The Story Behind Our In-Flight Menu

CAYMAN ISLANDS NATIONAL ARCHIVE COLLECTION XG DI 8387

Our In-Flight Menu draws its name from the iconic PBY Catalina seaplane, flown by aviation pioneer Owen “Bobby” Roberts, whose landings in the early 1950s ushered in a new era of air travel for the Cayman Islands.

In that same pioneering spirit, each cocktail here is a signature creation by one of our six bartenders. Every member of our crew has crafted a drink that reflects their own perspective and craft. Sip your way through the menu and enjoy the journey.
