Diversity

What Our Clients Expect

We invest in our people so that each individual can truly succeed. This investment makes us a better firm and equips us to meet the needs of today's clients.

When legal teams reflect the diversity of the organizations they represent, outside attorneys can seamlessly integrate with general counsel and legal executives to tackle the challenges they face. We applaud our clients' commitments and join them in pursuing the goals we share.

Our commitment to serving others defines who we are as a firm.

Community Service

Founded in 1988, Adams & Reese's HUGS (Hope, Understanding, Giving, and Support) program embodies our emphasis on giving back. Through HUGS, attorneys and staff across our 20 offices donate time to more than 100 charitable organizations in various philanthropic projects.

Pro Bono

CA&RE (Caring Adams & Reese Employees) promotes opportunities for Adams & Reese attorneys to provide excellent legal service to clients and nonprofit organizations who cannot afford representation. We live out our commitment to service by requiring attorneys to dedicate at least 20 hours of pro bono work to those in need within our communities.
