SENIORS

20

Suffering from a critical case of senioritis, the class of 1983 bade farewell to FHS.

62

Casting off the "sophomore" title, the juniors enjoyed their upperclass status.

SOPHOMORES

73

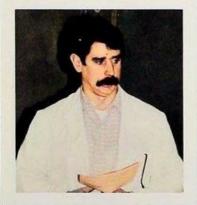

Making the transition from junior high to high school, the class of 1985 adjusted with ease.

FACULTY

84

The faculty and staff of FHS survived another year of late homework, fake hall passes and sleepy students with continued good humor and patience.

SPORTS

94

FINDLA

Three state championships highlighted the year in sports.

ACTIVITIES

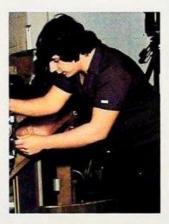

146

Beginning with Homecoming, and ending with a Hawaiian Dance, plays, concerts, and prom kept FHS students active.

190

A "league," a "club," or a "society," matched every student's needs and interests.

ADS

212

We salute the local businesses whose continued support helped finance the Trojan Yearbook.

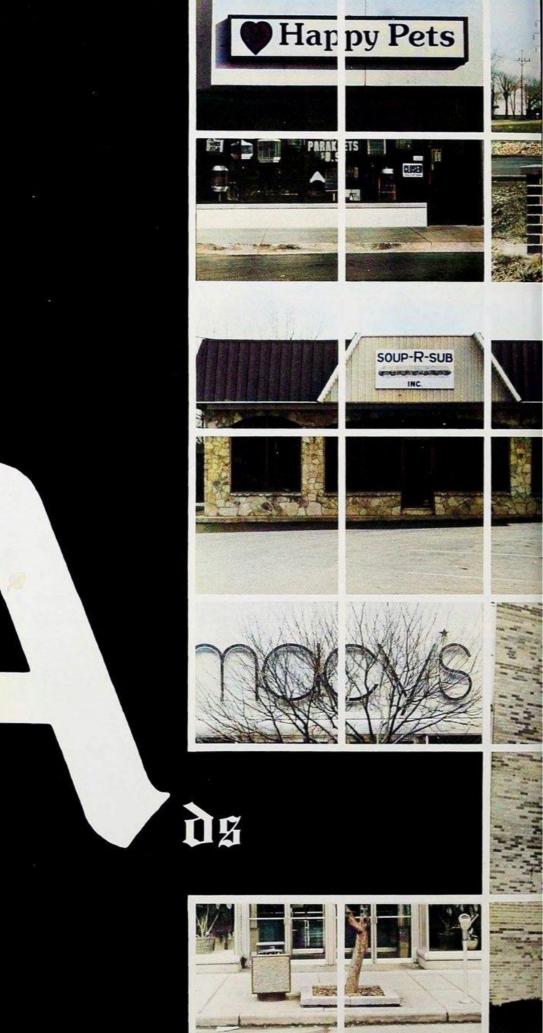

n the years to come, the time spent at Findlay High School will be just a memory. But, for the moment, that memory is a vibrant full-color reality. It's the clammer of the crowds racing in the hall, the blue and gold tide rushing through our veins. And, we're not classmates but friends. Friends who join together to make the school year something more than tests, sweat and homework. We've even graduated together from Val-mania to M-TV fanaticism. From the senior elite to the underclassmen, there have been plenty of radical times . . . bonfires ... pep rallies ... partying on the weekends. And, it's those bonds of friendship that will leave lasting effects on us.
