

A VERY FURRY BUSINESS

onegate
A Studio Hamburg Company

A photograph of two female veterinarians in a barn. The veterinarian on the left is wearing a blue shirt and black apron, looking up and to the right. The veterinarian on the right is wearing a grey shirt and black apron, looking towards the cow. They are both touching the back of a light-colored cow with black spots. The background shows a barn with metal railings and a wooden wall.

In a small-town practice, two vets dedicate themselves to saving animals while navigating the ups and downs of their personal lives.

A Very Furry Business

Overview

Episodes

Information

Original title: Zwei Frauen für alle Felle

Genre: Feel Good

Format: 4 x 90'

Year of production: Ongoing

Country of origin: Germany

Why it Works...

Strong Female Leads

Brand new ARD movie series...

...driven by strong female leads.

Award-Winning Actress

Starring Bettina Zimmermann, receiving a Jupiter Award and a DIVA-Award for "Best Actress of the year".

Entertaining & Educating

Not only entertaining but also educating viewers interested in animal care and veterinary practices.

High Quality Production

Directed by Stefan Bühling, known for his work on Seaside School, his expertise brings a unique vision and high production quality.

Comparables

ARD

ARD

ZDF

CBC

ITV

Series Synopsis

As her boss retires, vet Maja meets Julia, an ambitious newcomer sent by a hospital group. At first, they clash — but animal emergencies and personal struggles soon push them to work together.

Through high-stakes cases and growing trust, they become an unlikely team and rediscover their passion for the job.

Dr. Maja Freydank

Vet.

Warm-hearted, caring and engaged Vet.

Dr. Maja Freydank is a dedicated vet in Naumburg, known for her warmth and passion.

She cares deeply for both animals and their owners, and works hard to balance her profession with family life.

Dr. Julia Kramer

Vet and new colleague.

Committed, determined with modern approaches.

Dr. Julia Kramer is the new vet at Maja's practice, bringing fresh energy and a modern approach.

Committed and determined, she quickly becomes a strong partner as they face the daily challenges of veterinary life together.

2 Episodes

Maja faces the challenges of preserving her small-town practice amidst corporate pressures, while Julia's arrival brings unexpected teamwork, mystery, and life-saving missions.

Zwei Frauen für alle Felle

Terminsprechstunde

Mo - Fr 10.00 - 12.00 Uhr

16.00 - 18.30 Uhr

Sa 10.00 - 12.00 Uhr

Telefon: 03445-00997723

www.tierarztpraxis-freydankkramer.de

Episode 1

On her way to work, vet Maja hits a dog — and arrives late to meet Julia, a new colleague from the clinic group. With the practice up for sale, the two vets must find common ground.

As they treat the injured dog, signs of abuse emerge, and they race to uncover the truth. A strong team begins to form — but will Julia choose Maja's small practice over the corporate world?

Episode 2

On Dirk Rothe's farm, Julia delivers a calf just in time — but when another cow dies, she and Maja suspect a rare cattle disease. Working with Dirk and his daughter Lisa, they race to contain the outbreak.

With Dirk overwhelmed and Lisa planning to leave for med school, the future of the farm is at stake. Can Maja and Julia save the animals — and the farm?

Impressions...

#PartnerUp

Discover our full Line Up

Kerstin Grünwald
Austria, Switzerland, Italy

Esther Henze
Spanish-Speaking Territories

Lisa Ritschel
Eastern Europe &
English Speaking Territories

Stephanie Wang
French-Speaking Territories,
BeNeLux, Scandinavia & Asia

A photograph of two women in a stable, both wearing dark aprons over blue shirts. They are standing on either side of a light-colored horse, which has its head tucked back. The woman on the left is looking towards the horse's head, while the woman on the right is looking towards the camera. The background shows a stable interior with wooden walls and a white fence.

Follow furry adventures with OneGate Media.