small college BIG DECISION

At Westminster, history isn't just studied—it's lived. From a historic London church rebuilt on campus to sections of the Berlin Wall, our grounds tell powerful stories. We're also home to America's National Churchill Museum. Rooted in tradition since 1898, our Skulls of Seven honor society embodies Westminster's core values: tradition, loyalty, scholarship, friendship, service, and honor.

"Westminster has prepared me for life beyond college by allowing me to engage not only within the school but also in the community. Fulton has truly become my home away from home."

Annette competed on Westminster's Women's Basketball and Women's Golf teams and was a member, and eventual President of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Education Association, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Campus Crusade for Christ. During her time as a women's basketball player, Annette was a three-time conference player of the year.

"After graduation, I plan to stay in the area and teach in the Fulton Public School District. I have a job lined up as a recipient of the Grow Your Own program, and I am very excited to get started!"

purpose. Built on a foundation of Midwestern values and deep tradition, our close-knit campus nurtures well-being, personal growth, and a strong sense of belonging. Conveniently located 25 minutes down the highway from both Columbia and Jefferson City, Missouri's capital.

First-Year Housing

First-year Blue Jays live in one of five suite-style residence halls in the Freshman Quad—an exclusive corner of campus built just for them. We also have great student parking close to the residence halls.
