anyone?

THIS IS WHAT BEING IN LOVE REALLY MEANS,
BECAUSE IT'S NOT ALL
AND KISSES

Love means feeling out of the loop when everyone else is talking about a certain show because you were too busy watching it with your person and having fun.

Love means waking up to an empty bed and realizing you actually need to call your mother to tell her you're still alive.

Love means seeing their family and not complaining, even though you've been waiting for your own family for a long time.

Love means deciding not to drink, because they already had three beers and you need to be the responsible one for the night.

Love means picking up the tab at a restaurant they paid for your meal the last time and to act as equals.

Love means a mother and son.
