RAKKI

Restaurant Manager

K. Rakki has worked at The Londoner for, an incredible, 14 years; she is the oil that keeps this amazing engine running smoothly every day!

Rakki is originally from Udonthani, in the Northeastern part of Thailand. When she finished school at the age of 18, she decided to get out into the world and do some travelling.

She jumped on a plane and headed to Athens, Greece. In this historic city, Rakki started her learning journey within the restaurant industry...and she loved it! After 15 years of working in Greece, travelling when she could, Rakki decided it was time to move back to the Land of Smiles again.

Rakki joined the Londoner family as a waitress, but her skills were quickly recognised and was rightly promoted to supervisor and then manager. She has been leading the staff as Restaurant Manager for over 8 wonderful years. The Londoner is indebted to her and hopes she stays for many more years to come!
