IF ONLY THE HILLS AND VALLEYS COULD TALK. ONE WONDERS WHAT THEY WOULD SAY ABOUT OUR AREA, WHAT TALES THEY WOULD TELL, AND WHAT LESSONS THEY WOULD SHARE.

Since 1792, Jefferson County has been etching its place in time. Our historic towns have seen battles won and lost, and our shores have seen the waters of rivers turned to lakes. One aspiration has withstood the tests of time: our southern hospitality.

Today, Jefferson County takes pride in sharing our rich history with visitors. Our towns are vibrant with restaurants, shops, and events; and our area is known as the Lakeside of the Smokies because of our two lakes: Cherokee and Douglas.

As our nickname would imply, there are a variety of water activities available to you. From family lake vacations to world-class fishing tournaments, we are a water-lover's paradise.

But don't let that fool you – there's plenty to do off the water, too! Jefferson County is home to three beautiful golf courses and has several farms open to the public for touring. People from all over visit our area to attend events that take place throughout the year, such as Lakeside of the Smokies Balloonfest in the fall, our summer concert series Rockin' the Creek and Music on the Town, heritage festivals like Scots-Irish Festival and PowWow of the Nations, numerous fishing tournaments, and more.

Behind Bush's family recipe, we're the best kept secret in the Smoky Mountains as we're just down the road from the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Pigeon Forge, Gatlinburg, and Knoxville.

Make this the year to get outside, take in new sights, relax with family and friends, and, most importantly, make memories to last a lifetime. Come discover the Lakeside of the Smokies! There's no better place for a true Tennessee experience.

Happy Travels!

Lauren Hurdle, Tourism Director

IN AND AROUND JEFFERSON COUNTY

What do you get when you add up 5 historic towns, 2 pristine lakes, Smoky Mountain views, and a multitude of activities? The Lakeside of the Smokies, of course!

Make us the center of your next Smoky Mountain vacation! Our proximity to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Gatlinburg, Pigeon Forge, Knoxville, and other East Tennessee attractions makes us the perfect destination for a long weekend or a much needed extended break.

Take a boat ride on one of our lakes, tour one of our historic towns, or kick back and relax at one of our lakeside cabins, however you like to vacation – we've got it all. Come visit and see what the Lakeside of the Smokies is all about.

Towns with a History

JEFFERSON COUNTY HAS 5 HISTORIC TOWNS WITHIN OUR BOUNDARIES: JEFFERSON CITY, BANEBERRY, DANDRIDGE, NEW MARKET, AND WHITE PINE.

JEFFERSON CITY

Originally known as Mossy Creek, Jefferson City has been a staple of East Tennessee since the late 1700s. The town made national news in August 1940 when it was announced that work was starting on Cherokee Dam, which would provide Oak Ridge with waterpower during part of World War II.

Despite all the changes over time, some things have remained the same. A quote from an 1853 news article puts it best – “The views are not excelled anywhere for picturesque beauty. Landscapes of wooded hills and cultivated valleys stretch out ‘til the eye rests against the blue dimness of the distant mountains to behold wondrous loveliness...The courageous, dignified and refined people make Mossy Creek a most delightful place to visit. Hospitality is second nature with people here, and a visitor never fails to come again.”

BANEBERRY

If you enjoy a quiet, resort-like community, then Baneberry is the perfect place for you. The hospitality and friendliness of the town's residents come in second only to the incredible vista of lake and mountains that create the landscape of the area. Through the heart of Baneberry runs a challenging and picturesque golf course perfect for your next tee time.

DANDRIDGE

Our oldest town & county seat is Dandridge. Named in honor of our first First Lady, Martha Dandridge Washington, Dandridge was settled around 1783, then officially established in 1793 - making it the second oldest town in the state.

From the Civil War battle for control of Knoxville to the dike that saved the town, Dandridge's past is exciting, and its future is bright. Through the addition of an outdoor entertainment area, a public dock for fishing enthusiasts, and other town projects, Dandridge continues to honor its history while paving a path for its growing future.

NEW MARKET

Ever felt like a place was out of a storybook? Well, New Market could be. The town was home to Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of The Secret Garden when she was a young woman just beginning her writing career. There are many aspects within her books that were derived from her time living in New Market.

Beyond the pages of a book, New Market has its own story to tell. The town motto is "Our Tracks Have History" which reflects the vital contributions of the railroad that runs through town. The very tracks themselves continue to spur prosperity and industry in the area!

WHITE PINE

Set in the rolling hills of East Tennessee, White Pine offers its visitors a true small-town experience. But don't let the quaintness fool you. The town is home to several major industries and provides a variety of things to do when visiting, including cooling off on a warm day at the town's splash pad!

Whether you enjoy hiking, fishing, or antique shopping, there's something for you here. White Pine is also conveniently located along Interstates 81 & 40, making it easy to get to, as well as easy to travel to nearby places such as the Smokies.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

No matter what you're looking to get out of your Smoky Mountain vacation, you'll find it in Jefferson County. From the lakes to the mountains and history to shopping, there's something for families, individuals, children, and adults. Plan your trip with us today!

MEET THE LAKES OF THE LAKESIDE!

We're proud to be home to two of the best lakes in East Tennessee – Cherokee Lake to the northeast and Douglas Lake along the south of the county.

Cherokee and Douglas Lakes boast a variety of amenities for visitors. Each lake's shoreline is sprinkled with lodging options, dining choices, marinas, and more! They're also conveniently located off Interstates I-81 and I-40 and are easily accessible with several public and private access points.

Are you a water sports enthusiast? Both lakes have marinas that offer boat, paddleboard, jet ski, and other water activity rentals that you can take advantage of during your stay.

CHEROKEE LAKE

Cherokee Lake offers picturesque views with a backdrop of rolling hillsides. It's the perfect place for boating, swimming, and fishing.

Historical Sites

ARE YOU A HISTORY ENTHUSIAST? JEFFERSON COUNTY HAS A RICH HISTORY TO SHARE WITH YOU! DURING YOUR STAY, WE HOPE THAT YOU TAKE SOME TIME TO EXPLORE OUR AREA.

Glenmore Mansion

1280 North Chucky Pike
Jefferson City, TN 37760
865-475-5014
glenmoremansion.com

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places since 1973, Glenmore Mansion draws thousands of visitors a year for tours and to enjoy the natural beauty and interesting history of the unique home and its surrounding gardens and property. Glenmore Mansion is indeed a Victorian treasure of East Tennessee, and a must-visit attraction for history lovers coming through Jefferson County, appreciators of unique architecture, and even visitors hoping to meet a ghost.

Jefferson County Courthouse

202 W Main Street
Dandridge, TN 37725

A staple of our county seat since 1845, our courthouse now holds a county museum and records dating back to 1792. The museum in the courthouse features a visual representation of the history of the county from 1792 to present. Exhibits of interest include 1806 marriage bond of Davy Crockett & Polly Finley, a replica of Davy Crockett's long rifle, a myriad of military artifacts from various wars, Native American tools and weapons, and more.

To learn more, contact the Dandridge Visitor's Center at 137 E. Main Street, Dandridge, TN 37725 or call 865-397-7420.

CIVIL WAR TRAIL

As you explore our area keep your eyes peeled for historical landmarks with information on Civil War battles that took place in Jefferson County, including the Battle of Dandridge which took place in downtown Dandridge.

DANDRIDGE WALKING TOUR

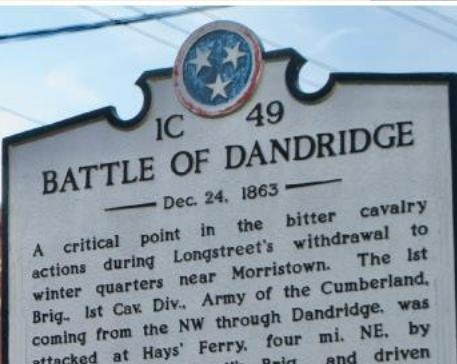

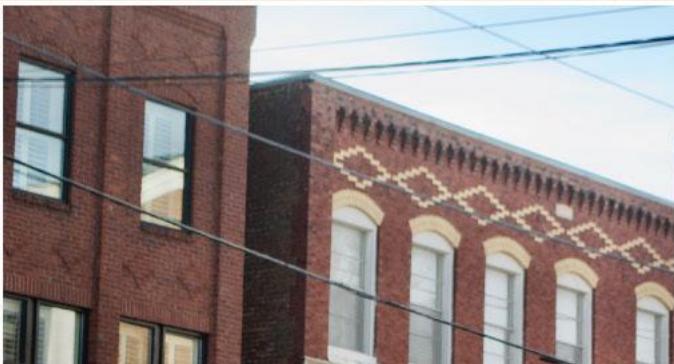

Visit the Historic Dandridge Visitors' Center for a self-guided tour brochure. You'll learn all about the history of Tennessee's second oldest town, while also getting to view a variety of historic landmarks such as the original taverns and the dike that saved Dandridge.

THE APPALACHIAN QUILT TRAIL

On barns and homes throughout Appalachia, you'll find beautifully constructed "quilt squares" in a variety of colors and patterns, each telling its own unique story. Learn more about the vibrant history of the quilt squares in Jefferson County by visiting our website.

DID YOU KNOW THAT THE FAMED BUSH BEAN CO. STARTED RIGHT HERE IN JEFFERSON COUNTY? DOWN THE ROAD FROM DANDRIDGE IN CHESTNUT HILL, TENNESSEE, IS WHERE YOU CAN LEARN ALL ABOUT THE HISTORY, THE BEANS, AND HOW THEY HAVE CONTINUED TO GROW FOR OVER 110 YEARS.

See where it all began when you take a free tour of the Bush's Museum. You'll learn about the Bush family and how they grew their small business into the world-famous company it is today. Across from the Visitors Center, you'll see the AJ & Sallie Bush homeplace, the home where AJ Bush entered the canning industry. During your visit, eating at Bush's Café is a must! They have a wide range of food options, including—of course—beans. We highly suggest grabbing a slice of the pinto bean pie – we promise it won't disappoint! On your way out don't forget to grab a souvenir from the General Store, which stands where the original store was built back in 1911.

BIG CITY BENEFITS... SMALL TOWN CHARM!

Retire

Jefferson County offers you many of the benefits available in a major city, but without the hustle and bustle of it all. Our area has continued to be one of the most popular destinations for retirees looking to live the good life.

We're just down the road from Knoxville, a neighbor to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, and home to hundreds of miles of shoreline between Cherokee and Douglas Lakes.

Here are a few of the top reasons to call Jefferson County home during your retirement:

- High Quality of Life & Low Cost of Living
- No State/Local Income Tax
- No Tax on Pensions
- Low Property Taxes
- Enjoy Lakeside Living on Cherokee or Douglas
- Low Utilities Costs
- Four Distinct Mild Seasons
- Things to Do When Guests Visit
- Scenic Beauty
- Outdoor Adventures
- Limited Traffic in a Laidback Atmosphere
- Close to Several Destinations:
 - Gatlinburg
 - Knoxville
 - Asheville
 - and more

Jefferson County is home to Tennova Jefferson Memorial Hospital, a nationally acclaimed acute care facility with over 200 affiliated physicians and 300 associates. It's won several awards including Thomson-Reuters 100 Top Hospitals, Everest Award Winner, and Becker's Hospital Review's 20 Best Community Hospitals in America.

FIND A PLACE TO CALL HOME

Whether it's the lake or mountain cabin you have always dreamed of, or the condo with no maintenance, let our local realtors provide you with their expertise and care to make your move a smooth transition. They will be sure to provide you with insight that only a local can provide.

MAKE JEFFERSON COUNTY YOUR HOME BASE FOR YOUR TRUE EAST TENNESSEE VACATION!

The Lakeside of the Smokies is minutes from everything. In one day, you can go from hiking in Cade's Cove to exploring downtown Knoxville. Find yourself in East Tennessee, a region abounding in natural beauty, adventure, culture, and family fun. There's so much to do!

SMOKY MOUNTAIN ATTRACTIONS AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Jefferson County is just 30 minutes down the road from Smoky Mountain attractions like Dollywood, Splash Country, Pigeon Forge, Gatlinburg, and more! This also includes popular hiking trails like Clingmans Dome, Rainbow Falls, LeConte, and Chimney Tops. The best part is you can be in the mountains, without all the traffic associated with staying in the immediate area.

EXPLORE A NEW CITY

Our location is central to several iconic Southeastern cities, such as Asheville, NC; Knoxville, TN; Chattanooga, TN; Abingdon, VA; and Nashville, TN.

Asheville and Knoxville are both known for their food and beverage scenes, both boasting a variety of local eateries and breweries. Chattanooga is home to the Chattanooga Choo Choo and Lookout Mountain, which are fun historical attractions. It's also home to the Tennessee Aquarium which is situated along the Tennessee River. Abingdon, VA, has the Virginia Creeper Trail which has long been a destination for cycling and nature enthusiasts. Then there's Nashville aka Music City. This city has played an important role in music history, specifically country music.

Travel time to these locations varies, but all are under 3 hours and could be done as a day trip during your visit or added as a stop along the way.
