About the Clubhouse

Established in 1891, The Country Club of Indianapolis has consistently earned recognition as an esteemed club, dedicated to meeting the diverse needs of families and businesses with unparalleled professionalism. CCI members relish the camaraderie of family, friends, and colleagues in an environment thoughtfully crafted to enhance their lifestyles and interests.

Conveniently situated near Eagle Creek Reservoir, CCI stands as a retreat for leisure, entertainment, and recreation. Nestled away from the chaos of downtown on our spectacular tree-adorned rolling hills that provide a picturesque backdrop for all events.

Boasting amenities such as golf, exquisite dining, engaging social activities, and outstanding banquet and meeting facilities, CCI is committed to surpassing expectations at every turn.

GENERAL POLICIES

The Club is dedicated exclusively to providing pleasure and enjoyment for our Members, their families, and guests in an atmosphere of privacy and exclusivity. As a private club, we waive room rental fees for events hosted by members. A member-hosted event is defined as one where the member is either hosting or sponsoring, and the member need not be present for it to qualify. However, the member needs to contact our Director of Sales to make the introduction. Any event not hosted or sponsored by a current clubhouse member is considered a non-member function.

DRESS CODE

All members and their guests must adhere to the dress code, ensuring appropriate attire. For men, the dress code mandates collared shirts and slacks. Women are expected to wear dresses or slacks of appropriate length, along with collared shirts, with or without sleeves. Tasteful denim is permitted, excluding any items with holes or tears. Gentlemen are kindly reminded to remove their headwear when inside the clubhouse.

CLUBHOUSE HOURS

The club will conclude operations by midnight, and bar services must cease 30 minutes before the conclusion of any event. Bar services are not permitted beyond 11:15PM.
