REINVENTING REAL ESTATE ONE RELATIONSHIP AT A TIME

My goal is to reinvent real estate... one relationship at a time. As a buying and listing real estate adviser who specializes in residential properties, emphasizing detailed attention to client needs is paramount. This is the key in ensuring a relationship is strong, focused, and efficient.

Buying and selling can be incredibly wonderful, as with most things in life, not without the possibility of the unexpected! There is an old cliché that reminds us that sometimes we are so focused on the finish line, that we forget to enjoy the journey. Ultimately, you have to know what works best for you on the journey. This can be a really powerful thing to remember when choosing a real estate advisor. The geography is something that is navigable. The home is a structure that can be altered to your needs. The memories you create will last a lifetime. Make sure you have a Realtor whose key values are your goals, your interests, and your happiness. If you have a shared goal in vision, it will be an amazing partnership, and one you will be happy to make together.

Whether you would like to expand your real estate knowledge, gain specifics on a property, begin detailing the ins and outs of the selling or buying process, or virtually anything in between. Please don't hesitate to allow me to be your resource. I would love to help you make a move in the right direction with my keys for a successful and enjoyable real estate experience!

..The Key to an amazing experience! Buying a home is easily the biggest transaction most of us make. You need a trusted advisor who knows that it's not just about getting the keys at closing, but also navigating the process with a common goal and vision! When choosing me as your trusted real estate advisor, these key factors will lay the foundation for a successful and happy partnership:

- 🔑 My Passion and Enthusiasm for real estate and people
- 🔑 My Focus on you and/or your family's interests, happiness, and long-term goals
- 🔑 My desire to Create a Connection that fosters relationships that outlast the closing signatures
- 🔑 My personal and professional Commitment to excellence, honor and integrity
- 🔑 My love of being a Lifelong Learner: Ever expanding knowledge and Real Estate Expertise

BUYER CONSULTATION

A buyer consultation is your first meeting with me, and marks the start of your home buying journey.

During this meeting, I will outline the homebuying process, explain my role and responsibilities to you as your real estate agent, review the necessary paperwork, and answer any questions.

To establish an effective and efficient working relationship, we will determine your priorities, explore your wants and needs in your new home, and identify your ideal timeline. Having this information from the start will allow me to help you move forward confidently as we explore each step of the process.

Before you can officially begin your search, you will need to gain pre-approval for a mortgage loan if you will need financing. If you do not have a mortgage advisor, I will connect you with one of my mortgage partners to complete the pre-approval process and identify the right mortgage for you.

YOUR REAL ESTATE AGENT'S ROLE

A real estate agent's job is to help guide you through the complexities of buying or selling a property. You need to think about financing, appraisals, inspections, closings and more. As your agent, I am committed to protecting your interests throughout the entire transaction with integrity, honor, professionalism, and expertise.

AS A BUYER, YOUR REAL ESTATE AGENT WILL...

- 🔑 Along with a local, professional loan officer, help you determine how much home you can afford, explain financing options, and help you find the right loan and local mortgage lender
- 🔑 Explain earnest money deposits and your negotiation strategy
- 🔑 Assist in your home search through the local Multiple Listing Service
- 🔑 Schedule property showings
- 🔑 Provide objective data about each property, including information you might not realize is available
- 🔑 Help structure purchase offers that meet the terms and conditions you require
- 🔑 Negotiate and help resolve any issues that arise with the transaction that could delay closing or void the contract

Exclusive Professional Representation

Why? Short answer is that In the state of Virginia a buyer is required to sign a brokerage agency agreement. The longer answer is that having something in writing... whether it covers a single property or a months-long relationship ... is required. Once a real estate licensee and a member of the public have agreed to work together to sell, purchase, lease or manage real estate, they must put their agreement in writing in the form of a brokerage agreement before the agent can begin to perform a licensed activity. The purpose of the law is to help keep consumers fully informed about the real estate services they will receive and the nature of their relationship with the licensee. It removes ambiguity and puts everyone on the same page.

REALTORS® AND REAL ESTATE AGENTS

A real estate agent's job is to help guide you through the complexities of buying or selling a property. But not everyone with a real estate license is a REALTOR®. A REALTOR® is not just a real estate licensee, but is also a member of the National Association of REALTORS®.

What's the difference? REALTORS® must meet stricter education requirements than the law requires, and they are bound not only by that law, but by the higher standard of the REALTOR® Code of Ethics.

That's why only REALTORS® are allowed to use the famous REALTOR® "R".

Your REALTOR® is committed to protecting your interests throughout the entire transaction with the integrity, honor, professionalism, and expertise that meets the high standards set by the "REALTOR®" name. And REALTORS® have access to more and more sophisticated tools to help sellers market their properties to the right audience, help buyers find just the right home, and make the entire process run smoothly.

You'll find your REALTOR® isn't just an expert on your local real estate market, but also a trusted advisor who can help you navigate a complex transaction. All Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Towne Realty Agents are REALTORS®

WHY YOU WANT BUYER REPRESENTATION

Buying a home is a monumental step in your life, filled with excitement and complexity. As an experienced REALTOR®, I am here to provide essential guidance and unmatched expertise to ensure your homebuying journey is smooth and successful.

MARKET INSIGHT

Understanding the nuances of the local market is crucial. My extensive knowledge of Hampton Roads allows me to offer insights on neighborhood dynamics, market trends, and property values, ensuring you make well-informed decisions, whether you're a first-time homebuyer or a seasoned investor.

STRATEGIC NEGOTIATION SKILLS

Securing the best deal requires more than just a keen eye—it demands skilled negotiation and a steadfast advocate. I represent your interests fiercely, navigating offers, counteroffers, repairs, and contingencies to secure the most favorable terms for you.

EXCLUSIVE PROPERTY ACCESS

Gain access to a broad network of listings, including properties that may not yet be on the market. My connections can provide you with unique opportunities to find your ideal home before others do, giving you an edge in the competitive market.

PROFESSIONAL NETWORK

I have cultivated strong relationships with industry professionals, including mortgage brokers, home inspectors, appraisers, contractors, and attorneys. I will connect you with reliable and trustworthy service providers, ensuring a smooth and efficient buying process.

SEAMLESS TRANSACTION MANAGEMENT

I coordinate with all parties involved, managing deadlines, paperwork, and potential issues to minimize stress. My proactive approach ensures the process moves forward smoothly, whether it's a cash purchase or financed transaction.

MARKET
EXPERTISE

Before you make an offer, I will thoroughly analyze comparable properties to determine the fair market value of your desired home, ensuring you don't overpay. It's important to consider various factors beyond the sales price, such as closing costs, repairs, and the settlement date, which all affect the overall cost and are difficult to assess through public records or real estate websites. Market dynamics, including inventory levels, price points, and location, influence the balance of leverage between buyers and sellers. These factors can change rapidly, making the expertise of a real estate professional invaluable. With my guidance, you'll navigate these complexities with confidence and secure the best possible deal.

COMPREHENSIVE GUIDANCE AND SUPPORT

Navigating the homebuying process of intricate steps and extensive paperwork, legalities, and deadlines in home buying can be daunting. I guide you through each phase, from drafting an offer, to reviewing contracts, closing the deal, and ensuring you understand and complete every requirement smoothly. This level of support mitigates risks, helping you avoid unfavorable outcomes.

ONGOING
SUPPORT

My commitment extends beyond the closing table signatures. I am here to assist with any future real estate needs, whether it's home improvement advice or managing future transactions. My goal is to be your lifelong real estate resource.

TRUSTED
ADVISOR

Jennifer Dawn, REALTOR® is dedicated to being your trusted advisor. I provide the expertise, guidance, and support needed for confident decision-making, ensuring a successful and satisfying homebuying experience.

Overall, my goal as a real estate agent is to be your trusted advisor, providing you with the expertise, guidance, and support you need to make confident decisions and find the perfect home. I am dedicated to helping you navigate the complexities of the real estate market and ensuring a successful and satisfying homebuying experience

■ What is a buyer's representative?

Defined most simply, a buyer's representative is an advocate for the buyer—not the seller—in a real estate transaction. Real estate laws and regulations vary from state to state, but buyer's representatives usually owe full fiduciary (legal) duties, including loyalty and confidentiality, to their buyer-clients and must act in their clients' interests throughout the entire transaction.

■ Why should I use a buyer's representative?

A buyer's representative can provide the expertise you need throughout the entire transaction, greatly improving your buying experience and potential results.

■ Why choose an accredited buyer's representative?

Not all buyer's representatives are equal. All REALTORS® (members of the National Association of REALTORS®, or NAR) must subscribe to a strict Code of Ethics, which helps ensure that you will be treated honestly.

But a REALTOR® with the ABR® designation has gone a step further, by completing Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR®) training, specialized education offered by the Center for REALTOR® Development (CRD).

In addition to knowing the dynamics of the local market, REALTORS® with the ABR® designation understand the special needs of buyers. They have additional knowledge and experience that take them a step beyond an agent who only concentrates on listing property for sellers. An ABR® can provide you with valued assistance throughout the transaction and help you make informed decisions that can lead to a successful home purchase.

■ How is a buyer's representative compensated?

Compensation for buyer representation is negotiable between buyer's representatives and the consumers they serve. The types of compensation available for buyer's representatives take multiple forms, depending on these broker–consumer negotiations. Types of compensation include, but are not limited to:

- ✓ A fixed-fee commission paid directly by consumers, including the buyer or seller.
- ✓ Concession from the seller to the buyer.
- ✓ Portion of the listing broker's compensation.

The seller may not be offering any compensation to the buyer's broker, either directly or through the listing brokerage, in which case you would be responsible for paying your buyer broker's compensation. If you don't have funds to pay your buyer broker compensation at closing, talk with your buyer's representative about your options.

Sellers may authorize their listing broker to offer compensation to a buyer broker, expressed as a percentage of the gross sales price or as a flat dollar amount. In some situations, however, the compensation offered by the listing broker is less than what is agreed to in the buyer's agreement.

If you find a house that you think is the perfect fit for you, but the offer of compensation is less than what is agreed to in the buyer's agreement, it may be possible for your buyer's representative to contact the listing broker before viewing the property to see if the listing broker would pay additional compensation to satisfy what is stipulated in the buyer's agreement.

STEP 2 Assess Your Credit and Finances

Financial considerations and preparations are central to any home purchase. So, getting a jump on your mortgage now can greatly alleviate headaches later. In addition, actions such as getting preapproved for a mortgage can put you in a better negotiating position when it's time to make an offer to a seller and can help you make better decisions about what you can afford in a home.

If you've already lined up a lender and secured a commitment on your mortgage, the process of closing will go much smoother.

STEP 3 Assess What You Want and Need in a Home

Finding a new home can be exciting. But deciding what you truly want and need begins with setting priorities among many different preferences, with the likelihood of making some trade-offs.

Your ABR® can play a key role in helping you sort out your options. He or she can also offer important insights specific to your local market.

Basic criteria

- Ideal price
- Total square footage
- Single-family detached, condominium, or other type of home
- Number of bedrooms
- Number of bathrooms
- Garage or parking space for cars(s)

STEP 4 Search for Your Home

Choosing a home often starts with selecting a neighborhood. It's important to choose a home and neighborhood that you and your family will enjoy living in, and one that would help future resale value if you should decide to move. If you prefer a particular neighborhood, you should share your preferences with your ABR®.

STEP 5 Negotiate Terms

When you've found a home that's right for you, it's time to make an offer. Depending on market conditions, you may have to act quickly, before another buyer steps ahead of you.

STEP 6 Obtain a Mortgage

If you've already done the legwork discussed in Step 2, you are one major step closer to obtaining a mortgage. Still, securing the actual mortgage is more complex, and often more expensive, than many consumers realize. There are numerous documents and details that must come together in a short period of time.

This is why it's important to select a reputable loan provider with a competent mortgage loan officer who is attentive to your needs. Your ABR® has helped other buyers work through the mortgage application process and can also provide valuable assistance.

STEP 7 Prepare for Closing Day

Your ABR® will help you stay on track with the many important details that must fall into place before you close on your home, including:

Home Inspections
Mortgage Finalization
Preparing to Move
Scheduling Final Walk-through
Preparing Closing Costs

STEP 8 Close

The actual, legal transfer of ownership is called the closing or settlement. Possession is usually transferred at closing too. In some scenarios, the seller may request to close the sale but retain possession of the home and pay rent to the buyer until vacating the property.

Published by the Center for REALTOR® Development for Accredited Buyer Representative

Jennifer Dawn

757.524.0417
2204 Hampton Blvd. Norfolk, VA 23517
JenniferDawnRealEstate.com
Jennifer@JenniferDawnRealEstate.com

Participants in the closing usually include:

- You, the buyer.
- The seller.
- The closing agent, the title insurance representative, and the escrow agent. (One person may fill all these roles, coordinating and recording the exchange of the documents and money, disbursing funds, and handling the details of the closing.)
- The real estate agents.
- Attorneys for the buyer and seller.

During the meeting, you'll sign many documents, including:

- A settlement statement—a kind of balance sheet of all the funds changing hands between the parties.
- The mortgage papers, detailing your obligation to the lender.
- Any additional documents required in your state.

You will need to provide your payment of closing costs, proof of insurance, and approval of the inspections.

Possession is usually transferred after all documentation has been signed and all monies paid. You then receive the keys to your home.

Note: Make sure you keep all your closing documents in a safe place. Some of the expenses associated with your home purchase may be tax deductible. But you'll need to share these important papers with your tax preparer to confirm details.

STEP 9 Move

After the contract has been signed and before the closing date is set, begin planning for moving day.

■ Costs

First-time and even repeat buyers can be surprised by the variety of expenses associated with moving, from packing materials and utility connections to insurance for your valuables and the actual cost of the movers, or truck rental. You can reduce many of the surprises and hassles of moving by investigating moving companies, estimating moving costs, and making a moving checklist early in the process.

When selecting a moving company, ask friends and family for recommendations. Call at least two companies for estimates, which should be cost- and obligation-free. You should expect professional movers to discuss your move in detail and provide recent references, including from the Better Business Bureau, especially if you didn't find the mover through a personal recommendation.

Client Experiences

The success of my clients is my success, and I am dedicated to not only meeting, but exceeding expectations. I pride myself on providing exceptional service with a personal touch while educating & navigating the process with a common goal & vision! With my expertise, dedication, passion, and advocacy for the industry, I am fully equipped to guide clients through every step of their journey.

"Very impressed with Jennifer Dawn's ability to make me feel both comfortable and protected from any stress during the buying process. Knowledgeable about every aspect, always returned calls, texts. This was a superb experience. If I were to sell my home, I would definitely be returning to her! I had been working with another realtor who kept showing us houses that were nowhere near what we wanted. I got immediate attention to what we wanted. We were never left hanging at any point. The service felt very personalized and I loved it. Even after there was a follow up - very impressive!"

-Richard and Laura, Buyer

"Working with Jennifer was a pleasure. I had a friend who recently had a terrible experience with a realtor from another firm. Because of that I was reluctant to use a realtor but when Jennifer and I met for the first time my concerns were completely alleviated. I couldn't be happier with my experience and with Jennifer. Her professionalism, knowledge and positive energy is refreshing. I can't say enough good things about Jennifer. I work for the Department of the Navy and I have co-workers who are constantly moving into and out of Hampton Roads I will be recommending Jennifer to them for all of their real estate needs. Jennifer made your company stand out. Again I can't say enough good things about her and how well she represents your company. Her professionalism, knowledge and positive energy is refreshing"

-Steve, Seller

"Right from the beginning I felt that Jennifer was someone that not only cared about her profession but the clients that she worked with. She was always and still is available no matter the reason and responds quickly to all forms of communication. Jennifer checks in on you to make sure that you have all the information or simply to say hello. Though the experience at times was stressful, Jennifer made it always better with her kind words and her encouraging and supporting character. She is personable and caring but more importantly professional! I would say the connection Jennifer makes with people [is] 1 example that made your company stand out from the others. To me it's about the rapport and connections that make any experience a positive one. She always stayed calm and was very confident in her work. She always followed through with what she set out to do."

-Niurka, Seller

Jennifer has been our realtor for years. She is very patient, kind, friendly, and very efficient. She was able to assist us in negotiation the best price point for our home purchase. We plan on using Jennifer in the future for additional home purchase/sales.

-Jeremy, Buyer

Jennifer was an absolute pleasure to work with. Her attention to detail ensures everything is taken care of during the entire process. Selling a house can be extremely stressful but Jennifer makes sure it's a smooth transition. Look no further and be sure to use Jennifer for your home buying or selling.

-Dave, Buyer

Literally the best agent you could ask for! Great communication skills, friendly and extremely knowledgeable in the field!

-Steve, Buyer

Jennifer's attention to detail, timely and clear communication, plus the ability to advocate effectively for her clients made our first house flip fly off the market in less than a week! We are so appreciative of her hard work on our behalf and would highly recommend her expertise to anyone who needs a strong partner in their real estate transactions.

-Nicole, Seller

Working with Jennifer is an exceptional experience, unless you don't like someone who will give you honest input, communicate frequently, will work with you on every aspect of your selling journey, and be a great cheerleader and coach throughout the experience. Our home sale was not straight forward, there were a few unique twists along the way. At each step, Jennifer's expertise and experience were on display and she was there to help us navigate them to get to a great final sale. She was diligent in following up with other realtors to keep conversations moving and was a strong negotiator when the situation called for it. In addition to all of that, she's truly a nice lady, in the real sense of the word! If we are ever relocating again and Jennifer is an option to use for buying or selling a home, she will be our first call. Thank you again, Jennifer!

-Karen, Seller

I met Miss Jennifer when my son passed away. He was stationed in VA and I live in WI; however we (my daughter and I) decided to look to the one person my son comfortable enough with to help him find a home. Because of not living in the area we have only met by voice and email but she made us feel like we were right there all along. She also, when needed had a crew of knowledgeable people who stepped up and assisted. I would definitely rate her abilities a 10! Thank you Miss Jennifer

-Teresa, Out of State Seller

Jennifer helped find me a place to live even while I was on the other side of the world on deployment!

-James, Deployed Buyer

Jennifer was truly exceptional. Jennifer is very knowledgeable, extremely organized, kind, and very informative. Her responsiveness to all our questions was incredible. Her positive energy made the whole selling process less stressful. She made us feel like we were working with close friend/family than a real estate agent. Jennifer does not stop caring after we sold our home. She made sure that we settled well. We highly recommend Jennifer to everyone who is looking to sell or buy a home.

-Noemi, Seller

Jennifer was great to work with. I loved that she listened to me and was able to help me find the home that I wanted to live in. Thank You So Much, you are a 5 Star Realtor!!!

-Beverly, Buyer

Jennifer was an absolute gem to work with. I have worked with her in purchasing my first home and selling my parents home. She always provided realistic expectations so there were no surprises. I was informed each step of the way with both of my experiences. She made my home-buying dream come to life. I'm so thankful for her. I highly recommend her for any real estate needs.

-Michelle, Buyer & Seller

Jennifer Dawn is the very best realtor I have every had the pleasure of working with. She stayed with me and walked me through the buying of my house and then selling it. I would not go to any other realtor. She did everything that was required of her and then she went above and beyond to make this a smooth transfer. You could text her any time of the day and afternoon and she will respond to you ASAP. She made sure everything was done, even when I wasn't sure, she'd say "don't worry about that, I got you" and she did. She'd call to make sure I was doing ok and asked if I needed anything. I always said "no" cuz I know a realtor life is very busy most of the time with other showings and talking to other people interested in either buying or putting their house up for sale. Jennifer Dawn I love you, thank you for everything, it was greatly appreciated.

-Cindy, Buyer & Seller

Jennifer was hands down the best at helping us sell our house!! It was our first time selling a house and with my husband being away she truly made things so easy for us!! It went so smoothly! She is truly one of a kind and will help you with all your home buying/selling needs. I can't to use her again!!

-Sierra, Seller

Jennifer is the best! Communicate very well, professional, very organized I am super happy with the service. I am for sure use her again with my soon home purchase and gladly refer to people that in need of a great Realstate agent. My house in the market for less than a week and it is sold.

-Joy, Seller

Jennifer Dawn is hands down the best realtor out there! We were out of town and it was a seamless process from start to finish. She took care of everything and kept us up to date with every step. She was professional, knowledgeable, and very efficient. We will use her again without a doubt.

-Matt, Out of State Seller

Jennifer is awesome!! Great to work with. Easy to talk to. Always goes over and beyond to make sure we are satisfied with our decision.

-Elizabeth Seller & Buyer

Jennifer was amazing to work with! She was extremely knowledgeable and responsive. She made the home buying process a breeze. I would absolutely recommend her for anyone looking to buy their next home!

-Melissa, Buyer & Seller

Where to start when reviewing a perfect experience? Jennifer really has it all – her overall knowledge of listing, publicizing, financing, contracts, and resources seems limitless. And that's just the real estate side of things! The bonus is her never-ending positive outlook on life that makes it a true pleasure to spend time with her. Our experience with Jennifer could not have been more enjoyable or profitable!!
