EKKLESIA: THE CHURCH

“Now you are Christ’s body, and individually members of it.”
(1 Corinthians 12:12, NASB)

“For just as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.”
(Romans 12:4-5, NASB)

“So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and are of God’s household, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the corner stone, in whom the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple in the Lord...”
(Ephesians 2:19-22, NASB)

Every Christian has a unique, irreplaceable role to play in the Church. And the success of the mission depends on every Christian taking up their role.

The eye can never say to the hand, ‘I don’t need you.’ The head can’t say to the feet, ‘I don’t need you.’” (1 Corinthians 12:18-21, NLT)

“Their responsibility is to equip God’s people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ.” (Ephesians 4:12, NLT)
