Insertion of Rule 41A in the Rules

2. The following rule is hereby inserted in the Rules after rule 41:

"41A Mediation as a dispute resolution mechanism

- (1) In this rule-
- 'dispute' means the subject matter of litigation between parties, or an aspect thereof.
  - 'mediation' means a voluntary process entered into by agreement between the parties to a dispute, in which an impartial and independent person, the mediator, assists the parties to either resolve the dispute between them, or identify issues upon which agreement can be reached, or explore areas of compromise, or generate options to resolve the dispute, or clarify priorities, by facilitating discussions between the parties and assisting them in their negotiations to resolve the dispute.
- (2) (a) In every new action or application proceeding, the plaintiff or applicant shall, together with the summons or combined summons or notice of motion, serve on each defendant or respondent a notice indicating whether such plaintiff or applicant agrees to or opposes referral of the dispute to mediation.
- (b) A defendant or respondent shall, when delivering a notice of intention to defend or a notice of intention to oppose, or at any time thereafter, but not later than the delivery of a plea or answering affidavit, serve on each plaintiff or applicant or the plaintiffs or applicant's attorneys, a notice indicating whether such defendant or respondent agrees to or opposes referral of the dispute to mediation.
- (c) The notices referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be substantially in accordance with Form 27 of the First Schedule and shall clearly and concisely indicate the reasons for such party's belief that the dispute is or is not capable of being mediated.

- (d) Subject to the provisions of subrule 9(b) the notices referred to in this subrule shall be of a without prejudice and shall not be filed with the registrar.
- (3) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule (2), the parties may at any stage before judgment, agree to refer the dispute between them to mediation: Provided that where the trial or opposed application has commenced the parties shall obtain the leave of the court.
(b) A Judge, or a Case Management Judge referred to in rule 37A or the court may at any stage before judgment direct the parties to consider referral of a dispute to mediation, whereupon the parties may agree to refer the dispute to mediation.
- (4) Where a dispute is referred to mediation—
(a) the parties shall deliver a joint signed minute recording their election to refer the dispute to mediation;
(b) the parties shall prior to the commencement of mediation proceedings enter into an agreement to mediate;
(c) the time limits prescribed by the Rules for the delivery of pleadings and notices and the filing of affidavits or the taking of any step shall be suspended for every party to the dispute from the date of signature of the minute referred to in paragraph (a) to the time of conclusion of mediation: Provided that any party to the proceedings who considers that the suspension of the prescribed time limits is being abused, may apply to the court for the upliftment of the suspension of the prescribed time limits: and
(d) the process of mediation shall be concluded within 30 days from the date of signature of the minute referred to in paragraph (a): Provided that a Judge or the court may on good cause shown by the parties extend such time period for completion of the mediation session.
- (5) (a) In proceedings where there are multiple parties some of whom are agreeable to mediation and some of whom are not, parties who are agreeable to mediation may proceed to mediation notwithstanding any other party's refusal to mediate.
(b) The time limits prescribed for the delivery of pleadings and notices and the filing of affidavits or the taking of any step shall be suspended for every party from the date of signature of the minute referred to in subrule (4)(a) to the time of conclusion of mediation by the parties who have elected to mediate: Provided that any party to the proceedings who considers that such suspension of time limits is being abused, may apply to the court for the upliftment of such suspension.
(c) In any matter where there are multiple issues, the parties may agree that some issues be referred to mediation and that the issues remaining in dispute may proceed to litigation.
(d) If any issue remains in dispute after mediation, the parties may proceed to litigation on such issue in dispute.
- (6) Except as provided by law, or discoverable in terms of the Rules or agreed between the parties, all communications and disclosures, whether oral or written, made at mediation proceedings shall be confidential and inadmissible in evidence.
- (7) (a) Upon conclusion of mediation the parties who engaged in mediation shall inform the registrar and all other parties by notice that mediation has been completed.
(b) Notwithstanding the failure of parties who have engaged in mediation to deliver the notice referred to in paragraph (a), the suspension of the time limits referred to in subrule (4)(c) shall lapse unless a Judge or a court has extended the time limit and notice thereof has been given to all parties to the proceedings within 5 days of such order.
- (8) (a) Mediation shall be deemed to be completed within 30 days from the date of signature of the joint minute referred to in subrule (4)(a), from which date the suspension of the time limits prescribed for the delivery of pleadings and notices and the filing of affidavits or the taking of any step referred to in subrule (4)(c) shall lapse: Provided that where mediation is completed before the aforesaid period of 30 days, the parties who engaged in mediation shall deliver a notice contemplated in subrule (7) indicating that mediation has been completed.

- (b) The parties who engaged in mediation and the mediator who conducted the mediation shall within five days of the conclusion of mediation, issue a joint minute indicating—
- (1) whether full or partial settlement was reached or whether mediation was not successful; and
  - (ii) the issues upon which agreement was reached and which do not require hearing by the court.
- (c) it shall be the joint responsibility of the parties who engaged in mediation to file with the registrar, the minute referred to in paragraph (b).
- (d) No offer or tender made without prejudice in terms of this subrule shall be disclosed to the court at any time before judgment has been given.
- (e) Where the parties have reached settlement at mediation proceedings the provisions of rule 41 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (9) (a) Unless the parties agree otherwise, liability for the fees of a mediator shall be borne equally by the parties participating in mediation.
- (b) When an order for costs of the action or application is considered, the court may have regard to the notices referred to in subrule (2) or any offer or tender referred to in subrule (8)(d) and any party shall be entitled to bring such notices or offer or tender to the attention of the court."

Amendment of rule 70 of the Rules

3. Rule 70 of the Rules is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subrule (3B) of the following subrule:

"(3B) Prior to enrolling a matter for taxation, the party who has been awarded an order for costs shall, by notice as near as may be in accordance with Form 26 of the First Schedule—

[(a)] f afford the party liable to pay costs at the time therein stated, and for a period of ten (10) days thereafter, by prior arrangement, during normal business hours and on any one or more such days, the opportunity to inspect such documents or notes pertaining to any item on the bill of costs; and

[(b)] ii require the party to whom notice is given, to deliver to the party giving the notice within [twenty (20)] ten (10) days after the expiry of the period in subparagraph (i), a written notice of opposition, specifying the items on the bill of costs objected to, and a brief summary of the reason for such objection.

(12) For the purposes of this subrule, the days from 16 December to 15 January, both inclusive, must not be counted in the time allowed for inspecting documents or notes pertaining to item on a bill of costs or the giving of a written notice to oppose."

(b) by the insertion after subrule (38) of the following subrule:

"(3C) No taxation shall be set down in the days from 16 December to 15 January, both inclusive, except—

(a) where the period for delivery of the notice to oppose has expired, before the commencement of the period 16 December and 15 January, both dates inclusive, and no notice of intention to oppose has been delivered;

(b) where the party liable to pay the costs, has consented in writing to the taxation in his or her absence; or

(c) for the taxation of writ and post-writ bills."; and

(C) by the substitution for subrule (4) of the following subrule:

"(4) The taxing master shall not proceed with the taxation of any bill of costs unless he or she is satisfied that the party liable to pay the costs has received—

- (a) due notice in terms of subrule (3B); and
- (b) not less than 10 days' notice of the date, time and place of such taxation and that he or she is entitled to be present thereat: Provided that such notice shall not be necessary—
  - (i) if the party liable to pay the costs has consented in writing to taxation in his or her absence;
  - (ii) if the party liable to pay the costs failed to give notice of intention to oppose in terms of subrule (3B); or
  - (iii) for the taxation of writ and post-writ bills:

Provided further that, if any party fails to appear after having given the notice to oppose in terms of subrule (3B)(13)1(a)(ii), the taxation may proceed in their absence."
