ORT Jet carries on, focussing on helping businesses, with all sorts of initiatives to prop up businesses and make them flourish as much as possible. The ORT Jet team has stepped up during these times, where they continuously look to grow and sustain small to medium-sized businesses and look for new tools and initiatives to assist them through these challenging times. Well done to our most amazing team and our mentors for their precious time and their dedication to helping others in need. To our mentees, look ahead, be diligent, be positive and you'll get there!
