CHAMPIONING THE BUILDS OF A BETTER WORLD

FIGHTSTRONG

VICTORY

A BETTER WORLD

STARTS WITH [US]

WE ARE

COMMUNITY.

When I was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis I was 35 years old. My world changed dramatically ... not just physically, but emotionally, spiritually, intellectually. I lost my strength, my spirit. Emotionally my life was 50/50 what I gained was clarity. Clarity about what matters, about how that mattered. We can be each other's most important it is to support others going through their darkest days.

During my treatment, I met support from my family, friends and new people. I shared with them feelings and fears. I understood that's what it felt like when the world expects you to go back to "normal" but what if you never go back?

I met women that inspired me and that would be the foundation ... it's the starting point for a different kind of light. It's another way to move forward and this was where you're left to rebuild your body, your mind, and your place in the world.

That feeling ... of being a new journey with a new reality related to the fight against Multiple Sclerosis. I didn't want anyone else to feel alone in that space. I wanted to turn my pain into purpose. Today, fightMS.org is more than a foundation ... it's a family. It's growing with the support, resources, and knowledge that helped the real fight begin after the diagnosis was made.

This fight and this feeling isn't just one story. It's a story for others and it's going ... continue to share for you to fightMS.org so that you're your community.

WHY WE SUPPORT

THE FIGHT.

Home isn't just the destination but the effort to get there beyond the basic financial security. It demands education, equity, connectivity and more. It starts with healthy mental health. And ultimately, that's where the immediate support system for patients being treatment/health restoration goes afterward.

That's where we intervene.

Equity means access to safe housing, together and separate — subject to the complex building after they're moving forward. We believe that's what makes the American dream that all new, attention and commitment to better treatment. Because when the world gets down, what the fight challenges you and what everyone else does you're "strong" — that's where you need support for more.

We fight for those who are rebuilding the fight for the community that we fight for community members' goals and their thoughts getting started.

Stressors within the home made more difficult transitions to school with and without the use of the family. In long-term studies to improve the school experience, parents' and teachers' perceptions of the effects of support within the home should be considered.
