A HIVE OF ISLAMIC KNOWLEDGE

Note: The content of this book is based on the Qur'an, Hadith, and Islamic texts that have been written, verified, and approved by three scholars.

Allah is the Creator of all things.

Allah created the seven heavens, one above
the other.

Allah created the sun,
which shines so brightly.

Allah created the moon that shines at night.

Allah created the stars that twinkle high.

Allah created the earth on which you and I live.

Allah created the angels out of light. They praise Allah day and night.

Allah created the jinn
from fire, some righteous and some evil.

Allah created all of us, both girls and boys.

Allah created wild
animals such as monkeys,
elephants, giraffes,
and tigers.

Allah created domestic animals such as cats,
goats, cows, and rabbits.

Allah created fish in the water, large and small, red, white, and blue.

Allah created birds with feathers, all of which fly, such
as peacocks, doves,
and eagles.

Allah created trees,
small and large, with leaves, flowers, and tasty fruits.

Allah created strong mountains, some low
and some high.

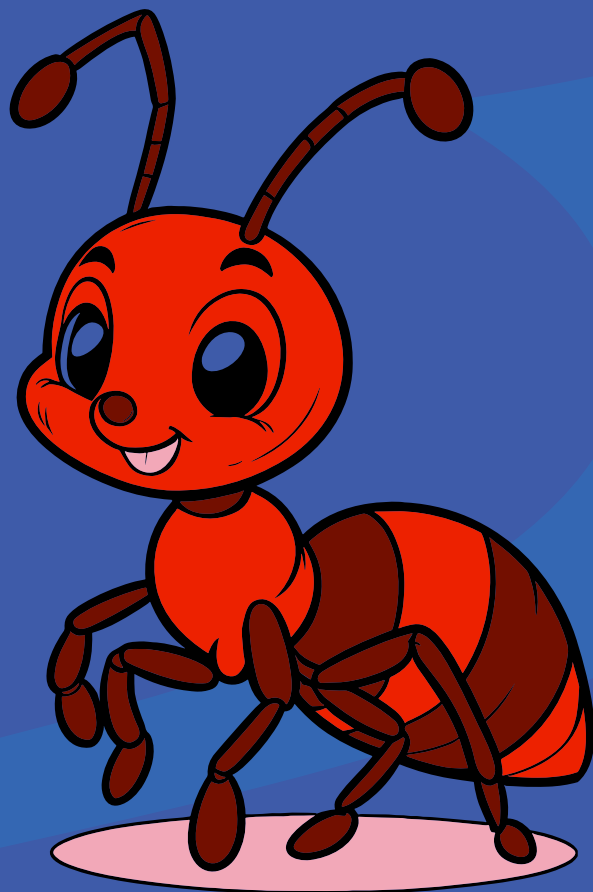

Allah created seas
with roaring waves
and rivers flowing here and there.

Allah created reptiles, some of which crawl on their bellies and others walk on their feet.

Allah created insects,
tiny but numerous, like
ants, cockroaches,
and bugs.

From the vastness of space to the smallest flea, everything
has been created by Allah alone.

Let us believe in Allah, the Creator of all things, and worship
Him alone.
