Spring 2022, Volume 1

Campus & Community Engagement

Recognizing CAAS 10th Anniversary

This year we celebrated CAAS' 10th Anniversary! Our commemoration began in Fall 2021 with a lecture from Dr. Henry Louis Gates, a towering figure in African American Studies at Harvard University. It continued with noted journalist and thought-leader Roland Martin as well as Power Hours that featured scholars and professionals making major contributions to our campus and community.

This latest issue of Synergy documents our celebration of CAAS' birthday in Spring and Summer 2022! As you'll soon see, CAAS continues to fulfill its mission and vision as "We strive to enlighten, inspire, and empower students, faculty, and community stakeholders to create progressive, collaborative solutions that drive social change within the African American community and larger society."

I have been involved with CAAS since its founding, and have had the honor and privilege of serving as its Director for the past five years. I look forward to working with you and many other people on and off campus in helping to move CAAS forward! — Dr. Jason E. Shelton

If you need accommodations to participate, please contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at multicultural_affairs@uta.edu at least seven days prior to the event date.

Stephone Coward served as the featured speaker for CAAS' February Power Hour. He's an alum who graduated with a Bachelor's degree in History in 2010 and a Master of Science in 2012.

Coward's presentation focused on his efforts with BankBlack-USA, whose mission is to promote financial advocacy in African American communities.

Coward's work with BankBlack-USA is impressive! He partners with scholars at various universities across the country and his work has been featured in national publications such as USA Today. His work highlights the importance of black financial institutions, which helps to close the wealth gap between blacks and whites.

10th Annual CAAS Conference

CAAS celebrated its 10th Anniversary during its 10th Annual Conference! The meeting featured two keynote addresses and two panels on particular topics.

Dr. Rayshawn Ray (University of Maryland) delivered the morning keynote. He presented his trailblazing research on racial disparities in policing, and shared insights on policies that can help to close this racial divide.

Dr. Angela Davis—a legendary former leader of the Black Panthers and highly respected law professor (University of California at Santa Cruz)—delivered the afternoon keynote. More than 400 people attended her talk in-person and hundreds virtually attended. Dr. Davis spoke on various issues including similarities and differences

Dr. Opal Lee's Visit to UT Arlington

In April, the legendary Dr. Opal Lee visited UT Arlington! Dr. Lee has become a national icon since US President Joe Biden signed legislation making Juneteenth a Federal Holiday.

Sedrick Huckaby of the Department of Art and Art History presented Dr. Lee with a draft of painting of her that will ultimately hang in the Texas State Capitol Building in Austin.

Special THANK YOUs go to Dr. Leah McCurdy in Art and Art History, as well as the Office of the Vice President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion! Their efforts helped to make this important event happen!

In May, CAAS awarded three outstanding students with the Pat Brandenburg Scholarship in African American Studies!

Ms. Brandenburg was an alumna ('49) who wanted to help heal our nation's wounds by assisting promising students. A woman of deep religious faith, she was moved by peaceful protests in Summer 2020 that called attention to human rights and racial inequality.

The following students will receive $3,000 each for their academic achievements and ways in which they are currently involved with giving back to the African American community:

Rhane Bishop
Shayna Arnell Sutton
Tarayja Rozia White

Please congratulate them for their great works and bright futures!

Evening of Black Excellence

As always, An Evening of Black Excellence: Achievements and Graduation took place in early May prior to various Commencement ceremonies. During this important event, we recognize a wide range of our students' accomplishments!

This year's keynote address was delivered by Mayor Rachel L. Proctor of the City of Desoto. She is a proud UTA alum!

Miss Juneteenth Scholarship Pageant

Dr. Opal Lee return to UTA in June since CAAS had the distinct honor of hosting the 2022 Miss Juneteenth DFW Scholarship Pageant!

Five young women participated in this major event, and they were supported by a staff of professionals that helped developed their skills as public speakers, individual talents, and social skills.

Congratulations to Madison Corzine, our new Miss Juneteenth DFW!

Give a Gift

Established in August 2012, the Center for African American Studies (CAAS) at the University of Texas at Arlington aims to cultivate an exceptional transdisciplinary experience through teaching, civic engagement, and community-based research focused on the diverse contextual conditions of Blacks in America and society at large. Our purpose is to foster the development of student, faculty, and community capacity to create progressive solutions that address social problems.

Endowed funding is being sought to support:

- ◆ Lectures, events, and conferences
- ◆ Student enrichment initiatives
- ◆ Undergraduate and graduate scholarships
- ◆ Faculty and student community-based research

To Give a Gift to CAAS:

1. Go to: <https://giving.uta.edu/Give>
2. Specify the amount
3. In the “Designation” box, please select “other”
4. In the “Comments” box, please type “Center for African American Studies”
5. Contact CAAS to let us know about your gift

Thank you for supporting CAAS!
