WELCOME

Acknowledgement of Country

Blackwood River Arts Trail Inc. acknowledge the Wardandi and Bibbulmun people as the native title holders of the lands and waters in and around the Trail locale. We pay respect to the Elders past, present and emerging of the Wardandi and Bibbulmun people and extend that respect to all First Nations People living within the region.

From Blackwood River Arts Trail Inc.

Experience the magic of BRAT 2025!

This year's trail promises to be our best yet, showcasing the incredible creativity of our talented regular artists alongside an exciting lineup of fresh new talents. Across the Blackwood region, you'll discover inspiring works in studios, galleries, and unique spaces, all reflecting the heart and soul of our artistic community.

The Blackwood River Film Festival continues this year with screenings in Nannup, Bridgetown, and Balingup, featuring nine new short films and two feature films, along with a chance to revisit short films from previous years. It's a fantastic opportunity to catch up on past favorites and experience fresh storytelling from talented filmmakers.

A heartfelt thank you to our dedicated committee, volunteers, artists, venues, sponsors, and supporters—your passion and hard work make this event possible.

Join us as we celebrate the arts, culture, and creativity that make our region so special. We can't wait to share this experience with you!

Melinda Stephens

Chairperson, Blackwood River Arts Trail

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR ART TRAIL EXPERIENCE

PLAN AHEAD

Take a moment to browse through this brochure and plan your journey along the art trail. The Blackwood River Arts Trail spans a large area, so mapping out your highlights in advance will help you enjoy the experience at a relaxed pace. To assist, we've created an interactive Google map showcasing the location of each artist.

You can find this map by visiting: www.blackwoodriverartstrail.com

BE ADVENTUROUS

While most artists are conveniently located in town centres, why not take a drive to discover those a little bit off the beaten track. You might discover something truly special!

For more information about our artists and to explore their work before setting out, visit our website at: www.blackwoodriverartstrail.com

WHILE AT THE STUDIOS

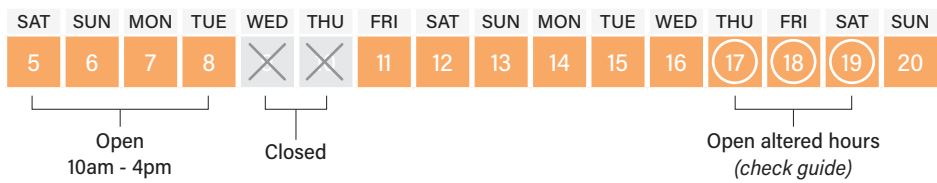

Our artists are excited to welcome you into their studios. To ensure an enjoyable experience for everyone, we kindly ask that you supervise children and pets during your visit.

Please request permission before photographing any artworks. Similarly, some photography may take place during the event for promotional purposes, so if you prefer not to be photographed, please inform the photographer directly.

And most importantly, don't hesitate to ask questions! Our artists love sharing their passion for art and are always up for a friendly chat.

OPENING DATES AND TIMES

Please note that venues may be closed or unavailable due to unforeseen circumstances. We recommend calling ahead to confirm details if you are unsure.

22. THINGSweMAKE | Painting | Printmaking | Ceramics

Melinda Stephens

Melinda Stephens' work draws inspiration from "the space between"—the quiet, evocative moments found in the landscapes of Western Australia's Southwest. This concept reflects the delicate transitions between light and trees, earth and sky, creating an intimate moment between artwork and viewer evoking a sense of reminiscence. She explores the beauty of the liminal spaces, where light and shadow, stillness and movement converge, capturing their fleeting beauty.

Christine Latham

Christine Latham is a professional visual storyteller of Yamatji/Caucasian descent. She begins most of her artworks with a visual recording/sketch on country where she experiences her initial, emotional response. This is also where she regains and learns indigenous culture, lost until the age of 35, due to The Stolen Generation.

The Rotary Tour of the Blackwood 22 March 2025

All funds raised will go towards Mental Health in the Blackwood region. The major recipient is the Blackwood Youth Action and the Bridgetown Greenbushes Suicide Prevention Network.

The Rotary Tour of the Blackwood is one of the most challenging rides in Western Australia.

Starting by the banks of the mighty Blackwood River, the Full Tour meanders some 130km through stunning countryside between beautiful Bridgetown and the magical townsites of Balingup and Nannup, and features over 2000m of climbing including a Category 4 ascent toward the finish line. The beautiful Half n Best 65km and the Not-So-Cozy 30km courses are great fun too!

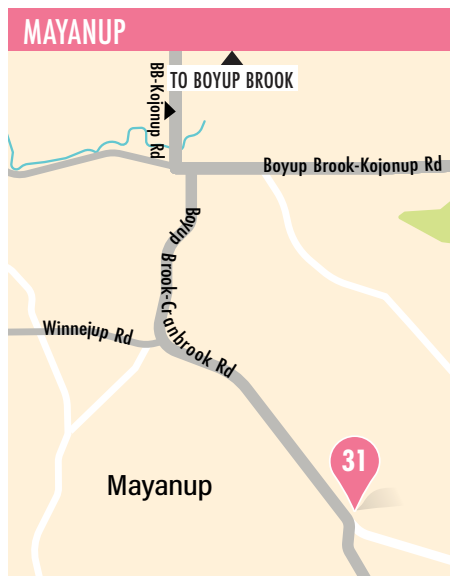

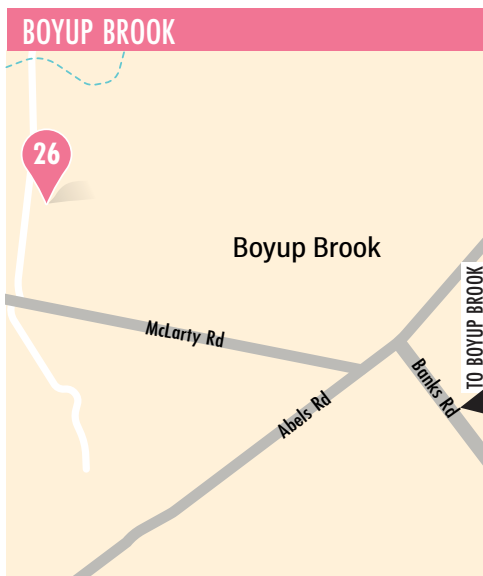

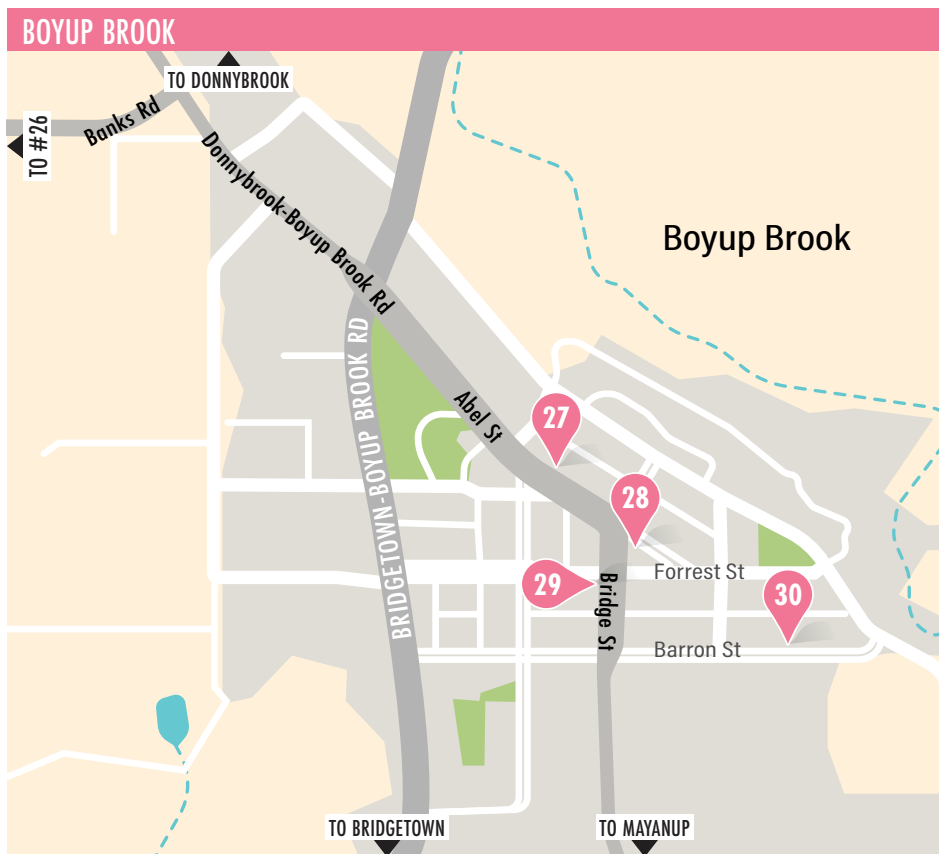

A NEW Gravel Experience Ride of 80kms has also been added this year.
