Why Provence?

Provence holds ancient sacred springs, weaved in Celtic roots, and powerful elemental forces.
This is not just a location, it is a living ally.

Check why here

Her arrival in Provence was guided and woven through time, so she could bring her wisdom to this sacred land, offered here in an exclusive, intimate circle for direct transmission.

These are sacred times.

Grandmother Láné Sáan Moonwalker

Láné Sáan Moonwalker, one of the 13 Grandmothers of the Americas, has been an oracle, healer, spiritual teacher and environmental guardian for close to 55 years.

She began her training in the healing arts at the age of 12 from friends and family members who were highly skilled curanderas (traditional practitioners who combine Native, Catholic, and African spiritual beliefs and practices).

In 1987, she met her main teacher Tu Moonwalker, an Apache, the great great granddaughter of Cochise through his son Naiche, and Naiche's daughter Doraté Moonwalker. This lineage is about a medicine way of Being. Tu was the holder of this unbroken Moonwalker lineage and Láné is an acknowledged part of that lineage. She herself is from an unbroken lineage through her Yoeme grandmother. Working with Tu helped Láné manifest her vision to train teachers, healers, oracles, and leaders in their own right. Together Tu and Láné founded the Philosophy of Universal Beingness within the Whole.

The foundation of this system is about working with nature in a sacred way. Both Tu and Láné understood that if you don't take care of the Earth there is no basis for anything else. Láné Sáan Moonwalker is also internationally recognized and has traveled to Japan, New Zealand, Costa Rica, Canada, Mexico, and throughout the United States as part of her work.

She sits on the International Council of Elders for the Aniwa Gathering. Láné holds a degree in humanities and the visual arts from the University of Colorado. She has been a licensed minister for more than thirty-eight years, and is a Reverend Canon in the Brigade of Light.

Hom' Eh, the Mother we all share, is calling

As we step into the retreat, we will release separation and remember how to listen deeply to the land and Her whispers.

In this retreat, we will cultivate an intimate relationship with the rainbow. We will learn practices for clearing, protection, boundaries, and receive its guidance as a living ally.

“When we work with the Rainbow in a sacred way, Nature and we heal.”

Grandmother Láné Saán Moonwalker

This is the year to shift paradigms and reclaim our innate bonds to the natural world and its web of life.

A message from GrandMother

Humans have worked with the rainbow as long as we can remember.

It has inspired us, guided us and enabled us to live rich and fulfilling lives.

It has both practical and spiritual value for us.

In the Hindu system there is the understanding of the chakras which represent the rainbow.

In the Buddhist tradition they speak of the Rainbow body, and honour Rainbow with their prayer flags.

In the Abrahamic tradition, Noah was guided by the rainbow at the end of the flood.

For the Indigenous peoples of the Americas it is guide, alliance and Guardian. It is the Rainbow that bridges from Sacred Spirit and the physical.

During this retreat we will dedicate our time with developing an intimate relationship with the Rainbow.

We'll do practices for personal clearing, boundary setting, and shielding.

We will learn how to communicate with it as a guide and guardian.

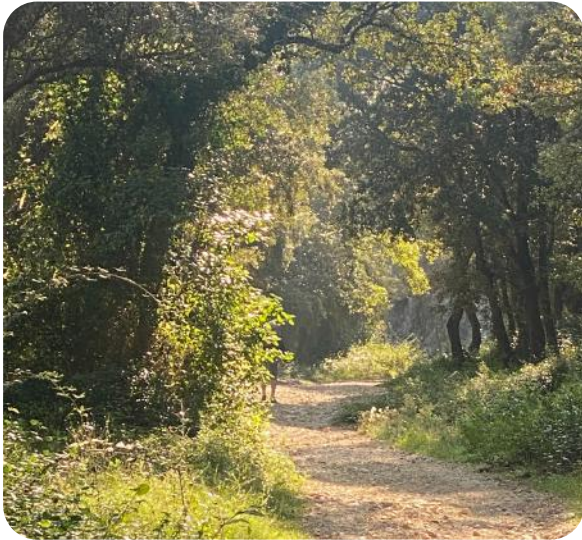

We will also explore its healing properties.

At the end of our retreat, we will have a sacred Cacao ceremony called a Plactica.

This comes from the traditions of Grandmother Láné Saán's lineage where there is a deep heart felt conversation about all that we have experienced, while sharing Cacao with each other.

In Other words.... Until very recently, these practices were woven into daily life.
This retreat invites you to reconnect with them.

Is this spiritual?

It is about remembering how to live as a human being in relationship with Earth. This is why you can join even if you don't have a spiritual practice.

Working with Nature as a Living Intelligence

Nature is Beautiful, it is alive, intelligent and guiding.

The retreat is about learning to listen to the natural world as a teacher, so we can support each other to thrive and transform this era.

The Rainbow as a Guide

The Rainbow is:

- a Guardian
- a guide
- a way to understand life

It is a symbolic language for how we can reconnect with the natural world, in all its beauty, colours and energies.

G L O S S A R Y

Sacred Terminology	Explanation
Rainbow Wisdom	Understanding life as connected, multi-layered, balanced and wholeness.
Alliance with the Rainbow	Building a relationship with nature as a guide and guardian.
Boundary Setting / Shielding	Learning how to protect your energy and feel safe in the world.
Clearing	Releasing blockages in your body, mind or spirit.
Ceremony	A structured practice that enables the mind and body to shift into a deeper state of awareness.
Spirit Walk	A mindful walk in nature, intentional listening and connecting to the land.
Plática (Cacao Ceremony)	A heartfelt sharing circle with cacao, where participants reflect on their experience and support each other.

Why is this relevant to everyone?

Because we inhabit Earth in human bodies — and their very physiology

- We are all connected to the Earth.
- Our bodies are built to respond to nature.
- Our nervous systems need grounding.
- We all need boundaries to feel safe.
- We all need community and belonging.

The retreat is a simple yet profound way to relearn a true relationship with Nature in a held, guided, sacred space, and to bring it back home, ready to be shared.

More than ever, the world needs us to remember how to be human, to dive deep and re-member that we are Earth in human form.

Meet Your Host

Agathe Lazaro

I stand at the threshold of this land.

I grew up in this house and was shaped by its breath long before I understood its power. My path later took me across the world, to India, Australia, and New Mexico, in search of who I always was. Everything eventually led me back here.

Two years ago, the land claimed me back, not to create something new, but to listen more deeply to what was already alive, connected, and carrying a deep urge to be shared.

This retreat is not something I host. It is something I propose to you as the Guardian of the Land.

The house and land are not just a magnificent background. There is a living presence.

As its guardian, to invite you to be held by its grace, its beauty, and its ancient force.

I thrive when weaving harmony between the people, the house, the food, the light, the scents, the silences, and the unseen details that shape how we feel and open us fully. This retreat 's invitation is already a pure delight.

Nothing here is accidental.

This first retreat is a Rare
Convergence

Grandmother Láné Sáan
Moonwalker's arrival in Provence was guided and unexpected, woven through timing, land, and lineage.

To sit with her here, in close proximity, allows for direct transmission of living wisdom - Living Wisdom that is seldom shared in such intimacy.

To invite this meeting, between land, lineage, and people, is my honour.

If you are here, something in you already knows.

You are welcome.

Agathe

Frequently Asked Questions

Is this for me?

Yes, if you feel drawn to nature, ceremony, and deeper connection.

This retreat is for those ready to step into their own wisdom, strengthen their energetic boundaries, and open to the guidance of the Rainbow, all in a small, intimate setting with Grandmother Moonwalker.

How can I best plan my travel?

We recommend arriving at Marseille Airport, where we will pick up the group on the day of arrival.

You are also welcome to arrive earlier and spend a few days exploring Marseille if you wish.

Alternatively, you can take the train from Paris (Gare de Lyon) to Avignon TGV. From Avignon, we can arrange a taxi transfer, or you may organize your own transport.

Does Le Mas Méjean adhere to U.S. ADA standards

This journey takes place in an 18th-century mansion.

Due to its historic architecture, the property does not meet ADA standards and includes a steep, original stone staircase.

Will I have my own room?

Accommodation during the retreat is shared and limited to 10 participants staying in the house, allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

If sharing a room does not feel right for you, you are very welcome to arrange accommodation in nearby lodging and join us fully for the retreat experience.

What is the payment policy?

A 20% deposit secures your place and is non refundable..

Payment can be made in three installments, with full balance due 90 days before the retreat.

Frequently Asked Questions

What should I bring?

Comfortable clothing for movement, layers for changing weather, a water bottle, and a journal.

A detailed packing list will be provided upon registration.

Is food included?

Our home chef curates seasonal, traditional Provençale family cuisine using produce from the land and the season. Every meal is crafted to inspire your senses and becomes the highlight of your day. Dinners are available only for residents, except for our welcome dinner and the end-of-retreat dinner.

Can I attend if I'm not spiritual?

Yes. This retreat welcomes anyone open to self-discovery, nature, and deeper presence.

You don't need to identify as spiritual to join. We are all connected to the earth and its energetic field simply by being human. This is not about belief—it is a plain, natural fact.

Is there Wi-Fi?

Yes, but we encourage minimal use to support presence and quiet.

Can I smoke or drink alcohol?

We recommend avoiding alcohol and smoking during the retreat to support clarity and integration. We might enjoy some good Organic regional wine for our last festive dinner where all will be invited.
