FIREBRAND BREWING CO. CORNWALL

Firebrand was forged in 2012 in a converted milking parlour on the untamed edge of Bodmin Moor, North Cornwall. CRAFTY MONKEY BREWING CO. HARTLEPOOL

Pat and Gary worked together on Teesside for over 30 years. Keen home brewers, but frustrated at the quality of the home brew kits, they started to do some proper all-grain brews which resulted in far superior results. Motivated by the increased quality and, following encouragement from family, friends and ale enthusiasts, they started to experiment with recipes. Eighteen months of hard work and loving restoration of the farm outbuildings resulted in the completion of the Crafty Monkey Brewery.

STOUT 'N' ABOUT

A balance of roasted malts & chocolate malts with a smooth, creamy body.

NEW GOLD DREAM

A supremely smooth and drinkable golden bitter. Rich malts and British hops help this golden beer to shine.

BLONDE, JAMES BLONDE

This undercover blonde delivers a smooth, easy-drinking mission with a twist of stone fruit.

REWARD IPA

GREY TREES ABERDARE

The name, Grey Trees, comes from the English translation of the village where the brewery was born, Llwydcoed. Llwydcoed is a beautiful village in Aberdare, South Wales. After a successful first few years, they moved the brewery to a larger premises, breathing new life into an old industrial unit. Although their location changed, everything involved in making the very best crafted ales stayed the same, even the local fresh Welsh water source.

DIGGER'S GOLD

A big hit of citrus takes the lead, with subtle hints of blueberry sneaking through.

DRUMMER BOY

A bitter with fruity notes of blackcurrant, followed by rich, malty caramels to round out the experience.

INTO THE VALLEY

Floral citrus notes lead the way, finishing with a mild bitterness that keeps you coming back for more.

AFGHAN PALE ALE

Fruity berry notes take centre stage, perfectly complemented by a smooth caramel finish.
