CASAMONTE

INTRODUCTION

Casamonte was founded on the belief that true artistry is a collaborative journey. Inspired by the timeless interplay of texture and design, Casamonte partners with distinguished artists and designers to craft surfaces that are both transformative and enduring. Through these partnerships, we have crafted collections that transcend trends, standing as timeless testaments to the power of design to inspire and connect. With every collection, we invite our customers to see their spaces not just as places, but as canvases for self-expression and stories waiting to be told.

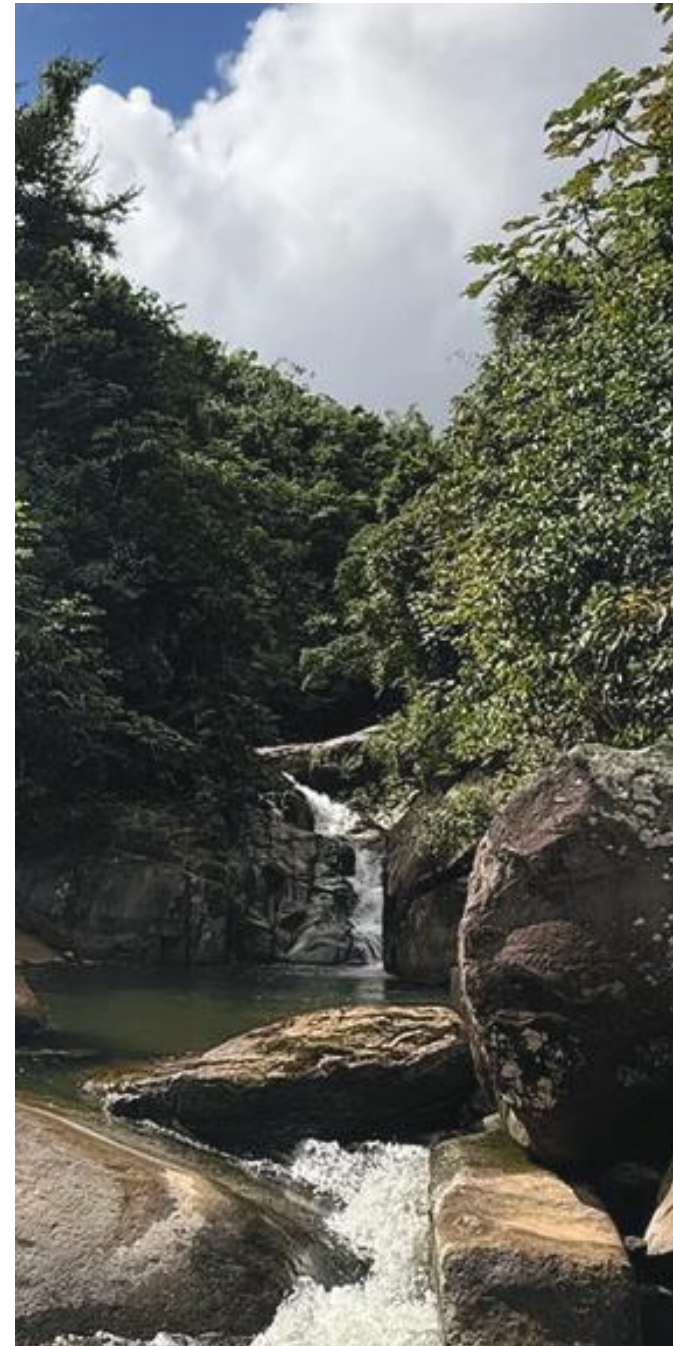

CARLOS BETANCOURT

Carlos Betancourt (b. 1966, San Juan, Puerto Rico) is a Miami-based multidisciplinary artist recognized for his vibrant, layered works that explore memory, identity, and cultural symbolism. His art has been exhibited worldwide and is included in the permanent collections of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery, the Pérez Art Museum Miami, and the New Orleans Museum of Art, among others. Betancourt's practice extends beyond fine art into curating, design, and collaborations with leading international brands. His partnership with Casamonte marks a new chapter in his career—translating his iconic imagery and one-line drawings into wallcovering and mural designs. Drawing inspiration from his Puerto Rican upbringing, his gardens in Miami and El Yunque rainforest, and his collaborations with architect Alberto Latorre, this collection infuses interiors with the spirit, symbolism, and magic that define his work.

CARLOS GARDEN

At the heart of this collection is the lush tropical landscape of my Caribbean upbringing in Puerto Rico. This natural beauty has long served as a wellspring of inspiration—most notably embodied in Carlos’s Garden, a creative sanctuary I have cultivated for years within the El Yunque rainforest, with the support of close friends. This living garden is a source of constant imagination and now deeply influences the designs of this wallcovering collection. Today, banana plants and malangas remain ever-present in Carlos’s Garden, as well as in our beloved Careyes, Mexico and our home in Miami. Through this collection, I seek to recreate the emotion and spirit these plants evoke—a sense of being embraced by nature. This is my heartfelt tribute to their enduring symbolism, rooted in personal memory and inspired by the raw beauty and authenticity of life in the Caribbean.

ENCHANTED ISLAND

Inspired by the lush landscapes of Puerto Rico and the enchanted essence of Carlos's Garden in El Yunque, Enchanted Island captures the grandeur of the tropics with elegant, expressive detail. Towering banana leaves and palm tree fronds form a verdant canopy that evokes the wild, untamed beauty of the Caribbean — a setting where nature shelters and stirs the imagination. This collection merges nostalgic reverence with elevated design, channeling the timeless glamour of Art Deco wallcoverings and the grounding presence of ancestral flora. Each pattern tells a story rooted in personal memory and cultural heritage, transforming any interior into a sanctuary of warmth, artistry, and natural wonder. Ideal for both residential and hospitality spaces, Enchanted Island invites you to envelop your surroundings in a tropical embrace that is as bold as it is serene.

RIO BLANCO

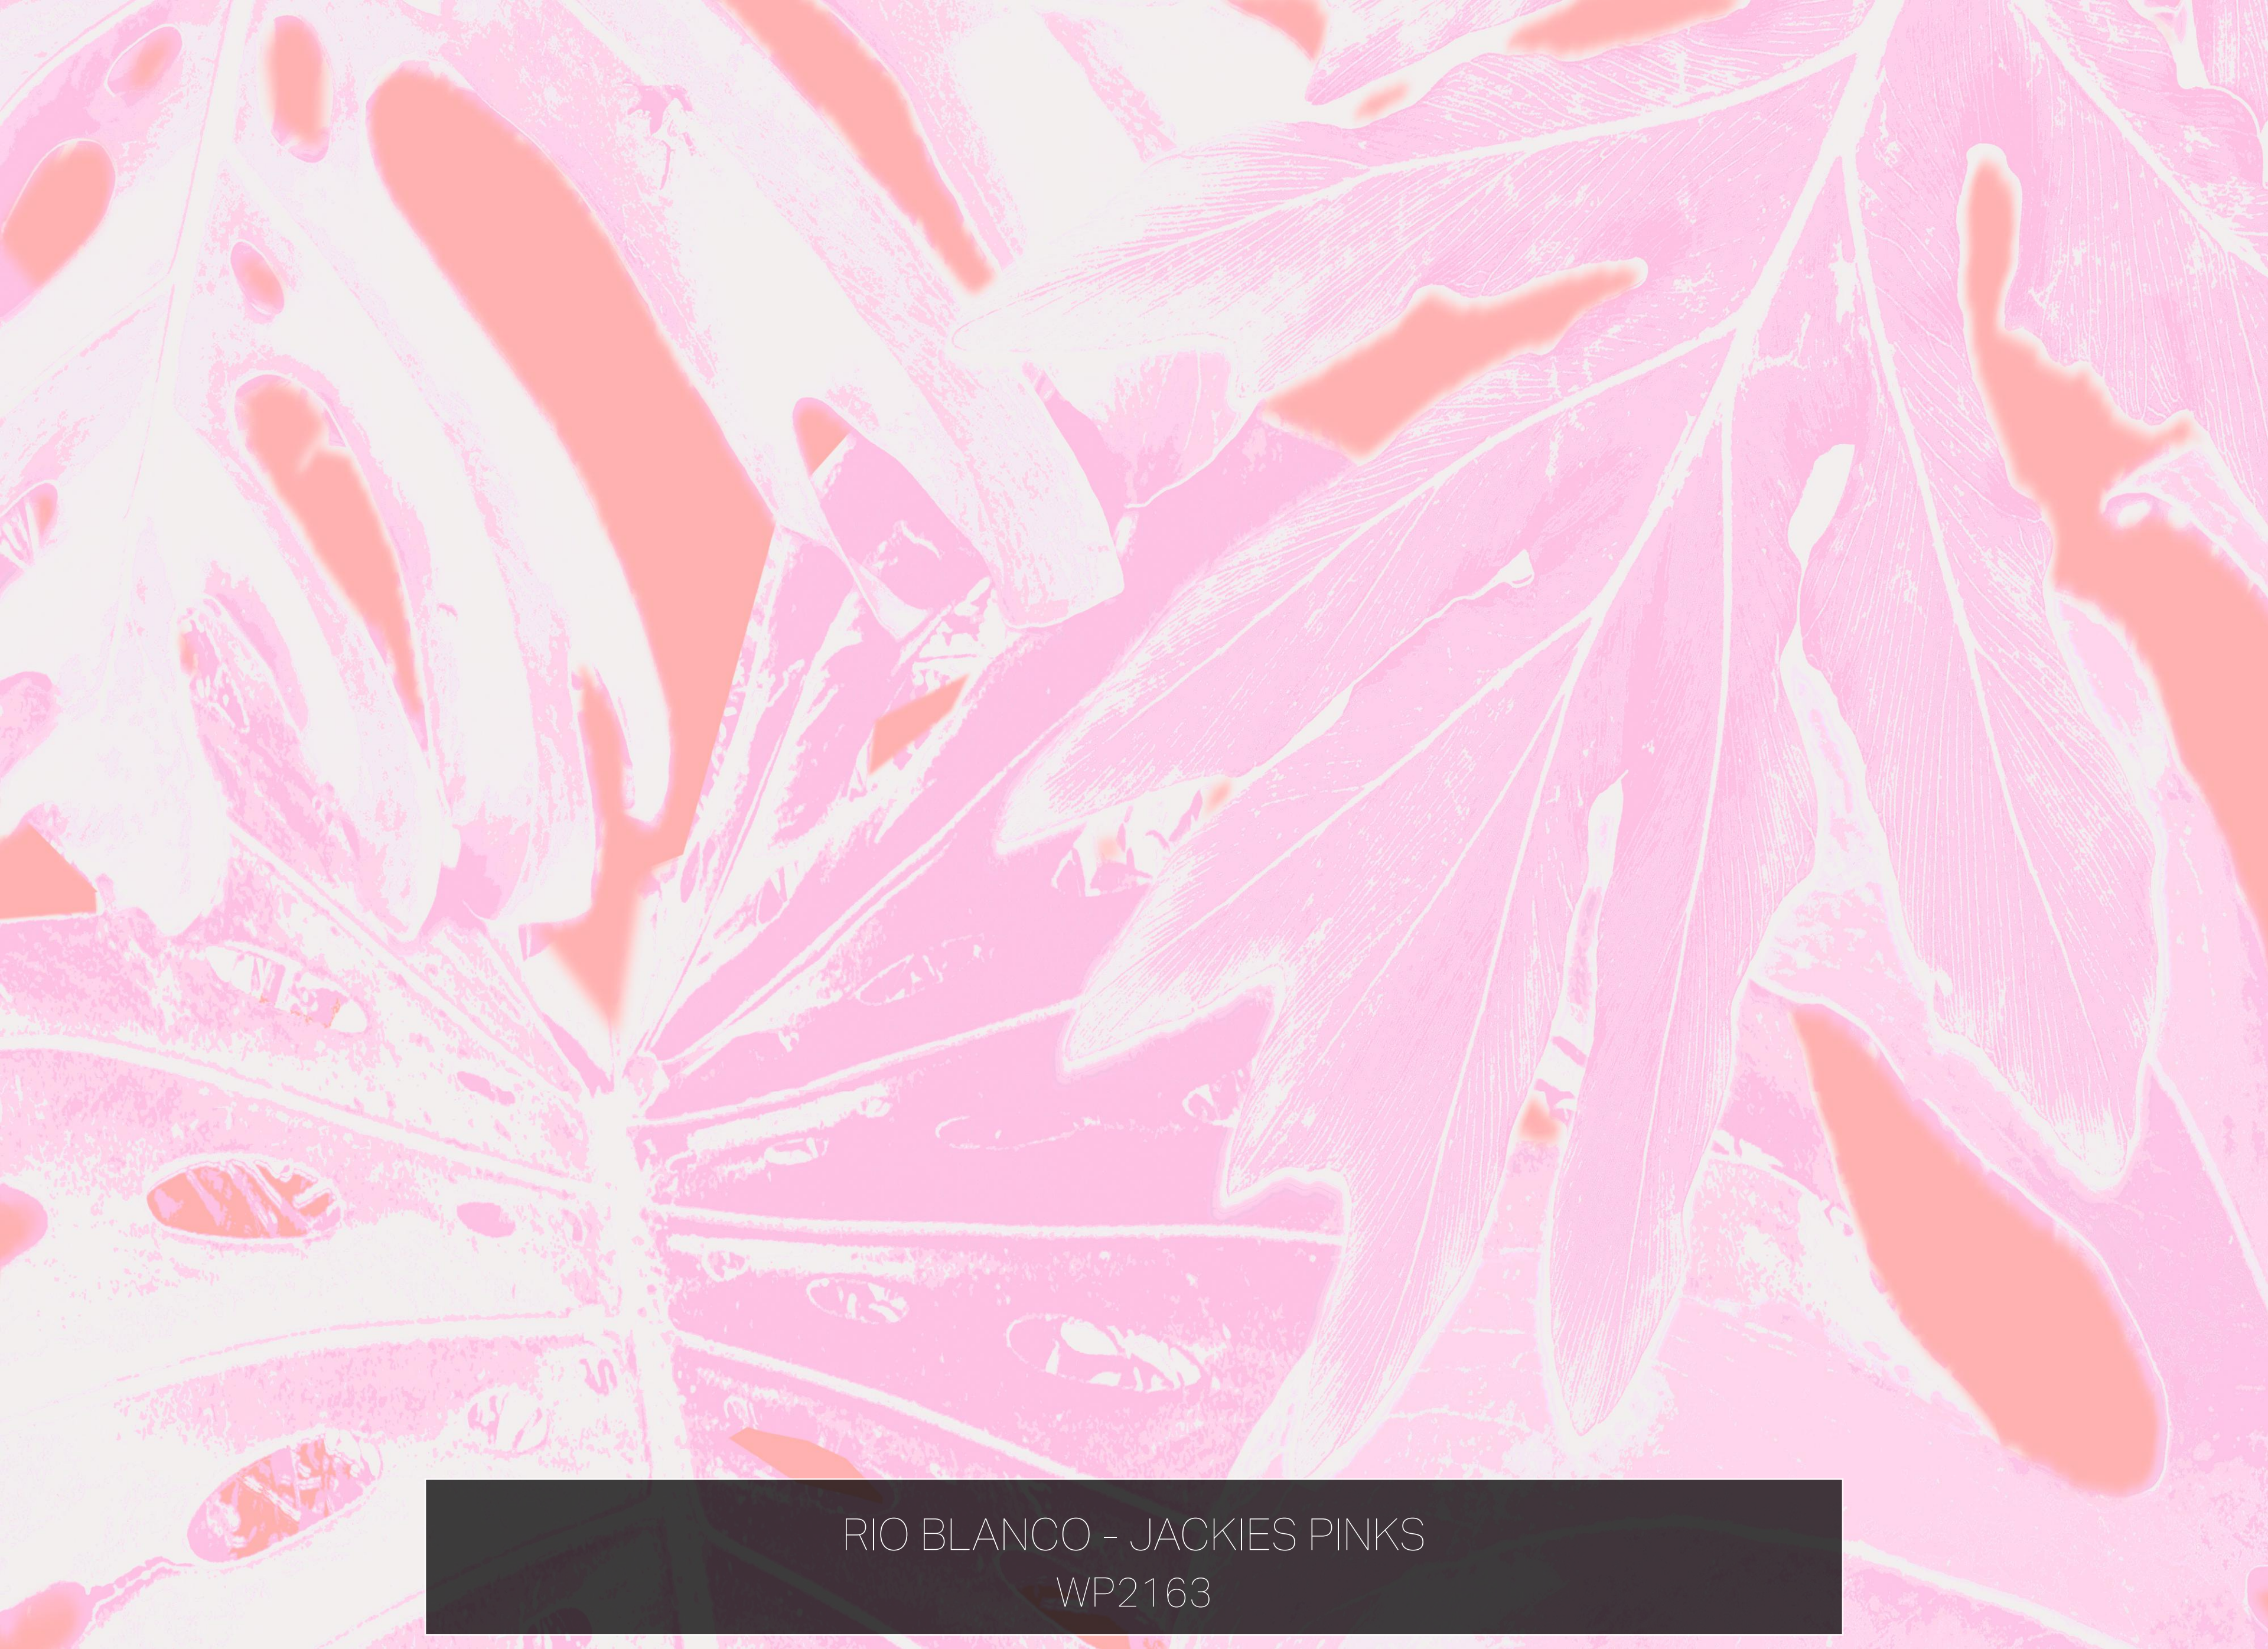

The Rio Blanco Wallcovering Collection by artist Carlos Betancourt honors the memory-laden beauty of the malanga leaf—a botanical symbol deeply rooted in Caribbean life and personal legacy. Drawing inspiration from the lush landscapes of Puerto Rico and Mexico, this collection captures the quiet strength, fluid forms, and sculptural elegance of these tropical plants. In this exclusive edition, Betancourt curates a radiant palette inspired by the shifting light and atmosphere of his gardens in El Yunque and Careyes, transforming color into emotion. Each hue enhances the malanga motif with layers of depth and dimension, turning walls into sensorial canvases of nature and memory. Vibrant yet grounded, Rio Blanco celebrates heritage and artistry through the refined lens of contemporary design—inviting spaces to breathe with organic rhythm and soul.
