SYNOPSIS

In today's hyper connected digital economy, trust is the cornerstone of sustainable growth and innovation. As organizations navigate a complex web of data regulations and rising public expectations, building and maintaining data trust has become a business-critical imperative.

With the implementation of India's Digital Personal Data Protection Act (DPDPA) and parallel developments across the globe, the Foundation of Data Protection Professionals in India (FDPPI) - MMA Conclave 2025 arrives at a pivotal moment. Anchored in the triad of Trust, Technology, and Transformation, the conclave brings together legal experts, corporate leaders, technologists, policy influencers, and academics to explore how responsible data governance can drive long-term value.

Through engaging sessions, sectoral deep-dives, and cross-disciplinary dialogue, participants will gain practical insights and strategic foresight to move beyond compliance and become stewards of ethical, future-ready data ecosystems.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Elevating Data Trust as a Leadership Priority
- Decoding the Legal & Regulatory Landscape
- Sector-Specific Compliance Strategies
- Harnessing Technology for Privacy Management
- Fostering a Culture of Self-Regulation and Collaboration
- From Awareness to Action
