publishers Award. He recently published a memoir, Over from Union Road: My Christian-Left-Intellectual Life (2024).

Week 6 - July 19 - 23: Father Gregory Boyle

Father Gregory Boyle, a Jesuit priest, is the founder of Homeboy Industries in Los Angeles, the largest gang-intervention, rehabilitation, and re-entry program in the world.

Born and raised in Los Angeles and Jesuit priest, from 1986 to 1992 Fr. Boyle served as pastor of Dolores Mission Church in Boyle Heights. Dolores Mission was the poorest Catholic parish in Los Angeles that also had the highest concentration of gang activity in the city.

Fr. Boyle witnessed the devastating impact of gang violence on his community during the so-called “decade of death” that began in the late 1980s and peaked at 1,000 gang-related killings in 1992. In the face of law enforcement tactics and criminal justice policies of suppression and mass incarceration as the means to end gang violence, he and parish and community members adopted what was a radical approach at the time: treat gang members as human beings.

In 1988 they started what would eventually become Homeboy Industries, which employs and trains former gang members in a range of social enterprises, as well as provides critical services to thousands of individuals who walk through its doors every year seeking a better life.

Fr. Boyle is the author of the 2010 New York Times-bestseller Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion. Followed by Barking to the Choir: The Power of Radical Kinship (2017) and The Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness (2021). His most recent work is Cherished Belonging: The Healing Power of Love in Divided Times (2024).

He has received the California Peace Prize and has been inducted into the California Hall of Fame. In 2014, President Obama named Fr. Boyle a Champion of Change. He received the University of Notre Dame’s 2017 Laetare Medal, the oldest honor given to American Catholics. Homeboy Industries was the recipient of the 2020 Hilton Humanitarian Prize validating 32 years of Fr. Greg Boyle’s vision and work by the organization for over three decades. Most recently he was one of the recipients of the 2024 Presidential Medal of Freedom, the United States’ highest civilian honor.

Sponsored in part by the Bailey, Edman, Jones Lecture Endowment, by your generous contributions to the Worship program, and thanks to Christine and Wally Lynch, the Howard Family, George Family, Howell Family, and de Koning Family.

BRIDGES: CROSSING CULTURAL DIVIDES

WHAT BOYS AND YOUNG MEN NEED TO THRIVE

featuring ERICA KOMISAR, LCSW

Tuesday, July 14 | FREE Admission

Keynote Address: 7:30 p.m. in Hall Auditorium

Many educators, parents, and mental health professionals have begun asking questions about the challenges facing boys and young men today - from declining academic engagement to rising concerns about mental health and purpose. In this lecture, Erika Komisar, psychoanalyst, author, and licensed clinical social worker, explores what some researchers have called the “boy crisis,” examining how developmental needs, family life, education, and cultural expectations may shape young men’s sense of identity and well-being.

Drawing on decades of clinical experience working with children and parents, Komisar considers how parents, schools, and communities can better support boys’ and young men’s emotional development, resilience, and healthy pathways into adulthood.

Erica Komisar, LCSW, specializes in treating individuals struggling with depression, anxiety, eating disorders, and compulsive behaviors, while also helping parents navigate the emotional demands of raising healthy, resilient children. She is a graduate of Georgetown and Columbia Universities and the New York Freudian Society. Erica is also a regular contributor to The Wall Street Journal and has been a guest on major media platforms, including CBS, ABC, and Fox News. She is the author of two best-selling books: Being There: Why Prioritizing Motherhood in the First Three Years Matters and Chicken Little: The Sky Isn't Falling: Raising Resilient Adolescents in the New Age of Anxiety.

The 19th Century Evolution of Football

This is the fascinating story of how class rivalry, economics, education, religion, the industrial revolution, and a few critical rules affected the various forms of football popular today. For many centuries people in societies all around the world engaged in activities that might be considered the forerunners of the various football games popular today. While it is true that people engaged in some form of competitions involving two teams, a ball and goals, the modern games of soccer, rugby and American Football evolved in Great Britain in the last half of the 19th Century. They sprang from the various forms of "folk football" that had been played in Britain for nearly 1000 years. The games we are familiar with were ultimately created, however, over a few years by young men affiliated with a handful of elite schools in England and the United States.

Benedict Arnold: The Hero Who Became the Great American Traitor

Benedict Arnold is a well-known villain in American History... a traitor of the highest order. He not only conspired to turn over the important American forts at West Point over to the British, Arnold also plotted to have his greatest supporter, George Washington, captured by the British. Despicable though these acts were, Arnold, up until that point, had been one of the great American heroes of the Revolution. He had demonstrated incredible personal courage, and leadership as well as tactical and strategic brilliance in a number of campaigns. A descendant of old stock Puritans, Arnold was regarded by the British and George Washington as the most capable battlefield commander in the American army. His fall was a Shakespearian tragedy of the highest order, but it also reflected a little-appreciated dark phase of the American War for Independence.

Women in Islam: Text and Context $65/$55

11:30 a.m. - 1:15 p.m. Wednesdays

June 17 - August 5 (8 sessions)

Loud Hall Rm. 13 *Jamila Boulima

Women's status in Islam is unveiled via a two-fold approach: textual (Qur'an; Hadith; Sunnah) and contextual (socio-cultural and ideological constructs and institutions established throughout history). A once liberating and enlightening faith evolves in misogyny and oppressing cultural traditions: women's veil, seclusion, subordination, and submission; Shari'a favoring men: child brides; obedience; sexuality; polygyny; domestic violence; divorce; inheritance; male guardianship; testimony. What do Islamic sacred texts say about these themes? We contextualize these themes within their own time's geopolitics, exploring their historical roots and evolution from the zenith of Islam through modern western imperialism to modern and contemporary projects of Islamic reform/modernity. **Suggested readings: (1) Women and Gender in Islam, Leila Ahmed, Veritas Paper Edition (2021), Yale University Press; (2) Nine Parts of Desire: The Hidden World of Islamic Women, Geraldine Brooks. Jamila Boulima, Ph.D., Linguistics; professor for 35 years in Education, Morocco; lifelong passion for discussing Islam; B.A. degree thesis: "Islam and the Concept of Progress" in 1982.

THEME WEEK: CELEBRATING 250 YEARS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The 19th Century Evolution of Football $15/$10

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Tues., June 30
Voorhies Hall Jim Craft

This is the fascinating story of how class rivalry, economics, education, religion, the industrial revolution, and a few critical rules affected the various forms of football popular today. For many centuries people in societies all around the world engaged in activities that might be considered the forerunners of the various football games popular today. While it is true that people engaged in some form of a competitions involving two teams, a ball and goals, the modern games of soccer, rugby and American Football evolved in Great Britain in the last half of the 19th Century. They sprang from the various forms of "folk football" that had been played in Britain for nearly 1000 years. The games we are familiar with were ultimately created, however, over a few years by young men affiliated with a handful of elite schools in England and the United States.

Benedict Arnold: The Hero Who Became the Great American Traitor $15/$10

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Weds., July 1
Voorhies Hall Jim Craft

Benedict Arnold is a well-known villain in American History... a traitor of the highest order. He not only conspired to turn over the important American forts at West Point over to the British, Arnold also plotted to have his greatest supporter, George Washington, captured by the British. Despicable though these acts were, Arnold, up until that point, had been one of the great American heroes of the Revolution. He had demonstrated incredible personal courage, leadership as well as tactical and strategic brilliance in a number of campaigns. A descendant of old stock Puritans, Arnold was regarded by the British and George Washington as the most capable battlefield commander in the American army. His fall was a Shakespearian tragedy of the highest order. But it also reflected a little appreciated dark phase of the American War for Independence.

NATIONAL BANK

318 East Mitchell Street, Petoskey, MI

Real Rewards Checking (Real Rewards) is available for consumer deposits only. Annual Percentage Yield (“APY”) is accurate as of 3/1/2025. Real Rewards is a variable rate account. Your APY may change at any time after your account is opened, at the discretion of Nicolet National Bank. Real Rewards is a tiered rate product. If qualifications are met for the qualification cycle, Tier 1: The portion of your balance that is equal to or less than $25,000 will earn 3.00% APY. Tier 2: The portion of your balance that is over $25,000 will earn APY in the range of 0.61% to 3.00%, depending on the balance in your account. If qualifications are not met for the qualification cycle, your entire balance will earn APY in the range of 0.03% to 0.15%, depending on the balance in your account. You must enroll in online banking and e-statements in order to qualify. Transactions required each qualification cycle: At least ten posted and cleared debit card transactions (ATM-processed transactions do not count as qualifying debit card transactions), and at least one posted and cleared direct deposit of payroll or social security. Disclosed APY assumes all interest remains on deposit. Fees and withdrawals of interest will reduce earnings and APY. All Nicolet National Bank checking accounts are subject to credit approval. Additional terms and conditions apply. See Nicoletbank.com for details. Member FDIC.
