Series Synopsis

After the sudden loss of his wife, Mads is left adrift. In his grief, he leans on his old friend René, whose steady presence offers comfort — and perhaps more.

Then Eva enters his life, a younger woman who awakens something new. Torn between two very different connections, Mads must face what it truly means to love again — and whether he can move on without letting go.

Love, eventually

Mads

Architect.

Thoughtful and trying to move on from his past.

Mads, a 44-year-old architect in Cologne, lost his partner Jenny in 2022 — and with her, his zest for life.

Over a year later, their shared apartment still feels empty. Thoughtful and quietly melancholic, Mads struggles to let go of the past.

Love, eventually

René

Childhood friend.

Vibrant, resilient and a mother of two.

René, Mads' childhood friend, runs a snack stand and is a single mom to Lola and Oscar. After 25 years in Asia, she returned a year ago to start over.

Lively and grounded, she juggles motherhood while rekindling her bond with Mads — always caring, always looking out for others.

Love, eventually

Eva

New companion.

Adventurous, open-hearted, having an impact on Mads.

Eva meets Mads at a company party. Spontaneous and open-hearted, she's planning a fresh start in Canada.

Her presence brings energy and change, pushing Mads to face his emotions and rethink his future — all in a very short time.
