From Cow to Canister

Learn about the science of food and nutrition from a real nutrition scientist! Julie Hess, PhD, from the USDA-ARS Grand Forks Human Nutrition Research Center will be sharing her career journey from English major to research scientist. She will share fascinating facts about the history, science, labeling, and sensory qualities (taste, texture, appearance) of yogurt and cheeses from around the world. Compare yogurt and skyr to gjetost and dough (as well as several other dairy or dairy alternative products) and learn about how they are made, why they are made that way, how they taste, and how they fit into healthy dietary patterns. This workshop introduces nutrition science, dairy science, and sensory testing and includes a fun and informative taste test.

Important: Please contact ge@gsdakotahorizons.org if you have a food allergy before registering. Dairy allergy safe products will be provided upon request. No tag-a-longs.

Whether they're cute and cuddly or slimy and scary, pets are so much fun! If you hope to have a pet someday, earning the Brownie Pets Badge with the Great Plains Zoo will teach you how to choose the pet that's right for you and make sure the pet stays happy and healthy. You'll also find out how to take the best care of a pet you may already have. It wouldn't be a trip to the zoo if you didn't meet an animal friend up close and visit a few Zoo animals while you are there!

Important: Adults attending event will need to pay Zoo entrance fee or present Zoo membership card. No tag-a-longs.

Once Upon a Camp

Register
by May 1
to save $25.

This program will be available on the website for registration on February 26.

Once upon a time there was a camp full of magic and whimsy, where flying elephants built campfires with cursed princesses. Come and be our guest in a land where good and evil share canoe paddles on their journey through hula-dancing aliens. Stitch up a new friend with the help of a fairy godmother and go on a hunt for Jiminy Cricket. Relax in hammocks as you wish upon the stars. Fly like Tinkerbell on the zipline and be brave on the ropes course. Find your voice around the campfire. Come for the magic and stay for the memories at Once Upon a Camp.

Important: A minimum $50 deposit due at time of registration, balance due by registration deadline. This camp property is considered modern in nature with bunkbeds and bathrooms in the cabins. Packing list and camp information can be found in the Camp Portal at www.gsdakotahorizons.org/camp. Canteen will be available for additional afternoon snacks. Campers will need to complete a signed waiver prior to camp. Application process for adult camp volunteers is now open. Contact jpayton@gsdakotahorizons.org for details. No tag-a-longs.
