INSPIRING YOUR INNER NATURE

Welcome to Zadún, the first Ritz-Carlton Reserve in Mexico, where an authentic and magical experience awaits you. This untouched sanctum is where desert and ocean collide — in your very own luxurious haven. Allow yourself to be seduced by Puerto Los Cabos, its breathtaking coastline, and a rich culture that will enchant you at every breath.

Each of the resort's 113 rooms, suites and villas blurs the line between indoors and out and, features views of the sparkling sea and art, textiles and finishes crafted by Mexican artisans. Along gently sloping dunes overlooking the Sea of Cortés in San José del Cabo, luxury suites and villas reflect the land and those who sprung from it. Here, nature is invited within and guests are encouraged to venture out: sliding glass doors replace traditional walls, terraces are an extension of home, with private plunge pools providing tranquility and the opportunity to take in fresh air.
