Jewish and Alive in Charlotte

Charlotte's Jewish Calendar 5785 (2024/25)

brought to you by

Chabad of Charlotte

Dear Friends,

“The candle of G-d is found in the human soul”. This is an oft quoted verse from the Book of Proverbs. The powerful message of this statement is that the Divine soul within us is inextinguishable as it is eternal.

For us, the Jewish people, our tumultuous history has shown time and again that the light of the Jewish soul continues to glow even in the darkest of times.

The Jewish world has been riveted by the events of October 7, when the forces of evil and darkness penetrated our sacred land with destructive force. Yet, despite the pain and loss, the light of Israel has not been dimmed. On the contrary, the resulting awakening within our souls has triggered an outpouring of Jewish pride and camaraderie within Israel and reached a high point unmatched in recent years. For Jews globally, our actions of solidarity and strength, have demonstrated that we are determined to live our Jewish life to the fullest, a life rich in Torah study and Mitzvah observance. This collective response has allowed for the light of the combined Jewish souls to shine brighter than ever before.

As we enter the new year of 5785, we focus on our own community and seek to enhance and revitalize Jewish life at home. We do this with joy, confidence and optimism. We invite you to join Chabad of Charlotte, where every day brings you the ability to shine brightly both collectively and individually. As you look through the bright pages of this calendar, you can find yourself immersed in the joy of Judaism by partaking in the multitude of opportunities provided by Chabad of Charlotte.

May this new year be a year of blessing, peace and unity. L'Shana Tova.
