

Oxford Aunts
HOME CARE SPECIALISTS

Work as an hourly carer with Oxford Aunts

With guaranteed pay contracts offering excellent rates and ongoing support, Oxford Aunts will 'take care of everything'.

Sue's home is full of happy memories.

As an hourly carer you'll help her make more. And whilst you take care of your clients, we'll take care of everything to make sure you're supported and rewarded for everything you do.

If you are looking for a rewarding hourly care role that gives you flexibility to fit around your family and lifestyle, this could be for you. It's desirable you have at least six months care experience and a driving licence with access to your own vehicle to get to our clients. However, if you do not, we would still love to hear from you.

Working as an hourly carer at Oxford Aunts

Since 1967 we've dedicated our life's work to helping people stay in the home they love. Located in the heart of Oxford, our reputation is built on high standards of care that are trusted by families throughout our local community and beyond.

Join us and you'll discover how our community of colleagues are always there for each other. Working in our clients homes you'll provide tailored support and companionship to our clients in Oxfordshire who wish to live an independent life in their own homes. This will include providing personal care, assisting with household duties, supporting safe mobility in and outside of the home, companionship and running general errands, such as completing the weekly shop or collecting prescriptions.
