Material Advice

Terracotta pots are made from natural, porous clay.

This porous material means that moisture is released from the plant more quickly, which prevents overwatering and soggy soil. For the most part, this is quite advantageous because overwatering is the most common cause of unhealthy or dying plants. However, some plants prefer their soil to be moist all the time

5 Step Guide: Pond in a pot

Step 1: Pick a Watertight Container. No drainage holes allowed.

Step 2: Take an upside pot or a raiser. We need something to raise up your potted plants, this could even be bricks.

Step 3: Shallow water / Marginal plants. Some great options: Butomus umbellatus, Hornwort, Pennywort or Juncus Effusus (soft rush).. Or even better pick up a Pond Plant Collection (see below)

Step 4: Add Water. Rain water works great, check periodically as water evaporates.

Step 5: Have fun! (optional) A rock path can anchor plants and be a great decorative feature.

One colour aesthetic

A Monochromatic garden focus on a single colour, creating a harmonious look.

Choose Your Colour Palette:

When selecting just one colour, stick within tints, shades and hues of your original colour. A purple garden can span from pale lavender to nearly black.

Consider foliage too:

Fine leaves lend an airy appeal, while large, waxy leaves provide structure.

Plan for blooms:

For continuous seasonal interest, note flowering times. Most perennials have limited bloom periods.
