Our masthead scene for this edition of the Winnebago Indian News features the Jr Boys Grass category dancing in grand entry at the 155th Annual Winnebago Homecoming Celebration Powwow at Veteran's Memorial Park in Winnebago, NE. Due to the pandemic, the celebration was held for 3-days from July 23rd through July 25th, 2021.

Closure of Dollar General in Winnebago Calls for Community Support

[Winnebago, NE] The Winnebago Tribal Council recently addressed the community following the temporary closure of the local Dollar General due to an electrical fire. Recognizing that this loss, paired with rising fuel costs, creates a significant burden, especially for the elders and those with limited transportation. Tribal leadership is mobilizing resources across multiple departments to ensure every household maintains access to food, water, and essential supplies.

To bridge the gap left by the store's closure, the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska Transportation and Human Services departments have launched community grocery runs. Every Tuesday and Friday, a shuttle will depart at 9:00 AM from the Neola Walker Building, (located at 218 Industrial Rd), for a two-hour shopping trip to Sioux City, IA. Pre-registration is required due to capacity limited to six riders per trip. Residents in Winnebago can sign up by contacting Emilee Harris at (775)385-3750 or email: emilee.harris@winnebagotribe.com.

Additionally, the Winnebago Senior Center continues weekly Wednesday transportation for elders to South Sioux City, NE, and Sioux City, IA, specifically timed to accommodate various benefit deposit dates throughout the month. For more information, contact Bobbie Wolfe at (402)745-3957.

Access to clean water and affordable food remains a top priority. A water distribution event took place on Thursday, April 30, and Friday, May 1, behind the Blackhawk Community Center parking lot. The WTN Procurement department distributed two cases of water per household. Assistance was provided by Community Health Representatives (CHRs) and staff at the Senior Center by delivering to medical clients and elders.

Other resources that are currently available include WTN Wildlife & Parks department currently offers reduced-priced bison meat for $4/lb. for ground, $5/lb. for roast, and $12/pack for bison steak; payments are accepted by money order or credit card only. While supplies last, stop by their office located at 125 1/2 600 E Ave Hwy 75 in Winnebago. For more information, contact (402)878-2362 or visit: <https://winnebagotribe.com/wildlife-parks/>

The Pony Express in North Winnebago has increased its inventory and restocking frequency. There is currently a variety of food items now available, including a new frozen food addition with pizza and other easy to prep options; WIC and EBT are also accepted. Sweet Water Café located

On May 5th, the 5th grade Dual Language class, ESU1 Staff, and Mr. Craig's 5th grade students hosted their own prayer vigil in honor of Missing, Murdered Indigenous Women/ Relatives and the families affected. WPS students wore red in remembrance. On May 4th, Red Sky Nation also held their 5th Annual MMIR March in Sioux City, IA.

On April 30th, the Winnebago Public School held a grand opening/blessing for their new Resource Center. This addition is a multifunctional space for learning, growing opportunities, and overall support. The building features a convention-like meeting space, observation rooms, and admin offices.

On April 18th, Ho-Chunk, Inc. Worked with the Sioux City Bandits to have their 4th annual community night. Over 400 tickets were donated to the Winnebago community; those in attendance got a special halftime performance by Winnebago dancers and the New Breed drum group.

Redefining Community Care with the Wazoki Program

By Bethani Redhorn
Photography by Bethani Redhorn

[Winnebago, NE] In the Ho-Chunk tradition, Wazoki means kinship. It is a word that carries the weight of history, the warmth of family, and the promise of a future where no mother or child walks alone. Today, the Wazoki Program is turning that ancient concept into modern action, revitalizing Ho-Chunk culture through maternal and child health.

The program recently celebrated reaching a full team status. Each member brings a unique connection to the community and shares dedication to the families they serve. Charisse Bass (Project Coordinator) is a member of the Winnebago Tribe, is from the Water Spirit Clan, and has been with the program for nearly two years. She is the daughter of Jean Redhorn and Dan Owen. She views Wazoki as a bridge between modern healthcare and Ho-Chunk traditions, focusing on bringing ceremonies back to the birthing journey.

Mimike Dolezal (Doula/Case Manager) is a member of the Winnebago Tribe, a member of the Bear Clan, and is the first point of contact for mothers in the program. Since starting in February, she has already enrolled six mothers, acting as the vital link between families and their doulas. Nannette Cline (Doula) is an enrolled member of the Omaha Tribe, from the Bear Clan, and the daughter of Idelle Freemont and Henry Cline. Nannette provides hands-on support for mothers before, during, and after birth. Shalisse Cline (Doula) is also enrolled in the Omaha Tribe, a member of the Bear Clan, and is the sister of Nannette. Shalisse recently transferred from the Cherishing Families program; she brings a wealth of experience in family dynamics to her new role as a doula. Aaliah Curry (Doula) is an enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe, from the Bear Clan, and daughter of Alicia Whitebear and Aaron Curry. She has been instrumental in the program's recent event planning, including the Autism Acceptance walk/chalk, movie night.

This past April, Wazoki made history by hosting the community's first-ever Autism Acceptance event. The team focused on creating a space where families on the spectrum felt truly seen. The event featured a walk and chalk at the Land of Wellness, where families gathered to draw and walk together. To ensure the environment was inclusive, the team carefully planned for sensory sensitivities which included bubbles and glow sticks, providing tactile and visual engagement. A sensory-friendly movie screening was held at the big screen to accommodate those sensitive to loud noises. Local mothers expressed deep gratitude, noting that for many, it was the first time they felt comfortable bringing their children to a public event without fear of judgement or sensory overload.

Wazoki's reach extends beyond infancy. The program is rolling out several "Safe Sitter" courses to ensure safety across all ages. The Safe Sitters course is for 6th graders and up to learn the basics of childcare. They also offer Safe at Home, this course is for 4th through 6th graders, staying home with siblings. A special course for grandparents includes a grandma/grandpa Refresher, helping in Ho-Chunk Village offers options for fresh produce and ground beef, including eggs, milk, fresh fruit and vegetables, and loaves of bread. Also located in Ho-Chunk Village, a five-gallon water refilling station is available at the HCI Distribution Building. For a small fee, you can refill your water containers from 8:00 AM to 12:00 PM, Monday through Thursday.

For those looking to save on travel, there is an option to explore Walmart+ Grocery Delivery. This service provides free delivery of essentials directly to your door, and those receiving SNAP or Medicaid may be eligible for membership at a discount. Furthermore, WTN Food Distribution is preparing to host a pop-up food pantry (dates to be announced). Eligible residents who meet FDPRI income guidelines and do not receive SNAP can apply for regular assistance by calling (833)568-5989.

While the community adapts, the Winnebago Public Health Department (WPHD) is working closely with Dollar General's corporate office. The facility is undergoing strict remediation and thorough cleaning. Tribal leaders emphasized that the store will only reopen once the Environmental Health team conducts a comprehensive walk-through and confirms the building meets all tribal health and safety standards.

"During times like these, the strength of the Winnebago people is most evident in how we care for one another. We want to extend our sincere appreciation to those who have already stepped up to help. We encourage everyone to continue checking on your neighbors, relatives, and especially our elders. Whether it's sharing a ride, picking up extra supplies, or simply checking in, your effort to assist one another makes a tremendous difference while we work towards a solution." Shared in the statement by Winnebago Tribal Council.

**Editor's Note: The WTN Communications team shares announcements and current updates in the community via social media, the community big screen, through the Winnebago Indian News, and over the airwaves of the Big Voice Radio. We kindly ask the community to help us in getting out the word about these resources currently available and check on your relatives, share this information with your loved ones. grandparents brush up on modern safety techniques. Dacia Gorin (Administrative Assistant/Training Officer) is in partnership with the Wazoki program to coordinate the Safe Sitters course and helps with anything that is needed.

The Wazoki program is open to families living on the reservation. To qualify, the mother or father must be an enrolled tribal member. To get started, reach out directly if you are expecting or have a newborn. Family referrals are accepted; grandparents, aunts, or uncles are encouraged to reach out on behalf of their loved ones. Connect with the Wazoki program at the upcoming Health Fair on May 29, 2026, as they will have a booth set up for recruitment information and to meet the team in person! For more information, you can call (402)747-3950 or visit the Winnebago Comprehensive Healthcare System website: www.wchs.health

As the program enters its second year, the focus remains on collaboration. By working alongside WIC, the Public Health Nursing (PHN) team, and Cherishing Families, Wazoki is ensuring a warm handoff of care as children grow. Whether it's through music bingo, elder portraits, or prenatal group classes, Wazoki is proving that when the community comes together, it stays strong. For those living on the reservation, the program is an open door to support, culture, and kinship.

JESUS OUR SAVIOR

LUTHERAN OUTREACH

By: Pastor Ricky Jacob

'The Only True Comfort'

And you [singular] will say on that day, "I will give thanks (to) you, O YAHWEH, [Hebrew: Creator God] for (although) you were angry at me, your anger has turned back, and you have comforted me" [Isaiah 12:1 Andrew Bartelt translation]!

'On that day' - you might be wondering - on which day? I do not think that Isaiah is referring to one and only one day. Time and time again, we have lived our lives in direct opposition to Creator God and to walking in His ways, doing His will.

Time and time again, Creator God becomes angry with you and with me. We should on a daily basis come to Him humbly and repent of our sin. We are encouraged to gather with other brother and sisters in Christ and enter in one of Creator God's houses each week.

When one comes to the realization of his or her sin - and how angry Creator God is with you and with me - one should give thanks that Creator God is merciful. Since we heard the Good News from Isaiah: 'and you have comforted me.'

Isaiah lived and served Creator God as one of His prophets from about 742 to 690 BC. It was in 722 BC, during his days, that the Assyrians would descend upon the ten northern tribes of Israel and massacre them. Those who survived were taken into captivity and intermarried with people of various nations; as well as Assyrian captives of other nations would be driven to the land of Samaria (northern Israel). It appeared that there would be no reason to comfort a people who had worshipped false gods, idols and even sacrificed their own children.

And yet, did you hear the words that Isaiah proclaimed about Creator God's anger being turned back. In fact, while Creator God's anger was turned back from punishing you and me, it came down unmercifully upon His one and only Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus endured the FULL FORCE of the WRATH of God as he completed his combat mission. Jesus, the spiritual warrior that he was, gave the ultimate in order that those who believe in him would be set free.

This is what Isaiah goes on to write: "Here is the God of my salvation. I will trust and not fear! For my strength and [my] protection is YAHWEH! And he has become my salvation" [Isaiah 12:2 Andrew Bartelt translation].

'My strength and my protection' sure sounds like a warrior to me. Jesus is the one in whom one has the blessed assurance and the true comfort of salvation. It is not up to you or to me. It is whether one has a relationship with one's Creator.

Now when it comes to one's relationship with Creator God is to place one's faith in Him and in the One he sent, Jesus our Warrior Savior. You should realize that one is either walking with Jesus leading as a Warrior Shepherd; or you are going against Creator God. When one rebels against one's parents, or those in authority, then one is also going against Creator God. When one lies, or steals, or covets, or has malice or envy, then one is going against Creator God's will.

Such rebellious ways - although allowed by Creator God - does not ever bring one to find comfort or peace. It is the opposite - when one in his or her independence - that is allowed by Creator God - one will never find comfort.

When one is overwhelmed by anger, or by grief, or by heart ache, or brokenness - seeking comfort in anything outside of God's mercy and grace will only add to one's insecurity, anger, emptiness, despair and turmoil.

On the other hand, Isaiah points you and me to the only source of true comfort. This comfort comes as one draws near to Creator God. The good news is that Creator God offers His comfort in spite of our past. This only true comfort is a blessing that is extended to you and received through faith in Jesus the Savior of all those who trust in him.

HAKWEWE

Question of the Issue:

April showers bring May flowers.” They say to give people their flowers while we still can. Who would you like to give flowers to and why?

GARAN: I’m giving flowers to every mom I know. They spend years making sure we don’t ‘wilt’ right? Happy Mother’s Day!

KEVIN: If I could give flowers to anyone, it would be my mother Mary Leedon-McKeegan. I haven’t seen her alive since January 11, 1989. More than anything, I’d want to give her a big bear hug and just hear her voice one more time. She was my everything growing up — my biggest supporter, my motivator, the person who always knew exactly what to say when life got heavy. Her talks didn’t just sound good... they hit my soul and stayed with me long after the conversation ended. I still remember her graduation speech, I wasn’t doing well my senior year and wasn’t going to graduate she told me the only thing she ever wanted from me was to graduate high school, she said I don’t care what else it is you do, I just want you to graduate for me. I ended up getting a scholarship to DWU in Mitchell, SD, and played football for them. Even though I didn’t play much, she only missed one game, but my stepdad was able to make it to that one.

CHRISTINA: Well of course my mother, she always enjoys when people bring her flowers.

BETHANI: I am giving two sets of flowers, to my two little brothers, Bradley and Bronson Redhorn. Growing up, my mom would always stress being here for each other and having eachothers backs. As adults, I could not be more thankful that we do just that. They held me up during the hardest times of my life, I will forever have the most love and respect for them. They have blessed me with the most amazing nieces and nephews, they’re the best Tegas to my boys Ethan & Frank. They’ve been through so much in their lives and they deserve the best, I am proud of the men they are today and I am so grateful I get to be their cool big sister! =>

TYLER: Since it’s almost Mother’s Day, I would like to give flowers to all mothers and guardians. Taking care of children is a job in itself and sometimes a little recognition means the world! <3

GAYLA:I’m giving my flowers to all the Indigenous students and graduates out there: college, high school, junior high, preschool, vocational/technical school. Navigating colonial systems while dealing with struggles at home, intergenerational trauma, and the pressure of being a cycle breaker is not easy. Every diploma and certificate earned by our people represents resilience, survival, and perseverance. When I graduated high school, my Cōka, a Hōçak veteran, gifted me an eagle feather. At the time, I didn’t feel deserving of it, but I understand now that navigating school as wākšik is its own kind of battle worth honoring. Seeing our Indigenous youth and adults continue striving for a better future makes me incredibly proud and hopeful for the generations coming after us.

QUINCE: My answer to that question has an easy answer. I would definitely give my dad, Greg Bass Sr., my flowers. I’d rather have my dad see and receive some rare but beautiful flowers. He’s planted hundreds of thousands of flowers in his lifetime to make our community and his home a pretty place to see with your own eyes. Not to mention, he has an obsession with bringing my mom fresh bouquets of flowers. I feel he deserves the best of the best.

Vision Maker Media Announces New Series for Public Television “First Peoples, First Stories” Features Films from Young Native Filmmakers

Submitted by Chris Kelly

LINCOLN, NE – April 21, 2026 – Vision Maker Media (VMM), the premier source of media by and about Native Americans, announces First Peoples, First Stories, a new series distributed by American Public Television. The series will begin airing on public television in May 2026.

“As Vision Maker Media celebrates fifty years of supporting Native film and filmmakers, our newest series, First Peoples, First Stories, spotlights the impressive talents of a new generation of Indigenous storytellers,” says Vision Maker Media president and CEO Francene Blythe-Lewis (Sisseton-Wahpeton Dakota, Diné, Eastern Band Cherokee). “Each of the short films featured in the series comes from artists who have participated in one or more of Vision Maker Media’s filmmaker development programs, which offer both mentorship opportunities and financial support. We are excited to share their impressive work with public television viewers.”

The inaugural season of First Peoples, First Stories includes four episodes, each featuring a pair of short films by noteworthy emerging Native filmmakers. The first two episodes, listed below, will air in the Spring, with the following two episodes airing this Fall.

Episode 1: Cold Nights & Connection

troubled home life, a young Blackfeet woman finds refuge on the buffalo ranch of her Auntie and, in learning to care for the buffalo, begins to heal from the wounds that led her there.

Four Nights and a Fire by filmmaker Alex Nystrom (Ojibwe): A young Ojibwe photographer stubbornly takes on the responsibility of keeping a sacred fire alive for four consecutive days and nights in mourning for his father. His father’s spirit tries to reach him from the other side.

Episode 2: The Ties That Bind

Iná by filmmaker Lonnie Begaye (Diné): A high school senior works to fix his grandfather’s old truck to get his grandmother to the annual Navajo Nation fair for the last time before she takes her journey.

The Love for the Game by filmmaker Josiah W. Jones (Apache, Chickasaw, Choctaw, Ohkay Owingeh, Kiowa): An injured basketball player, who has lost his love for the game, is guided by an unlikely source, as he tries to reconnect with his younger sister.

Higher Education Spotlight

Kiana Lewis is the daughter of Tina Lewis and the granddaughter of the late Wanda Lewis (Lincoln). She is an enrolled member of the Winnebago Tribe of Nebraska and a part of the Bear Clan. Her great-grandparents are Eunice Crosby and Levi Lincoln. Kiana is a graduate of Winnebago Public Schools, where she earned the distinction of Salutatorian for the Class of 2020.

Kiana is a first-generation college graduate whose journey reflects commitment to her family, community, future generations, and advancing leadership and opportunity within her Tribe. She recently earned her Master of Science in Organizational Management from Peru State College, with an emphasis in strategic leadership and communication. In addition, she will be earning a Certificate of Advanced Studies in entrepreneurial and economic development, further strengthening her expertise in leadership, strategic communication, and community-centered economic growth. She previously earned her Bachelor of Science in early childhood and family studies from Wayne State College in December 2023.

She currently works in corporate communications at Ho-Chunk, Inc., where she develops strategic messaging, supports organizational initiatives, and leads community outreach efforts across a diversified portfolio of businesses. Her work focuses on strengthening communication between the organization and its stakeholders, promoting opportunities, and supporting economic development initiatives. As part of this work, she developed and implemented a communications strategy to increase awareness of internship opportunities, contributing to a record-breaking 654 applicants for the summer internship program.

Kiana serves as Chair of the Hōçak Nīšoc Hacı Youth Council, where she leads initiatives focused on youth leadership, cultural connection, and community engagement, while ensuring that youth voices are represented at tables where decisions directly impact them. She also serves on the Board of Education at Winnebago Public Schools, where she was elected as the youngest member in board history. In this role, she helps guide district priorities, supports policy development, participates in budget and resource allocation decisions, and advocates for student success and educational opportunities. She is actively involved in discussions that shape curriculum, school improvement efforts, and long-term planning to ensure a strong future for students and the Winnebago community.

Kiana’s endeavors are rooted in her belief that education is a powerful tool for change and a pathway to uplift her community. She will continue to draw on her lived experiences and education to empower youth voices, strengthen her Tribe, and help shape the future of the Winnebago people while continuing to grow as a leader. Her long-term goals include serving in roles that create meaningful impact for her people, including positions in tribal governance and public service.

WCHS Strengthens Emergency Preparedness Through Trainings

By: Halle Murray, Marketing Specialist

Winnebago, NE – Winnebago Comprehensive Healthcare System (WCHS) recently took part in emergency preparedness trainings aimed at strengthening response efforts. These trainings help ensure staff stay up to date on best practices and are prepared to respond effectively in emergencies, supporting overall community health and safety.

Last week, over 30 employees participated in a Regional Medical Response Surge Functional Exercise, placing teams in a realistic scenario involving civil unrest and a sudden influx of patients. The exercise focused on testing emergency response plans and strengthening communication. Departments also worked through simulated challenges such as staffing shortages, security concerns, and resource management in a real-time environment.

This past month, WCHS also facilitated a Hospital Decontamination workshop, which combined virtual learning with hands-on training. Participants gained critical skills in identifying hazardous materials exposure, properly using personal protective equipment (PPE), and establishing decontamination zones. The training also included a live scenario where teams practiced setting up decontamination equipment and safely responding to mock patients in a controlled environment.

“These trainings are essential to ensuring our teams are ready to respond quickly and effectively in high-pressure situations,” said Jesse Padilla, WCHS Safety Officer. “We are strengthening our collective ability to respond to a wide range of emergency scenarios.”

Both exercises highlight an ongoing commitment to preparedness and patient safety. By investing in these exercises, WCHS continues to build a stronger, more resilient healthcare system ready to respond to a wide range of emergency scenarios.

Summer Internship

Join our Public Health Team

- Must have descended from or be enrolled in a federally recognized tribe. Preference to Winnebago Tribal members.
- Must have completed 1 and be enrolled in the next semester of or have graduated > 1 year ago from an accredited college or university.
- Preference given to students majoring in health-related fields.

This Internship will strengthen the Winnebago's tribe's healthcare infrastructure, and foster careers in public health, while providing practical skills and diverse perspectives. We want to mentor two future health professionals by teaching them to apply scientific knowledge alongside Indigenous wisdom in the development of their assigned projects.
